

testimony whereof he has set his hand and affixed his episcopal seal to this Scheme), we, the said Church Commissioners, do humbly recommend and propose as follows, that is to say:—

“ 1. Constitution.

“(a) As from the date of the licence thereto of a Minister the area defined in the Schedule hereto and delineated on the map hereto annexed shall be a separate district for spiritual purposes.

“(b) As from the date of the consecration of a church within the area approved by us, the said Church Commissioners, as suitable to be a parish church, or if the church is consecrated before such approval, the date of approval, the said area shall become a new parish.

“(c) The name of the district (or parish as the case may be) shall be ‘The District (or Parish) of Saint Aidan, The Fairway, Leigh-on-Sea.’

“ 2. Archdeaconry and Rural Deanery.

“The parish shall be in the Archdeaconry of Southend and in the rural deanery of Canewdon and Southend.

“ THE SCHEDULE.

“The area comprising:—

“All that part (coloured pink on the map annexed hereto) of the parish of Eastwood which lies to the northwest of the middle of Eastwood Road North and to the south of the middle of the Arterial Road A.127.”

And whereas the provisions of the New Parishes Measure, 1943, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme, have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Measure.

And Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Chelmsford.

W. G. Agnew.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 31st day of October, 1956.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 19th day of October, 1956, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Church Commissioners, acting in pursuance of the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, and the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1952, now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme which we have prepared with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Arthur Michael, Archbishop of York (in witness whereof he has signed the Scheme), for effecting (1) the union of the benefice of Thirkleby and the benefice of Kilburn and (2) an alteration of the boundaries of the parish of Coxwold with Yearsley, all of which benefices and parishes are in the diocese of York.

“ SCHEME.

“ 1. Union of Benefices. The benefice of Thirkleby and the benefice of Kilburn shall be permanently united together and form one benefice with cure of souls under the style of ‘The United Benefice of Thirkleby with Kilburn and Bagby’, but the parishes of the said benefices shall continue in all respects distinct.

“ 2. Taking effect of union. Upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme is published in the London Gazette the union shall forthwith take effect and the Reverend Lawrence Frank Peltor, if he is then incumbent of the said benefice of Kilburn, shall with his consent (which has been given to us in writing), be the first incumbent of the united benefice.

“ 3. Parsonage House. Upon the union taking effect the parsonage house at present belonging to the benefice of Kilburn shall be the house of residence of the incumbent of the united benefice.

“ 4. Alteration of Boundaries. Upon the union taking effect there shall, with the consents of the said Reverend Lawrence Frank Peltor and of the Reverend Harry Broughton, incumbent of the benefice of Coxwold with Yearsley (which consents have been given to us in writing) be severed from the parish of Kilburn and annexed to the parish of Coxwold with Yearsley:—

“(a) all that part (coloured pink on the map attached hereto), containing the Township of Wass, of the parish of Kilburn lying generally to the east of an imaginary line commencing at the north-east corner of close numbered 73 on the said map on the boundary which divides a detached part of the parish of Coxwold with Yearsley from the parish of Kilburn and proceeding southwest in a straight line to the northern corner of close numbered 164 on the said map on the boundary which divides the parish of Kilburn from the parish of Coxwold with Yearsley, and

“(b) all those three detached parts of the parish of Kilburn coloured pink on the map attached hereto.

“ 5. Diversion of Endowments. Upon the union taking effect a part of the endowments of the benefice of Kilburn, namely an annual sum of £80 charged on our general fund and payable only upon the production to us of quarterly certificates under the hand of the Archbishop of York that Divine Service has been regularly performed to his satisfaction within the Township of Wass, shall with the consent of the said Arthur Michael, Archbishop of York, as patron of the benefice of Kilburn and of the benefice of Thirkleby (testified as aforesaid) be severed and diverted from the benefice of Kilburn and from the united benefice and shall be appropriated and held by us for the benefice of Coxwold with Yearsley but shall continue to be payable only upon production of quarterly certificates as aforesaid.”

And whereas the provisions of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1952, the Union of Benefices Rules, 1926 and 1930, and the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that it shall be and become effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette.

W. G. Agnew.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace the 31st day of October, 1956.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 19th day of October, 1956, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Church Commissioners, acting in pursuance of the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, and the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1952, now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme which we have prepared with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Geoffrey, Lord Archbishop of Canterbury (in witness whereof he has signed the Scheme), for effecting the union of the benefice of Brabourne with Monks Horton, the benefice of Smeeth and the benefice of Bircholt, all of which benefices are situated in the diocese of Canterbury.

“ SCHEME.

“ 1. Union of benefices. The benefice of Brabourne with Monks Horton, the benefice of Smeeth and the benefice of Bircholt shall be permanently united together and form one benefice with cure of souls under the style of ‘The United Benefice of Brabourne with Monks Horton and Smeeth.’

“ 2. Union of parishes. The parish of Brabourne and the parish of Bircholt shall be united together to form one parish for ecclesiastical purposes under the style of ‘The parish of Brabourne’ and the parish church of the parish of Brabourne shall be the parish church thereof, but the parish of Monks
