

"3. Archdeaconry and Rural Deanery

"The parish shall be in the Archdeaconry of Surrey and in the Rural Deanery of Guildford.

"THE SCHEDULE

"Part I

"The territory to be annexed to the parish of Saint Nicholas, Guildford, comprising:

"All that part (coloured green on the map annexed hereto) of the parish of Emmanuel, Stoughton, Stoke-next-Guildford, which lies to the south-west of the middle of the Aldershot to Guildford line of the British Railways (Southern Region).

"Part II

"The district of Saint Francis, Westborough, Guildford, comprising:

"All those contiguous parts (together coloured pink on the map annexed hereto) of the parishes of Worplesdon; Saint Nicholas, Guildford; and Emmanuel, Stoughton, Stoke-next-Guildford, which taken together are bounded on the east by the parish of Stoke-next-Guildford and on the remaining sides by a continuous imaginary line commencing at a point on the boundary which divides the parish of Emmanuel, Stoughton, Stoke-next-Guildford, from the parish of Stoke-next-Guildford in the middle of the bridge which carries the Guildford to Woking line of the British Railways (Southern Region) over Woodbridge Road, and continuing from that point westwards to and along the middle of Woodbridge Hill and along the middle of Aldershot Road to the present boundary of the Municipal Borough of Guildford generally southwestwards along the said municipal boundary to the middle of the Aldershot to Guildford line of the British Railways (Southern Region), and generally eastwards along the middle of the said railway line and the boundary dividing the Westborough and Onslow Ward of the Municipal Borough of Guildford to the boundary which divides the parish of Stoke-next-Guildford from the parish of Saint Nicholas, Guildford."

And whereas the provisions of the New Parishes Measure, 1943, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme, have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Measure.

And Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Guildford.

W. G. Agnew.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 22nd day of October 1958

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 15th day of October 1958, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Church Commissioners, acting in pursuance of the New Parishes Measure, 1943, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme for altering the boundaries of the parishes of Saint Mark, Newby, and Saint Columba, Scarborough, both in the diocese of York.

"SCHEME

"Whereas we are satisfied that it is desirable that the boundaries of the said parishes should be altered in the manner hereinafter mentioned:

"And whereas the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Arthur Michael, Archbishop of York consents to the proposed arrangements (in testimony whereof he has executed this Scheme):

"Now, therefore, we, the said Church Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that from and after the day of the date of publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme the boundaries of the said parishes of Saint Mark, Newby and Saint

Columba, Scarborough, shall be altered in the manner described in the Schedule hereto and delineated on the map annexed to this Scheme.

"THE SCHEDULE

"The territory to be annexed to the parish of Saint Columba, Scarborough:—

"All that part (coloured pink on the map annexed hereto) of the parish of Saint Mark, Newby, which is bounded on the east and south by the parish of Saint Columba, Scarborough, and on the remaining sides by an imaginary line commencing at a point on the boundary which divides the parish of Saint Columba, Scarborough, from the parish of Saint Mark, Newby, at the middle of the southeastern end of North Leas Avenue and proceeding thence northwestwards along the middle of North Leas Avenue to the Scarborough Municipal Borough Boundary and continuing thence eastwards along the said Municipal Borough Boundary to a point in the middle of Weydale Avenue on the boundary which divides the parish of Saint Mark, Newby from the parish of Saint Columba, Scarborough."

And whereas the provisions of the New Parishes Measure, 1943, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme, have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Measure.

And Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of York.

W. G. Agnew

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 22nd day of October 1958.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas by an Order in Council dated the 23rd day of June 1891, and made under the Burial Act, 1853, burials were ordered to be discontinued in (amongst other places) the Parish Church of Long Melford in the County of Suffolk and, except as therein provided, in parts of the Churchyard of the said Parish Church specified in the said Order:

And whereas by the Burial Act, 1855, it is provided that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to vary any Order in Council made under the Burial Act, 1853, as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas the Minister of Housing and Local Government, after giving to the Incumbent and Churchwardens of the said Parish of Long Melford in the County of Suffolk, ten days' previous notice of his intention in that behalf, has, under the provisions of the said Burial Acts, 1853 and 1855, as amended by subsequent enactments, made a Representation to Her Majesty in Council that, for the protection of the Public Health the said Order in Council of the 23rd June 1891 should be varied so as to provide that burials should be discontinued forthwith and entirely in the whole of the Churchyard of the said Parish Church of Long Melford in the County of Suffolk:

Provided that—

(a) In the said Churchyard, in the four grave spaces reserved by faculty in which no interment has heretofore taken place, the burial may be allowed at their decease of the bodies of members of the Parker family.

(b) In any earthen grave now existing in the said Churchyard the burial may be allowed of the body of any member of the family of the person or persons heretofore buried in such grave.

Subject in each case to the condition that no part of the coffins containing the bodies shall be at a depth less than three feet below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give Notice of such Representation and
