Turin, July 1. N. S.

THE Duke de la Feuillade arrived at Suse the 24th past with several Battalions from the Vallies of Perouse and St. Martin; the next day, having been joined by Reinforcement of Foot, and two Squadrons of Dragoons, seame to Bussilia, and the 26th to Villars-Almese, where he illuminues. Our Duke, upon Notice of his March, sent Determent of Horse towards that Place to observe his Moros. The Duke of Vendosme has hitherto made little highests in the Siege of Chivas: He has lately sent several suralions over the Po to attack the Post of Castagnito: They will supply the suralized form Ratteries against it: but finding they did little bralions over the Po to attack the Post of Castagnito: They and some Batteries against it; but finding they did little action, he sent over a further Derachment, which was removed yesterday by 20 Companies of Granadiers; and almost one in the afternoon they attacked a House that we all fortified, and upon which they had made an unsuccessful state about 12 days ago. They met with a second Disaprament; and after a Dispute which latted two hours, and strein they were thrice repuised, they retired with considerable Loss. We had not above 10 Men killed or wounded. In Men marched out of their Intrenchments to pursue them when serves is but we know not yet with what Success. or Men marched out of their Intrenchments to purlue them when Retreat; but we know not yet with what Success. It was the French Camp before Gbiras, July 3. On the 30th the said was also with a Detachment of Granadiers, supported by seal Regiments of Foot. The Attack was very vigorous, but excessful; and our Forces, after having been exposed about about to the fire of his Troops, were obliged to retire with $210$ of about 20 Officers and 200 private Men killed and wided. The taking of this intrenchment being of great Intended. The taking of this intrenchment being of great Intended. The taking of the for that purpose. Upon the Motions which our Forces on the other fide of the Podrycsterday, the Duke of Savoy came out of Castagnito was their found them so advantagiously posted, the retired within his Intrenchments without attempting where our Miners are already advanced under the Covered-ment to reinforce the Troops which are employed to guard them. Several Deletters are come over from the Enemy, who report, That the Marshal de Villars has received Orders to send Detachments to Italy and Spain.

Francfort, July 15. The Elector of Mentz passed through this Place this day, going from Aschaffembourg to Mentz, and was saluted by a discharge of our Cannon. The Palatine Forces, and those of Westphalia, which have lain some time near Traerbach, are now marching towards Mentz, being, as is said, to encamp near that Place, and to be joined by 6 Palatine Regimens. The Prussian Forces, to the Number of 10 or 12000 Men, continue at Rhinhaulen, not far from Phi-

Palatine Regimens. The Prussant states, and to be Jointh by of 10 or 12000 Men, continue at Rhinhaulen, not far from Philipsbourg. General Arnheim, their Commander, is gone to the Camp at Lauterbourg, to conser with the Generals there. Dresden, July 15. The King of Poland's Forces are preparing for their March into Poland. Our Advices from thence say, That the King of Sweden was still at Rawitz, and had fent a Detachment of 3000 Men to observe the Starost Smiglesky, who continued to oppose the Designs of the new Elected King and his Adherents, and had dispersed several of the particular Diets, which had met in pursuance of his Summons: And that the Czar of Muscovy had been at Witepsky, and was decamped from thence with the best part of his Army; but it was not yet known whither he intended to match. Hague, July 21. N.S. The 19th Instant about noon an Express arrived here from the Deputies of the States General who are with their Army commanded by Monsieur d'Auverquerque, are with their Army commanded by Monlieur d'Auverquerque, with Advice, That his Grace the Duke of Marlborough had the morning before forced the French Lines near Heileshem, and was then in pursuit of the Enemy. Yesterday another Express came with a Letter upon the same Subject from Monlieur d'Auverquerque to Monlieur Fagel, which has been published by Order of the States, wherein he mentions, That the Bavarian Horse were almost entirely ruined, as were also the two Regiments of Alface and la Marque; That the Marquis d'Alegre and the Count de Hoorn, Lieurenants General, the Baron of Thauskirchen, Commander of the Bavarian Carabiniers, the Colonel of the Regiment of Cuirassiers of Woltramsdorf, and divers other Officers, had been taken Prisoners; And our Men had besides taken from the Enemy 18 Pieces of Cannon, some of them 24 Pounders. Monlieur d'Auverquerque adds, that this Justice was due to the Duke of Marlborough, That the Glory of this happy Success was entirely owing to his Grace's Courageand Conduct. Other Advices reckon among the Prisoners, besides those above named, the Prince d'Aquaviva, Aid de Camp to the Elector of Bavaria, 3 Bavarian Colonels, with many other Officers, and a great number of private Men; and say, that another Bavarian Colonel had been killed, the Prince of Talmont mortally wounded; and that of the two Regiments above-named, tew escaped being either killed or taken Prisoners. That our Army was marched towards Louvain, and the Enemy to Park. Monsieur Hompesch is just now arrived from the Army, being sent by the Duke of Marlborough to the States General with further Particulars; by which is appears, That the Advantage we have gained is much greater than it had been represented in our former Advices. Letters from Swisserland say, that there was Advice from Italy, That Prince Eugene had passed the Adda, and was on the 5th Instant advanced within five Leagues of Milan.
