

"And whereas we have not approved any consecrated church within the area as suitable to be the parish church of the new parish:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Gerald, Bishop of Chester (in testimony whereof he has set his hand and affixed his episcopal seal to this Scheme), we, the said Church Commissioners, do humbly recommend and propose as follows, that is to say:

"1. Constitution :

"(a) As from the date of the licence thereto of a Minister the area defined in the Schedule hereto and delineated on the map hereto annexed shall be a separate district for spiritual purposes.

"(b) As from the date of the consecration of a church within the area approved by us, the said Church Commissioners, as suitable to be a parish church or if the church is consecrated before such approval, the date of the approval, the said area shall become a new parish.

"(c) The name of the district (or parish as the case may be) shall be 'The District (or Parish) of Saint Chad, Leasowe.'

"2. Archdeaconry and Rural Deanery.

"The district (or parish) shall be in the Archdeaconry of Chester and in the rural deanery of Wallasey.

"THE SCHEDULE.

"The area comprising:—

"1. All those contiguous parts (coloured pink on the map hereto annexed) of the parishes of Christ Church, Moreton, and Saint John the Baptist, Great Meols, which lie to the north and east of an imaginary line commencing at a point on the boundary which divides the parish of Christ Church, Moreton, from the parish of Bidston in the middle of the brook or stream known as The Birket and proceeding thence generally westwards along the middle of The Birket to a point in the middle of the culvert which carries The Birket under Pasture Road and continuing thence northwestwards along the middle of Pasture Road to its end at Wallasey Embankment and continuing thence northwestwards in the same straight line across Wallasey Embankment to the sea.

"2. All those contiguous parts (also coloured pink on the map hereto annexed) of the parishes of Bidston, Wallasey and Saint Nicholas, Wallasey, which lie to the north and west of an imaginary line commencing at a point on the boundary which divides the parish of Christ Church, Moreton, from the parish of Bidston in the middle of the brook or stream known as The Birket and proceeding thence eastwards along the middle of The Birket to the point at the southeastern corner of close numbered 6815 (on the map) where The Birket is joined by the unnamed brook or stream which divides closes numbered 2031 and 8908 from closes numbered 1576, 0648, 7840 and 6815 and continuing thence northeastwards to and along the middle of the last mentioned brook or stream to a point opposite the southern end of the western boundary of close numbered 3680 and continuing thence northwestwards across close numbered 1576 to and along the last mentioned boundary to the point at which it is crossed by the middle of the footpath which leads southeastwards from Leasowe Road to the Pumping Station situate in close numbered 1576 and continuing thence northwestwards along the middle of the said footpath to its end and in a straight line in continuation thereof to a point on the boundary which divides the parish of Wallasey from the parish of Saint Nicholas, Wallasey, in the middle of Leasowe Road and continuing thence southwestwards along the last mentioned boundary to a point opposite the middle of the southeastern end of Telegraph Lane and continuing thence northwestwards to and along the middle of Telegraph Lane to its end at Green Lane and continuing thence northwestwards across Green Lane to the middle of the southeastern end of the footpath which leads northwestwards from Green Lane across the Wallasey Golf Links to the Promenade and continuing thence northwestwards along the middle of the last mentioned footpath to its end and continuing thence northwestwards in the same straight line across the Promenade to the sea."

And Whereas the provisions of the new Parishes Measure, 1943, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme, have been duly complied with:

And Whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Measure.

And Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Chester.

W. G. Agnew.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace the 27th day of November, 1957.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 14th day of November, 1957, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Church Commissioners, acting in pursuance of the New Parishes Measure, 1943, have prepared and humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme for (1) altering the boundaries of the parishes of All Saints, Gosforth and The Holy Saviour, Sugley and (2) constituting a new parish to be taken out of the parishes of All Saints, Gosforth; Saint James and Saint Basil, Fenham and Saint Luke the Evangelist, Newcastle-upon-Tyne; all in the diocese of Newcastle.

"SCHEME.

"Whereas we, the Church Commissioners, are satisfied (1) that it is desirable that the boundaries of the parishes of All Saints, Gosforth and The Holy Saviour, Sugley, should be altered in the manner described in Part I of the subjoined Schedule and delineated on the map hereto annexed, and (2) that the spiritual interests of the area defined in Part II of the said Schedule and delineated on the said map would be best served by constituting it a new parish and that a suitable endowment therefor will be provided:

"And whereas there is within the area described in Part II of the said Schedule a consecrated church known as Saint Peter, Cowgate, which has been approved by us, the said Church Commissioners, as suitable to be the parish church of the new parish and of which the patronage belongs to the Bishop of Newcastle by virtue of an agreement in writing dated the 31st day of July, 1957, and made pursuant to section 9 of the New Parishes Measure, 1943:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Hugh, Bishop of Newcastle (in testimony whereof he has set his hand and affixed his episcopal seal to this Scheme), we, the said Church Commissioners, do humbly recommend and propose as follows, that is to say:—

"1. As from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council confirming this Scheme, the boundaries of the said parishes of All Saints, Gosforth, and The Holy Saviour, Sugley, shall be altered in the manner described in Part I of the subjoined Schedule and delineated on the map hereto annexed.

"2. (a) As from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council confirming this Scheme, the area defined in Part II of the said Schedule and delineated on the said map shall be a new parish.

"(b) The church of Saint Peter, Cowgate, aforesaid shall be the parish church of the parish.

"(c) The name of the parish shall be 'the Parish of Saint Peter, Cowgate'.

"(d) The parish shall be in the Archdeaconry of Northumberland and in the rural deanery of Newcastle.

"THE SCHEDULE.

"PART I.

"The territory to be annexed to the parish of The Holy Saviour, Sugley:—

"All that part (coloured green on the map hereto annexed) of the parish of All Saints, Gosforth, which lies to the south and southwest of the middle of Stamfordham Road.
