The London Gazette.

Pathilico by Authority.

From Thursday August 2. to Wenday August 6. 1705.

Lisbon, July 27. N. S.

ΝŚ 0-

g: 2 ar of

zes.

ofed n's-

the

ton, er'd i ton, er'd

d so rij. leg-d te

, to up-Ube turie eads ligh lun; likefold

bich i in-

zes. aken nurf-n the

jijt m in

loya! beir Inſρs-.

thur part-(aid e 10 rice, nish iday hall, to

597-570, vér Ball

uer. ury, on ler. ler, ITY A

in i hut no-Ien

Fleet of Transport-ships, laden with Stores and Provisions, is lately arrived from England, under Convoy of several Men of War. The King of Spain went on board the Ranclagh the 23d Instant. This morning the Signal was given for failing; and the Ships in our River will fall down to the Bay of Wares, at the Mouth of the Harbour, where the Fleet is to rendezvous. To mornow the Fleet will pass the Bar, and put to Sea, in order to proceed on the intended Expedition.

From Prince Eugene's Camp at Romenengo, July 22. N. S.

proceed on the intended Expedition.

From Prince Eugene's Camp at Romenengo, July 22. N. S.
We are still in the fame Camp: The Enemy are fortifying theirs, and appear definous to avoid a Bartle: They have reviaten fome intrenchments we had possessed our selves of between Soricina and Zenivolta. On the other hand we have made our selves Masters of Ustiano and Canero, two considerable Posts. The whole Army is ordered to be in a readiness to march. A great Magazine is creeting for the Use of our Forces at Trent, from whence we expect 12 Pieces of heavy Cannon. One of our Detachments has passed the Po near Vidana. Viadana viadana. From the French Camp at Soricina, July 25. N. S. The 19th Instant we marched from Fiescho, and came to this Chimp, our Right being at Casalmorano, and our Left at Soricina. The 19th the Duke of Vendosme marched with a Detachment of Grandiers and the Piquer Guard of Horse from the Right, to attack some Intrenchments which the Imperialits were possible of between Soricina and Zenivolas, would be the sorice of th Right, to attack some Intrenchments which the Imperialits were possessed of between Sorietna and Zenivotta, wanch he mokaster a sharp Daspute; and he possed there two Brigades of Foot, with 4 Pieces of Cannon. The 21st there acting Advice, that the Imperialists had taken from us Ustiano and Caneto, two Towns on the Oglio, and were attacking Marcaria, ituated on the same River, he detached the Grand Prior with 8 Barcalions and 11 Squadrons, with Orders 10 march to Gazolo, below Marcaria, where he would find two Bartalions and 300 Dragoons, commanded by the Sieur des Touches; and having been joined by those Troops, to endavour to regain the Posts acove-meationed: He arrived at Gazolo the 23d, and ordered a Bridge to be made there on enthe Oglio; which being sinsshed this merning, he ordered a Camp to be marked out on the other side of that River-While this was doing, Advice was brought him, there a Bridge of Imperial Horse, commanded by Monticur St. Amour, was come into the Neighbourhood; whereupon he immediately marched to attack him with the 300 Dragoons and his Piquet Guard, supported by several Companies of Granadess: The Germans imade a thour Resistance; but being overpowered by numbers, were obliged to retire, with the Lots of 25 of their Men, who were taken Priloners. Their Detachment which was attacking Marcaria thereupen drew eff from before that Place; and the Grand Prior intends to march to morrow morning in order to attack Caneto and Ustiano.

Vienna, July 20. Mr. Stenney. Her Maiesty of Great Bripossessed of between Soricina and Zenivolta, which he Ulliano.

Ultiano.

Vienna, July 29. Mr. Stepney, Her Majesty of Great British's Envoy Extraordinary, having received new Credentials from Her Majesty, with the Character of Picnipotentiary, had Audience the 20th Instant of the Emperor, and afterwards of the Empress, and the next day of the Empress Dowager. A Regiment of Danish Horse, and another or Dragoons, making together about 1400 Men, were reviewed the 20th by his Imperial Majesty near the Gates of this City, and are marched towards Anger, where they are to pass the River Mark, in order by this Morion to oblige Count Berzeni, who has lately made an Incursion into Moravia with the Body of Maleconfents under his Command, to quit that Country, and return into Hungary. The 22d Baron Szitmai arrived here from Prince Ragotski, whom he lest the day before at Newhausel, ready to march from thence o join Berzeni at Mosenack, on the Waag: He has brought with him an Authenick Instrument, whereby the Hungarian Malecontents sectare their thankful Acceptance of the Mediation of Her Majesty and the States General between the Emperor and them; and Letters from Prince Ragotski, in the Name of lumfeit and the rest of the Malecontents, to Her Majesty and the States, sull of Expressions of Gratitude for their generous Endeavour to put an End to those Troubles. The 26th, being the Feast of St. Ann, and the Emperor's Birth-day, was observed in the usual manner; and it was no small Ardition to the Diversions upon this Occasion, that Colonel Richards arrived here that day, being sent Express by the Duke of Marlborough with the welcome News of his Grace's having forced the Lines in Brabant, and gained a Glorious Victory over the Enemy's Forces within those Lines. A Courser is arrived here from Turin, who came away the 19th: The French Forces under the Duke de la Feuillade were then advancing to the Palisadoes of Chivas; so that it was believed that Place could not hold our much longer. The Pope having caused Signior Cavalleti, a Gentleman of the Imperial Ambassadoe's Retinue, to be put in Prison for some Mildemeanor, his Excellency immediately sens an Express hither to acquaint the Emperor of this Indignity offered to his Character. The the Emperor of this Indignity offered to his Character. The rope at the fame time fent another to his Nurvier, who excepts are the fame time fent another to his Nurvier, who excepts that Refentment of our Court, Orders were privately disparched to the Ambustador to depart from Rome, as he did the fame night he received them, which was on the noth, and came away to Siena, intending to proceed thence to Lucca, and to continue there till farther Orders.

Them the Imperial Camp near Laurerbourg, Angult 3. General Thungen and the other Generals went from honce yesterday to Raftat, to confer with Prince Lewis, who is there to prefent. The Matthal de Villars having cauted the Fortifications of Choore-Weislembourg to be demolished, marched the Emperor of this Indignity offered to his Character.

there it to Raffer, to confer with Prince Lewis, who is there at prefent. The Marshal de Villars having clusted the Ferritications of Croor-Werdembourg to be demolished, marched the first littent towards Haguenau, near which there is excamped within the French Lines, and teems resolved to stand upon the Detensive. We are at prefent above 30000 itrong, though acither the Prussian Horse, nor the Palatine Proops, which are 8000 in number, have yet joined us. The Lines of Biens and Stolhossen are also provided with a sostinct number of Groops to guard them.

Cologne, Angust 7. A Body of 10000 of the Enemy's Forces, commanded by the Marquis de Retuge, set down before Hombourg the 24th past, which Place surrendred the 26th upon Articles, in pursuance of which the Garison was allowed to march out with their Arms and Bagage, and was conducted to Mansieim. The Marquis de Retuge put a strong Garison into that Place, and gave Orders for augmenting as Fortineations: After which he sent 3 Battalions to Saar-Louis, which are to remain in Garison there, and marched with the reft of his Troops towards Metz.

From the Duke of Marlborough's Camp at Melatre, Aug. 10. N.S. The first Instant the Duke of Marlborough were in Ambush, that a Partie of 60 of the Enemy's Diagnoons were in Ambush there in a Partie of 60 of the Enemy's Diagnoons were in Ambush hear his

The next day Montieur d'Auverquerque having Notice, that a Party of 60 of the Enemy's Dragoons were in Ambush near his Camp, fent out 100 Men of his Army, who came up with the Enemy before they could retire, and having killed several of them upon the Place, brought in 25 Prisoners, and as many Horses; so that very sew of them made their Escape. many Horles; to that very few of them made their Eleape. The 3d the Duke of Marlborough reviewed the first Line of our Army, and was very well fatisfied with the good Order they appeared in. The 5th the Duke of Marlborough reviewed the second Line of our Army, which his Grace found in very good Order. The next morning the Earl of Sunderland, Envoy Extraordinary from Her Majesty of Great Britain to the Emperor, set out from this Place, and will make the best of his way to Vienna. The Duke of Marlborough reviewed an Accument by Letters from the Upper Ruine. That the the best of his way to vienna. The Dake of the Ceived an Account by Letters from the Upper Rnine, That the Marshal de Marshal was, detached with 4 Brigades of Foor and 1 of Horse to join the Troops that were employed in the Siege of Hombourg, and to march with the whole to reinforce the Enemy's Army in these Parts; upon which the Palatine Troops