

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 5th day of April, 1957.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 28th day of March, 1957, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Church Commissioners, acting in pursuance of the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, and the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1952, now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme which we have prepared with the consent of the Right Reverend Michael Bishop of St. Albans (in witness whereof he has signed this Scheme), for effecting the union of the benefice of Wilden, the benefice of Colmworth and the benefice of Ravensden, all situate in the diocese of St. Albans.

"SCHEME.

"1. Union of Benefices. The benefice of Wilden, the benefice of Colmworth and the benefice of Ravensden shall be permanently united together and form one benefice with cure of souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of Wilden with Colmworth and Ravensden' but the parishes of the said benefices shall continue in all respects distinct.

"2. Taking effect of union. Upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme is published in the London Gazette the union shall forthwith take effect.

"3. Parsonage House. Upon the union taking effect and pending the provision of a new house at Wilden approved by us as suitable to be the house of residence for the incumbent of the united benefice, the parsonage house at present belonging to the benefice of Colmworth shall be the house of residence of the incumbent of the united benefice.

"4. Patronage. In every series of three successive turns of presentation to be made to the united benefice after the union has taken effect, the patron of the benefice of Ravensden shall have the first turn, the patron of the benefice of Wilden shall have the second turn, and the patron of the benefice of Colmworth shall have the third turn."

And Whereas the provisions of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1952, the Union of Benefices Rules, 1926 and 1930, and the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme have been duly complied with:

And Whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that it shall be and become effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette.

W. G. Agnew.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 5th day of April, 1957.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 14th day of March, 1957, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Church Commissioners, acting in pursuance of the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, and the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1952, now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme which we have prepared with the consent of the Right Reverend William, Bishop of Salisbury (in witness whereof he has signed this Scheme), for effecting the union of the benefice of Saint Stephen, Kingston Lacy and the benefice of Shapwick, both situate in the diocese of Salisbury.

"SCHEME.

"1. Union of Benefices. The benefice of Saint Stephen, Kingston Lacy and the benefice of Shapwick shall be permanently united together and form one benefice with cure of souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of Kingston Lacy and Shapwick' but the parishes of the said benefices shall continue in all respects distinct.

"2. Taking effect of union.

"(a) If upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme is published in the London Gazette the benefices of Saint Stephen, Kingston Lacy and Shapwick shall both be vacant the union shall forthwith take effect.

"(b) if upon that day one only of the said benefices of Saint Stephen, Kingston Lacy and Shapwick shall be vacant, the union shall take effect immediately upon the next avoidance of the other of the said two benefices.

"(c) if upon that day neither of the said two benefices of Saint Stephen, Kingston Lacy and Shapwick shall be vacant, the union shall take effect immediately upon the first avoidance of that one of the two benefices which shall last be avoided after that date.

"3. Parsonage House. Upon the union taking effect the parsonage house at present belonging to the benefice of Saint Stephen, Kingston Lacy shall be the house of residence of the incumbent of the united benefice."

And Whereas the provisions of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1952, the Union of Benefices Rules, 1926 and 1930, and the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme have been duly complied with:

And Whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that it shall be and become effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 14th day of March, 1957, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Church Commissioners, acting in pursuance of the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, and the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1952, now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme which we have prepared with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Michael, Archbishop of York (in witness whereof he has signed this Scheme), for effecting the union of the benefice of Brafferton and the benefice of Myton-on-Swale, both situate in the diocese of York.

"SCHEME.

"1. Union of Benefices. The benefice of Brafferton and the benefice of Myton-on-Swale shall be permanently united together and form one benefice with cure of souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of Brafferton with Pilmoor and Myton-on-Swale' but the parishes of the said benefices shall continue in all respects distinct.

"2. Taking effect of union. Upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme is published in the London Gazette the union shall forthwith take effect and the Reverend Arthur Garbutt if he is then incumbent of the said benefice of Brafferton shall, with his consent (testified by his signature hereto), be the first incumbent of the united benefice.

"3. Parsonage House. Upon the union taking effect the parsonage house at present belonging to the benefice of Brafferton shall be the house of residence of the incumbent of the united benefice.

"4. Patronage. With the consent (testified as aforesaid) of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Michael, Archbishop of York (hereinafter called 'the said Archbishop') and with the consent (which we have received in writing) of Sir Clive Milnes-Coates of Helperby Hall, York, Baronet, upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme is published in the London Gazette and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such Order, the alternate right of presentation to the benefice of Stonegrave with Nunnington in the said diocese shall be transferred from the said Clive Milnes-Coates to and become vested in the said Archbishop and his successors in the same Archbishopric and in exchange for the same the right of presentation to the said benefice of Myton-on-Swale shall be transferred from the said Archbishop to and become vested in the said Clive Milnes-Coates to the intent that the patronage of the
