REGINALD GEORGE MARSHALL, Deceased.

BY Order of the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice, dated 7th March, 1955, and made in an action in the Matter of the Estate of Reginald George Marshall, deceased (late of 1, West Park Road, Epsom, Surrey, who died on the 8th January, 1954), Whybrow v. Bush, 1954, M. 4190, the following inquiry was directed:—

An inquiry whether Richard Tudor Marshall (who was a paternal uncle of the above-named Intestate Reginald George Marshall) is living or dead and if he died after the death of the said Intestate who are his personal representatives, and if he died before the death of the said Intestate whether he left any and what issue who at the death of the said Intestate became beneficially entitled either absolutely or contingently to the stirpital share of the estate of the said Intestate to which the said Richard Tudor Marshall would have become beneficially entitled had he survived the said Intestate and if so for what estates and interests and in what shares and proportions respectively and if any such issue have since died having attained an absolute vested interest who are their respective personal representatives.

Notice is hereby given that all persons claiming to be entitled under the said inquiry are to send by post prepaid to Henry Montagu Ryland, of 15, Bloomsbury Square, London, W.C.1, so as to reach that address on or before the 23rd of June, 1958, their full names, addresses and descriptions and full particulars of their claims or in default thereof they will be excluded from the benefit of the said Order unless the Court or Judge on application otherwise orders.—Dated the 18th day of November, 1957.

R. E. BALL, Master.

NOTE.—Richard Tudor Marshall was born on the 31st January, 1855, and married Lavinia Hannah Sheard at Streatham, on 23rd September, 1879. He had three children, namely, Lillie Beatrice, born at Pitts Woods, Hadlow, Kent, on 15th August, 1880, Eva, born at Prospect Place, Long Ditton, Surrey, on 31st March, 1883, and Vera, who is believed to have been born in Pasadena, California, U.S.A., after 1883. Richard Tudor Marshall it is believed went to America sometime in 1883 and resided at Pasadena and at one time may have owned a fruit farm in Sebring, Florida. His wife the said Lavinia Hannah Marshall is believed to have resided many years ago at 1812, Green Street, Philadelphia.
