And whereas the provisions of the New Parishes Measure, 1943, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme, have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Measure.

And Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Manchester

W. G. Agnew.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace the 14th day of March, 1958.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 7th day of March, 1958, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We the Church Commissioners, acting in pursuance of the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, and the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1952, now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme which we have prepared with the consent of the Right Reverend Ronald, Bishop of Leicester, (in witness whereof he has signed this Scheme), for effecting the union of the benefice of Gilmorton and the benefice of Peatling Parva, both situate in the diocese of Leicester.

"SCHEME.

"1. Union of Benefices. The benefice of Gilmorton and the benefice of Peatling Parva shall be permanently united together and form one benefice with cure of souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of Gilmorton with Peatling Parva' but the parishes of the said benefices shall continue in all respects distinct.

"2. Taking effect of union. Upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme is published in the London Gazette the union shall forthwith take effect and the Reverend Charles Grayburn Richardson if he is then incumbent of the said benefice of Gilmorton shall, with his consent, (testified by his signature hereto) be the first incumbent of the united benefice.

"3. Parsonage House. Without prejudice to the exercise before the date when the union takes effect of any of the powers conferred by the Parsonages Measures, 1938 and 1947, the parsonage houses at present belonging to the benefices of Gilmorton and Peatling Parva, if at that date they so belong, and the site and appurtenances thereof shall, as soon as conveniently may be, be sold and disposed of by us at such time or times and in such manner in all respects as to us shall seem expedient and so much of the net proceeds of such sales as we, after consultation with the Bishop of the diocese, shall approve shall be applied towards the cost of providing a new parsonage house at Gilmorton for the united benefice and the balance, if any, of such net proceeds shall be held by us on behalf of the united benefice as endowment capital subject to the provisions of the Benefices (Stabilisation of Incomes) Measure, 1951.

"4. Patronage. After the union has taken effect the right of presentation to the united benefice shall be exercised by the patrons of the two benefices alternately, the patron of the benefice of Gilmorton having the first presentation to the united benefice to be made after the union.

"5. Archdeaconry and Rural Deanery. The united benefice shall be in the Archdeaconry of Loughborough and the rural deanery of Guthlaxton II."

And whereas the provisions of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1952, the Union of Benefices Rules, 1926 and 1930, and the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that it shall be and become effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette.

W. G. Agnew.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 14th day of March, 1958.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 7th day of March, 1958, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Church Commissioners, acting in pursuance of the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, and the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1952, now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme which we have prepared with the consent of the Right Reverend William, Bishop of Salisbury (in witness whereof he has signed this Scheme), for effecting the union of the benefice of Great Cheverell and part of the united benefice of West, or Bishop's, Lavington with Little Cheverell, both situate in the diocese of Salisbury.

"SCHEME.

"1. Union of Benefices. That part of the united benefice of West, or Bishop's, Lavington with Little Cheverell which coincides with the area of the parish of Little Cheverell shall be severed from the said united benefice and the part so severed and the benefice of Great Cheverell shall be permanently united together and form one benefice with cure of souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of Great Cheverell and Little Cheverell' but the parishes of Great Cheverell and Little Cheverell shall continue in all respects distinct; and the remaining part of the united benefice of West, or Bishop's, Lavington with Little Cheverell shall be known as 'The Benefice of Bishop's Lavington' and the incumbent thereof shall have the cure of souls within the limits of the parish of Bishop's Lavington.

"2. Taking effect of union. If upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme is published in the London Gazette the united benefice of West, or Bishop's, Lavington with
