MERCHANDISE MARKS ACT, 1926.

APPLICATION FOR THE MARKING OF CERTAIN IMPORTED WIRE GOODS COMMONLY USED FOR DOMESTIC AND CATERING PURPOSES.

In accordance with the provisions of sub-section 4 of section 2 of the Merchandise Marks Act, 1926, the Board of Trade hereby announce that in pursuance of an application received by them for the making of an Order in Council to require imported goods of certain classes and descriptions to bear an indication of origin, they have made a reference to the Standing Committee appointed by the Board of Trade under the Act in respect of the following imported wire goods:—*

Strainers for table and kitchen use; toast racks; vegetable fry and chip baskets; meat and grill stands; graters; skewers; fireguards; fly swatters; pokers; flue rakes and scrapers (excluding from consideration rake or scraper ends); drain cleaners (excluding from consideration any attached rods of any material not being wire); potato mashers (excluding from consideration perforated metal bases); flower and flower pot baskets (excluding from consideration drip containers of any material); egg and batter whisks; cake and pastry trays and coolers; egg slicers (excluding from consideration bases of any material); wall hooks; jar openers; dish drainers and plate racks (excluding from consideration drip trays of any material); soap savers; soap and sponge baskets and bath racks (excluding from consideration soap compartments of any material not being wire); clothes driers; boot and shoe racks; mouse and rat traps (excluding from consideration bases of any material not being wire); sieves and riddles (excluding from consideration sides (rims) of any material not being wire); dish covers; ladles; skimmers; salad, fruit and vegetable washers and colanders; coal savers; expanding curtain rods; vegetable racks; chip shovels; letter boxes.

Attention is called to the fact that, while under the provisions of the Act the Committee must in every case referred to them consider whether the goods should bear an indication of origin at the time of sale or exposure for sale, they have discretion also to consider and report whether such goods should bear an indication of origin at the time of importation.

Representatives of any interests substantially affected by the application who desire to be heard in opposition at the public enquiry, which will be held later by the Committee, should write to the Secretary, Merchandise Marks Committee, Board of
