

being the incumbent of the benefices of Sneyd and Saint Werburgh, Burslem, all that part of the parish of Saint Werburgh, Burslem, which is described in the Schedule hereto and delineated on the map hereto annexed shall, upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme is published in the London Gazette, be severed from that parish and be annexed to the parish of Sneyd.

"2. Taking down of church

(1) The said church shall be taken down and the materials and site thereof, together with any ground annexed thereto and necessary for the use and enjoyment thereof, shall be sold and disposed of by us at such time or times and in such manner in all respects as to us shall seem expedient subject to the conditions and restrictions imposed by the said Union of Benefices Measures.

(2) The net proceeds to arise from such sale or sales, after payment of the expenses attendant thereon and upon the taking down of the said church and all other expenses incidental to these matters, shall be placed to the credit of the Expenses Fund of the said diocese established pursuant to the 32nd Section of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923.

(3) The furnishings, that is to say, the font, communion table, plate used for the purpose of the Holy Communion, bells, organ and other furniture and fittings of the said church or such of them as the bishop of the said diocese may select, shall be transferred to any church which may be provided as the parish church of the said parish of Sneyd or to such other church or chapel, churches or chapels within the said diocese as the said bishop may select, and any such furnishings not so transferred may, with the exception of the font, communion table and plate used for the purpose of Holy Communion, be sold and in such case the proceeds shall be added to the fund arising from the sale of the site and materials of the said church.

"SCHEDULE

"The territory to be annexed to the parish of Sneyd:

"All that part (coloured pink on the map hereto annexed) of the parish of Saint Werburgh, Burslem, which is bounded on the southwest, south and southeast by the parish of Sneyd and on the remaining sides by an imaginary line commencing on the boundary which divides the parish of Sneyd from the parish of Saint Werburgh, Burslem, in the middle of Hamil Road opposite the middle of the southeastern end of Lorne Street and proceeding thence north-westwards to and along the middle of Lorne Street and in a straight line in continuation thereof to a point in the middle of Bycars Lane and continuing thence westwards along the middle of Bycars Lane and in a straight line in continuation thereof to a point in the middle of Bycars Road and continuing thence southwestwards along the middle of Bycars Road to the boundary which divides the parish of Saint Werburgh, Burslem, from the parish of Sneyd."

And whereas the provisions of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1952, the Union of Benefices Rules, 1926 and 1930, and the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that it shall be and become effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette.

W. G. Agnew.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 22nd day of October 1958.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 26th day of September 1958, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Church Commissioners, in pursuance of the Church Patronage Act, 1870, and of the Acts therein mentioned, have prepared the following Scheme for effecting a transfer of the interest hereinafter mentioned in the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the churches and cure (hereinafter called 'the said united benefice') of Stanford with Postling and Radegund in the County of Kent and in the diocese of Canterbury.

"SCHEME

"Whereas we are satisfied that the right of patronage of and presentation to the said united benefice is at present exercisable in a series of three successive turns of which Francis Neville Lloyd of Knowle Hill House, Kingsclere, near Newbury, in the County of Buckingham, Landowner and Farmer, and the Reverend Robert William Wilson of Shipbourne Vicarage, Tonbridge in the County of Kent, Clerk in Holy Orders, as the Executors of the Will of the late James Richard Tylden, the surviving Executor of the Will of the late Mrs. Eleanor Coates Tylden, are entitled to one turn.

"And whereas the said Francis Neville Lloyd and the said Reverend Robert William Wilson, at the request of Margaret Lilian May Tylden of North Lodge, Calehill Park, Little Chart, Ashford in the County of Kent, Widow, the sole residuary legatee under the Will of the late James Richard Tylden, desire to transfer their said interest in the advowson of the said united benefice to the Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being and are consenting to this Scheme (in testimony whereof they have executed the same):

"And whereas we are satisfied that the transfer will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Geoffrey Francis, Lord Archbishop of Canterbury (in testimony whereof he has executed this Scheme), we, the said Church Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the said interest of the said Francis Neville Lloyd and the said Reverend Robert William Wilson in the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said united benefice shall be transferred to the said Geoffrey Francis, Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, and his successors in the same Archbishopric and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercisable by the Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Canterbury.
