

authorised to take such steps as may be necessary in order to effect a transfer to the Bishop of Norwich for the time being of their said interest in the advowson of the said benefice:

"And whereas we are satisfied that the transfer will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Percy, Bishop of Norwich (in testimony whereof he has executed this Scheme), we, the said Church Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the said interests of Your Majesty, the said Richard Hamilton Anstruther-Gough-Calthorpe and the said Trustees respectively in the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice shall be transferred to the said Percy, Bishop of Norwich, and his successors in the same Bishopric, to the intent that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the Bishop of Norwich for the time being."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Norwich.

W. G. Agnew.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace the 29th day of November, 1956.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 1st day of November, 1956, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Church Commissioners, acting in pursuance of the New Parishes Measure, 1943, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme for altering the boundaries of the parishes of Pennington, Hordle and Sway, all in the diocese of Winchester.

"SCHEME.

"Whereas we are satisfied that it is desirable that the boundaries of the said parishes should be altered in the manner hereinafter mentioned:

"And whereas the Right Reverend Alwyn, Bishop of Winchester, consents to the proposed arrangements (in testimony whereof he has set his hand and affixed his episcopal seal to this Scheme):

"Now, therefore, we, the said Church Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that from and after the day of the date of publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme the boundaries of the said parishes of Pennington, Hordle and Sway shall be altered in the manner described in the Schedule and delineated on the map annexed to this Scheme.

"THE SCHEDULE.

"The territory to be annexed to the parish of Pennington, comprising:—

"(a) All that part (coloured pink on the map annexed hereto) of the parish of Hordle which lies to the east and northeast of Avon Water.

"(b) All that part (coloured green on the map annexed hereto) of the parish of Sway which lies to the southeast and to the south of the Lymington Municipal Borough—New Forest Rural District boundary and to the west of an imaginary line commencing at a point on the aforesaid boundary in the middle of the footpath which runs through close numbered 379 (on the map) and continuing thence generally southwards along the middle of the aforesaid footpath to the boundary which divides the parish of Sway from the parish of Lymington."

And whereas the provisions of the New Parishes Measure, 1943, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme, have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Measure.

And Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Winchester.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace the 29th day of November, 1956.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 1st day of November, 1956, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Church Commissioners, acting in pursuance of the New Parishes Measure, 1943, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme for altering the boundaries of the parishes of Holy Trinity, Weymouth; Saint Paul, Weymouth and Wyke Regis, all in the diocese of Salisbury.

"SCHEME.

"Whereas we are satisfied that it is desirable that the boundaries of the said parishes should be altered in the manner hereinafter mentioned:

"And whereas the Right Reverend William, Bishop of Salisbury, consents to the proposed arrangements (in testimony whereof he has executed this Scheme):

"Now, therefore, we, the said Church Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that from and after the day of the date of publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme the boundaries of the said parishes of Holy Trinity, Weymouth; Saint Paul, Weymouth and Wyke Regis, shall be altered in the manner described in the Schedule and delineated on the map annexed to this Scheme.

"THE SCHEDULE.

"Territory to be annexed to the parish of Holy Trinity, Weymouth.

"(a) All that part (coloured pink on the map annexed hereto) of the parish of Wyke Regis enclosed by a continuous imaginary line which commences at a point on the boundary which divides the parish of Saint Paul, Weymouth, from the parish of Wyke Regis in the middle of Chickereil Road and proceeds southeastwards along the eastern boundary of close number 815; generally southeastwards along the northeastern boundary of close number 837, eastwards along the northern boundary of close number 833 for a distance of 5 chains (or thereabouts), northeastwards to the southwestern end of the wall or fence forming the northwestern boundary of the house or premises known as number 9, Fairclose, generally southeastwards along the northeastern boundaries of closes numbered 829 and 826 (thereby crossing Faircross Avenue) and thence northeastwards along the middle of Wyke Road to a point on the boundary which divides the parish of Holy Trinity, Weymouth, from the parish of Wyke Regis opposite the middle of the northern end of Cross Road.

"(b) All that part (coloured green on the map annexed hereto) of the parish of Wyke Regis which is enclosed by a continuous imaginary line which commences at a point on the boundary which divides the parish of Wyke Regis from the parish of Holy Trinity, Weymouth opposite the eastern end of the northwestern boundary of close number 940 and proceeds southwestwards along the boundary of the said close and continues round the boundary of close number 933 to the northwestern end of the north-eastern boundary of close number 932 and continues
