

"All those two detached parts (coloured green on the map annexed hereto) of the parish of Gressenhall with lie within the boundaries of the civil parish of Lougham."

And whereas the provisions of the New Parishes Measure, 1943, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme, have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Measure.

And Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Norwich.

W. G. Agnew.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace the 7th day of May, 1958.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 16th day of April, 1958, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Church Commissioners, acting in pursuance of the Archdeaconries and Rural Deaneries Act, 1874, and of the Acts mentioned therein, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme which we have prepared with the consent of the Right Reverend Bertram, Bishop of Southwark (in witness whereof he has signed and sealed the same), in respect of certain of the rural deaneries within the Archdeaconries of Southwark and Kingston-upon-Thames, both in the diocese of Southwark.

" SCHEME.

"As from the day on which any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme shall be published in the London Gazette and without any assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the name of the Rural Deanery of Streatham within the Archdeaconry of Southwark shall be altered to 'The Rural Deanery of Streatham and Mitcham' and there shall be transferred to the said rural deanery the parishes of Mitcham and Saint Mark, Mitcham, now in the Rural Deanery of Beddington in the Archdeaconry of Kingston-upon-Thames, and the parish of Saint Barnabas, Mitcham, now in the Rural Deanery of Wimbledon in the Archdeaconry of Kingston-upon-Thames."

And whereas the provisions of the said Acts relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Southwark.

W. G. Agnew.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace the 7th day of May, 1958.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 18th day of April, 1958, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Church Commissioners, in pursuance of the Church Patronage Act, 1870, and of the Acts therein mentioned, have prepared the following Scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Walton on Thames in the County of Surrey and in the diocese of Guildford.

" SCHEME.

"Whereas we are satisfied that Edith Mary Bussell and Alice Bertha Bussell, both of 12, Bruce Avenue, Hornchurch, in the County of Essex, Spinsters, are the patrons or persons entitled to present or nominate to the said benefice:

"And whereas the said Edith Mary Bussell and Alice Bertha Bussell desire to transfer the advowson of the said benefice to the Bishop of Guildford for the time being and are consenting to this Scheme (in testimony whereof they have executed the same):

"And whereas we are satisfied that the transfer will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Ivor, Bishop of Guildford (in testimony whereof he has executed this Scheme), we, the said Church Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice shall be transferred to the said Ivor, Bishop of Guildford, and his successors in the same Bishopric and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the Bishop of Guildford for the time being."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Guildford.

W. G. Agnew.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 7th day of May, 1958.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 2nd day of April, 1958, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Church Commissioners, acting in pursuance of the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, and the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1952, now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme which we have prepared with the consent of the Right Reverend Tom, Bishop of Hereford (in witness whereof he has signed this Scheme), for effecting the union of the benefice of Lyonshall and part of the united benefice of Titley with Staunton, both situate in the diocese of Hereford.

" SCHEME.

"1. Union of Benefices. That part of the united benefice of Titley with Staunton which coincides with the area of the parish of Titley shall be severed from the said united benefice and the part so severed and the benefice of Lyonshall shall be permanently united together and form one benefice with cure of souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of Lyonshall with Titley' but the parishes of Lyonshall and Titley shall continue in all respects distinct; and the remaining part of the united benefice of Titley with Staunton shall be known as 'The Benefice of Staunton-on-Arrow' and the incumbent thereof shall have the cure of souls within the limits of the parish of Staunton-on-Arrow.

"2. Taking effect of union. Upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme is published in the London Gazette the union shall forthwith take effect and the Reverend George Gerald Worsop-Hyde if he is then incumbent of the benefice of Lyonshall shall, with his consent
