WAGES COUNCILS ACTS, 1945 TO 1948.

KEG AND DRUM WAGES COUNCIL (GREAT BRITAIN).

The Keg and Drum Wages Council (Great Britain) hereby gives notice of its intention to submit to the Minister of Labour and National Service proposals for increasing the statutory minimum remuneration set out in the Wages Regulation (Keg and Drum) Order, 1957 (Order K.D.(55)).

Particulars of the proposals may be obtained on application to the Secretary of the Wages Council at the address given below.

The Wages Council will consider any written representation with respect to the above-mentioned proposals which may be sent to it within fourteen days from 22nd April, 1958. Any such representation should bear the writer's address and signature and be sent to the Secretary, Keg and Drum Wages Council (Great Britain), Ebury Bridge House, Ebury Bridge Road, London, S.W.1. It is desirable that persons making objections should state the precise nature of their objections.

F. D. Grover, Secretary.

21st April, 1958.

Civil Service Commission, 22nd April, 1958.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that the following Regulations are published with the approval of the Lords Commissioners of H.M. Treasury, viz.:—

REGULATIONS FOR THE RECRUITMENT OF PSYCHOLOGISTS IN THE HOME CIVIL SERVICE.

1. Both men and women may compete under these Regulations, but women will not be assigned to the Admiralty or the Prison Commission.

2. Age.

Candidates for appointment as Psychologist must be at least 21 and under 31 years of age on 1st August, 1958. But a candidate who has served or is serving in H.M. Overseas Civil Service or on a regular (including a regular short-service) engagement in H.M. Forces may for this purpose deduct from his actual age the period of such service rendered before 1st August, 1958.

3. Nationality.

(1) To be eligible for appointment (other than to a situation in the Admiralty or Air Ministry) a candidate must be a British subject, a British protected person or a citizen of the Irish Republic and in addition satisfy one of the following conditions:—

(a) if he was a British subject, a British protected person, or a citizen of the Irish Republic at birth—

(i) at least one of his parents must be, or have been at death, a British subject, a British protected person or a citizen of the Irish Republic, or

(ii) the candidate must have resided in a country or territory within the Commonwealth or in the Irish Republic or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown or partly have so resided and partly been so employed for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of his appointment:

(b) if he was not a British subject, a British protected person or a citizen of the Irish Republic at birth, he must have resided in a country or territory within the Commonwealth or in the Irish Republic or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown or partly have so resided and partly been so employed for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of his appointment:

(c) if not qualified under sub-paragraph (a) or sub-paragraph (b) of this paragraph, he must satisfy the Commissioners that he is so closely connected with a country or territory within the Commonwealth either by ancestry, upbringing or residence, or by reason of national service, that an exception may properly be made in his favour.

(2) A candidate will not be eligible for appointment to a situation in the Admiralty or Air Ministry unless (i) at all times since his birth he has been either a British subject or a citizen of the Irish Republic and (ii) he was born in a country or territory which is (or then was) within the Commonwealth or in the Irish Republic and (iii) each of his parents was born in a country or territory which is (or then was) within the Commonwealth or in the Irish Republic and is or was at death a British subject or a citizen of the Irish Republic and has or had been one or the other at all times from birth:

Provided that, notwithstanding that the aforesaid conditions are not satisfied, he may, if the conditions specified in paragraph (1) of this Regulation are satisfied, be admitted to appointment by special permission of the First Lord of the Admiralty or the Secretary of State for Air as the case may be.

4. Qualifications.

(1) Candidates must have professional qualifications or experience in Psychology as stated below:—

(a) A first or second class honours degree of a recognised University in which Psychology was taken as a main subject; or

(b) A Higher degree in Psychology; or

(c) A Bachelor of Education degree of a Scottish University or of the University of Belfast; or

(d) A post-graduate diploma in Psychology, following at least two years' systematic study; or

(e) Fellowship of the British Psychological Society; or

(f) Associateship of the British Psychological Society, provided that the applicant

(i) has obtained a first or second class honours degree of a recognised University in a subject other than psychology; and

(ii) had, at the time of his election, for not less than three years been responsible for work in Psychology or its applications which in the opinion of the Council of the Society was evidence of an adequate knowledge of Psychology; and

(iii) was elected as an Associate of the Society after 1943.

Candidates taking the Final examinations under (a), (b), (c), or (d) above in the summer of 1958 may compete, but, if they are recommended by the Selection Board, they will not be offered appointment unless they obtain the qualification concerned by 31st August, 1958.

(2) In exceptional cases applications from candidates who do not possess any of the above qualifications but who have at least three years' responsible professional experience may be accepted by the Commissioners at their discretion.

5. Competition.

The candidates who appear from their applications to have the best qualifications and experience will be invited to interview in London before a Selection Board, which will recommend to the Civil Service Commissioners those considered most suitable for appointment.

6. Health and Character.

Successful candidates must satisfy the Commissioners on health and character.
