Whereas the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 20th day of August, 1958, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Church Commissioners, acting in pursuance of the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, and the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1952, now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme which we have prepared with the consent of the Right Reverend Harry, Bishop of Oxford, (in witness whereof he has signed this Scheme), for effecting the union of the benefice of Grazeley and the benefice of Saint Mary the Virgin, Beech Hill, both situate in the diocese of Oxford.

"SCHEME

"1. Union of Benefices. The benefice of Grazeley and the benefice of Saint Mary the Virgin, Beech Hill, shall be permanently united together and form one benefice with cure of souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of Grazeley and Beech Hill' but the parishes of the said benefices shall continue in all respects distinct.

"2. Taking effect of union. If upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme is published in the London Gazette both the said benefices shall be vacant, the union shall forthwith take effect; and if upon that day one only of the said benefices shall be vacant, the union shall take effect upon the first avoidance of the other; and if upon that day neither of the said benefices shall be vacant, the union shall take effect upon the first avoidance of that one of the two benefices which shall last be avoided after that date.

"3. Parsonage House.

"(a) Upon the union taking effect and pending the provision of a new house at Beech Hill approved by us as suitable to be the house of residence of the incumbent of the united benefice, the parsonage house at present belonging to the benefice of Saint Mary the Virgin, Beech Hill, shall be the house of residence of the incumbent of the united benefice.

"(b) Without prejudice to the exercise before the date when the union takes effect of any of the powers conferred by the Parsonages Measures, 1938 and 1947, the parsonage house belonging to the benefice of Grazeley and the site and appurtenances thereof and the grounds heretofore usually occupied and enjoyed therewith shall, as soon as conveniently may be, be sold and disposed of by us at such time or times and in such manner in all respects as to us shall seem expedient.

"(c) So much of the net proceeds of such sale or sales as we, after consulting with the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese, shall deem necessary shall be applied by us towards the cost of providing a new house of residence at Beech Hill as aforesaid and any balance of the said net proceeds shall be held by us on behalf of the united benefice as endowment capital and subject to the provisions of the Benefices (Stabilization of Incomes) Measure, 1951."

And whereas the provisions of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1952, the Union of Benefices Rules, 1926 and 1930, and the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that it shall be and become effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette.
