

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday December 14. to Monday December 18. 1704.

St. James's, Dec. 16.

THE following Address from the County of Pembroks was presented by Sir Arthur Owen Bar. Representative in Parliament of the said County.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Deputy Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen, and other Freeholders of the County of Pembroke.

MADAM,

TH<sup>O</sup> late, we come humbly to beg Leave to Congratulate Your Majesty's most glorious Success obtained against the French and Bavarian Troops, which hath put a stop to the growing Power of France, by the prudent Conduct of the Duke of Marlborough, yet our Joy is equal to the forwardest of Your Subjects; and heartily wish that Your Parliament, by their Unity and Dispatch, so wisely recommended to them from the Throne, may improve the present Advantages to Your Majesty's entire Satisfaction, and the common Good of Europe; being well assured that nothing (and God) but Your Majesty's Auspicious Reign can make Your People happy at home, and formidable abroad; which, may Heaven long continue, are the earnest Prayers of Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects.

The following Address from the Borough of Arundel was presented to Her Majesty by their Representatives in Parliament.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses and other Inhabitants, of Your Majesty's ancient Corporation and Borough of Arundel.

May it please Your most Excellent Majesty,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses and other Inhabitants, of Your Majesty's ancient Corporation of Arundel, humbly beg Leave to Congratulate the happy Progress of Your Majesty's Arms, under the wise Conduct of the Duke of Marlborough; Your signal Victory over the United Forces of France and Bavaria at Hochster, as will render You Terrible to Your Enemies: So we hope the good Consequences of it here will be to stifle Factions among ourselves.

We cannot but Congratulate Your Majesty in the Success of Your Fleet, tho' not with so great and entire a Victory; yet in the wise Conduct and Courage of Your Admiral, and Bravery of Your Officers, as to make Your Enemies retreat, tho' so much superior in Number: Which Advantage will show Your Majesty's Arms Victorious, and terrifie as much as a complete Victory, and be of us great a Consequence.

How much these Successes abroad are owing to a wise, steady and frugal Management at home, the most contracted Sight may readily discern.

We hope Your Majesty will accept our Zeal to Your Sacred Person with the same Integrity as if we had been speedier in our Address; and believe we are as entirely devoted to Your Majesty as the earliest Addressees.

We beseech God to pour down his Blessings on Your Councils, and grant us the Felicity of Your long and happy Reign over us. In Testimony whereof, we have hereunto affixed our Common Seal, the 22d Day of October, 1704.

The following Address was presented to Her Majesty by Thomas Colthurst Esq; the Steward; introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Derby, Lord Lieutenant of the County Palatine of Lancaster.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the High Steward, Deputy Steward, and the respective Juries, Ministers, Officers, with other Gentlemen and Sutors, at the Courts held at the Castle of Clidderow for the Honour of Clidderow, in the County of Lancaster, and at the several Mayors to the same belonging, in October, in the Third Year of Her Majesty's Reign. Anno; Domini 1704.

Amongst the rest of Your Majesty's loyal and obedient Subjects, permit us to approach Your Royal Presence with our Submission and Congratulatory Address.

Human Affairs receive their Direction from an All wise and Omnipotent Being; and therefore (guided by Your Majesty's most pious Example) for Your great and signal Victory by Land, and Success at Sea, we in the first place return to Almighty God all possible Praise and Thanksgiving.

And next to Your Majesty, in whom the great End and Design of Government, both in Church and State, are completely answered; for You Rule by an unerring Law at home, and give it where it is wanting abroad: You have in a great measure reduced the exorbitant and threatening Power of France: Your Armies have been Victorious over that lofty Assyrian, the Monarch thereof: 'Tis to Your powerful and seasonable Assistance that Princes and States, may the Empire itself, owe Preservation: Your Wisdom hath guided You to the Choice of that Excellent Person the Duke of Marlborough for Your General, the Glory of whose Performances admits of no Example. In return of all which, we faithfully assure Your Majesty, That You Reign in as well as over us: Ages therefore to come, as we do now, will call You Great; and so (Madam) will You be esteemed till time itself shall be no more.

A very Dutiful and Loyal Address from the General Assembly of Her Majesty's Island of Barbadoes, has been presented to Her Majesty by the Agents of the said Island.

Which Addresses Her Majesty received very graciously.

Venice, Dec. 6. N.S. Our Senate appears very much dissatisfied with the Imperialists possessing themselves of Salo, and the French of Dalmazano, both Places situate on the Lake di Garda, and within the Territories of this Republick: They have sent Expresses to their Ministers at the Imperial Court, and that of France, with Orders to make their Complaint of this Proceeding; and a considerable Reinforcement has been sent to the Garison of Brescia, to secure it against any Attempt of this nature. General Davia, a very active and experienced Officer in the Imperial Army, died lately in the German Quarters, of a Wound he had received in a Rencontre between a Party under his Command, and one of French Horse. By a Felucca lately arrived from Cattaro, we have Advice of Proveditor-General Delfino's being arrived there the 12th of the last Month from the Morea, with 11 Gallies belonging to this State; and that General Du Hamel, who had the Chief Command of the Venetian Forces in those Parts, is lately dead. Letters from Messina bring Advice, That the Magazine of the Cattle of Si-