TUESDAY, 1 JULY, 1958

At the Court at Buckingham Palace the 25th day of June, 1958.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 18th day of June, 1958, in the words and figures following, that is to say: "We, the Church Commissioners, acting in pursuance of the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, and the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1952, now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme which we have prepared with the consent of the Right Reverend Harry, Bishop of Oxford (in witness whereof he has signed this Scheme), for effecting the union of the benefice of Padbury and the benefice of Adstock, both situate in the diocese of Oxford.

"SCHEME.

"1. Union of Benefices. The benefice of Padbury and the benefice of Adstock shall be permanently united together and form one benefice with cure of souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of Padbury with Adstock, but the parishes of the said benefices shall continue in all respects distinct.

"2. Taking effect of union. Upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme is published in the London Gazette the union shall forthwith take effect and the Reverend William Francis Garrod, if he is then incumbent of the said benefices of Padbury and Adstock, shall with his consent (testified by his signature hereto) be the first incumbent of the united benefice and his admission thereto shall be without any form of, or fee for, presentation or nomination and he shall not be required to pay any fees in respect of his collation, institution, licence or induction to the united benefice beyond such fees as he would have been liable to pay if his admission to the united benefice had been an admission solely to that one of the said two benefices for the holding of which in plurality with the other a dispensation was heretofore granted to him.

"3. Parsonage House. Upon the union taking effect and pending the provision of a new house approved by us as suitable to be the house of residence for the incumbent of the united benefice, the parsonage house at present belonging to the benefice of Padbury shall be the house of residence of the incumbent of the united benefice.

"4. Patronage. After the union has taken effect the right of presentation to the united benefice shall be exercised by the patrons of the two benefices alternately, the patron of the benefice of Padbury having the first presentation to the united benefice to be made after the union."

And whereas the provisions of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1952, the Union of Benefices Rules, 1926 and 1930, and the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that it shall be and become effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette.

W. G. Agnew.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 25th day of June, 1958.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 14th day of May, 1958, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Church Commissioners, acting in pursuance of the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, and the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1952, now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme which we have prepared with the consent of the Right Reverend Tom, Bishop of Hereford (in witness whereof he has signed this Scheme), for effecting the union of the benefice of Stoke Prior and the benefice of Humber, both situate in the diocese of Hereford.

"SCHEME.

"1. Union of Benefices. The benefice of Stoke Prior and the benefice of Humber shall be permanently united together and form one benefice with cure of souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of Stoke Prior with Humber' but the parishes of the said benefices shall continue in all respects distinct.

"2. Taking effect of union. Upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme is published in the London Gazette the union shall forthwith take effect.

"3. Parsonage House. Upon the union taking effect and pending the provision of a new house approved by us, the Church Commissioners, as suitable to be the house of residence for the incumbent of the united benefice the parsonage house at present belonging to the benefice of Humber shall, if at that date it so belongs, be the house of residence of the incumbent of the united benefice.

"4. Patronage. After the union has taken effect the right of presentation to the united benefice shall be exercised by the patrons of the two benefices alternately, the patron of the benefice of Humber having the first presentation to the united benefice to be made after the union."

And whereas the provisions of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1952, the Union of
