The following Address was presented to The QUEEN to-day on the occasion of Her Majesty's visit to the Borough of Wallingford:—

May it please Your Majesty.

We the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of Wallingford, with humble duty, extend to Your Majesty our most loyal and affectionate greetings.

We are all deeply conscious of the great honour accorded to us by Your Majesty's gracious visit, it is a memorable occasion for those of us who are present, and will long be remembered by us all.

It also emphasises and renews, the long association between the Crown, and this Ancient Borough.

Last year, as Your Majesty is aware, we celebrated an Historic occasion, the 800th Anniversary of the Granting of our Charter of Incorporation by His Majesty King Henry II, and it was but natural that we should have then looked back over our long history, and especially at the events we were then commemorating.

It was here that the Treaty was signed between King Stephen and Henry, Duke of Normandy, which established the succession to the Throne of England,
