

said Vicarage, is the patron or person entitled to present or nominate to the said benefice in case the same were now vacant:

"And whereas the said Reverend Ralph Harry Bassett desires to transfer the advowson of the said benefice to the Bishop of Portsmouth for the time being and consents to this Scheme (in testimony whereof he has executed the same):

"And whereas we are satisfied that the transfer will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Launcelot, Bishop of Portsmouth, (in testimony whereof he has executed this Scheme), we, the said Church Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice shall be transferred to the said Launcelot, Bishop of Portsmouth, and his successors in the same Bishopric and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the Bishop of Portsmouth for the time being."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Portsmouth.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 22nd day of October 1958.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council Whereas the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 26th day of September 1958, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Church Commissioners, in pursuance of the Church Patronage Act, 1870, and of the Acts therein mentioned, have prepared the following Scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Minchinhampton in the County of Gloucester and in the diocese of Gloucester.

"SCHEME

"Whereas we are satisfied that Anne Horatia Piper of 7 Lower Mall, Chiswick in the County of London, Widow, is the patron or person entitled to present or nominate to the said benefice:

"And whereas the said Anne Horatia Piper desires to transfer the advowson of the said benefice to the Bishop of Gloucester for the time being and is consenting to this Scheme (in testimony whereof she has executed the same):

"And whereas we are satisfied that the transfer will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Wilfred, Bishop of Gloucester (in testimony whereof he has executed this Scheme), we, the said Church Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice shall be transferred to the said Wilfred, Bishop of Gloucester, and his successors in the same Bishopric and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the Bishop of Gloucester for the time being."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Gloucester.

W. G. Agnew.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 22nd day of October 1958.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council Whereas the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 26th day of September 1958, in the words and figures following, that is to say: "We, the Church Commissioners, acting in pursuance of the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, and the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1952, now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme which we have prepared with the consent of the Right Reverend John, Bishop of Derby (in witness whereof he has signed this Scheme), for effecting the union of the benefice of Fenny Bentley, the benefice of Thorpe and the benefice of Tissington, all situate in the diocese of Derby.

"SCHEME

"1. Union of Benefices. The benefice of Fenny Bentley, the benefice of Thorpe and the benefice of Tissington shall be permanently united together and form one benefice with cure of souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of Fenny Bentley, Thorpe and Tissington' but the parishes of the said benefices shall continue in all respects distinct.

"2. Taking effect of union.

"(1) If upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme is published in the London Gazette all of the said benefices shall be vacant the union shall forthwith take effect:

"(2) If upon that day the benefice of Tissington only shall be vacant the union shall take effect upon the first avoidance of that one of the other two benefices which shall last be avoided after that day:

"(3) If upon that day the benefice of Tissington and one other of the said three benefices shall be vacant the union shall take effect upon the first avoidance of the remaining one of the three benefices.

"3. Parsonage House. Without prejudice to the exercise before the date when the union takes effect of any of the powers conferred by the Parsonages Measures, 1938 and 1947, upon the union taking effect the parsonage house at present belonging to the benefice of Thorpe shall (if at that date it so belongs to the said benefice) be the house of residence of the incumbent of the united benefice and the parsonage house at present belonging to the benefice of Fenny Bentley (if at that date it so belongs) together with the site and appurtenances thereof and the grounds usually occupied and enjoyed therewith shall, as soon as conveniently may be, be sold and disposed of by us at such time or times and in such manner in all respects as to us shall seem expedient and the net proceeds of such sale or sales shall be placed to the credit of the Expenses Fund of the said diocese established pursuant to the 32nd Section of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923.

"4. Patronage. In every series of three successive turns of presentation to be made to the united benefice after the union has taken effect the patron of the benefice of Fenny Bentley shall have the first turn, the patron of the benefice of Tissington the second turn, and the patron of the benefice of Thorpe the third turn."

And whereas the provisions of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1952, the Union of Benefices Rules, 1926 and 1930, and the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that it shall be and become effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette.
