

Edinburgh, September 21. This day Her Majesty's High Commissioner gave the Royal Assent to the following Acts, viz.

An Act for discharging the Importation of English, Irish, and Foreign Butter and Cheese.

An Act for advancing the Fishery-Trade in and about this Kingdom.

An Act appointing a Council of Trade.

An Act for a Treaty with England.

An Act for encouraging the Exportation of Beef and Pork.

An Act declaring Linen and Woollen Manufactory free of Duty at Exportation.

An Act for a Supply.

And some Private Acts.

After which the Lord Chancellor, by Order of Her Majesty's High Commissioner, Adjourned the Parliament to the 20th of December next.

Falmouth, Sept. 24. A Fleet of about 30 Sail of outward-bound Merchant-men passed by this Port yesterday to the Westward; and was joined off this Place by the Diligence of Leverpoole, James Wilson Master, which came from Dublin. This day came in here from London the Mediterranean Galley, George Baily Master, belonging to Bristol.

London, Sept. 29. This day the Common Hall, according to Custom, proceeded to the Election of a Lord Mayor; and having returned Sir Thomas Rawlinson and Sir Robert Bedingfield to the Court of Aldermen, they unanimously made Choice of Sir Thomas Rawlinson, who was accordingly declared Lord Mayor Elect for the Year ensuing.

The Dutch Mails of Tuesday and Friday last are not yet come in.

If any Able-bodied Men are willing to serve Her Majesty in the Train of Artillery abroad, let them repair to Captain Silver, Master-Gunner of England, at his House in St. James's-Park, they shall enter into present Pay of Seven Shillings a Week, and be further encouraged and advanced as they shall deserve.

By the Receiver-General for Prizes Notice is hereby given, That the Officers and Companies of Her Majesty's Ships Terrible, Lightning, Hawke, and Granada, will on Monday the 8th, the Phoenix, Basilisk, Mortar, and Terror, on Thursday the 11th, and the Griffin, Hunter, Vulture, and Habella, on Saturday the 13th Instant, be paid their just Proportion of the remaining part of Her Majesty's Bounty for the Action at Vigo, according to the Directions in Her Majesty's most Gracious Declaration and Orders in Council.

Advertisements.

Elizabeth Bailey, of the Parish of Hayes near Uxbridge in Middlesex, who was afflicted with a dangerous ulcerated bleeding Cancer in the corner of her left Eye, being recommended by a Person of Quality to Sir William Read, Her Majesty's Oculist, in Durham-yard in the Strand, London, as a fit Object of his usual Charity to the Poor, he took out the Cancer, preserved the Sight of her Eye, and cured her by the Application of his famous Siptick Water; which all Persons may be furnished with at his House above-mentioned, where Sir William is constantly to be advised with, and does daily cure Cataracts, and restore Multitudes of blind People to their Sight: And has also taken off a large Wen from the right Arm of Mrs. Nokes, of Hodscoc in Suffolk, which was of that bigness, that she could not lift her Arm to her Head, the Wen weighing 10 Pound: This was performed in the Presence of several Persons of Quality, the Blood stop'd, and cured by his Siptick Water.

FOR Sale by the Candle, at the Marine Coffee-house in Birchington Lane, on Tuesday the 9th Instant, at 3 in the afternoon, 542 Hogheads of Prize White Wines, by the Ship Uholstad, lying in the Port of London, and there to be delivered, free of all Duties, except that due to the Orphans, which is about 4s. per Tun: The Wines are to be seen at Galley-Key, where Attendance will be given for the Buyers to view and taste the Wines, from Thursday the 4th Instant till the time of Sale. Catalogues may be had at the Outposts Office on the Royal Exchange, and at the Place of Sale.

THE great Plate at Newmarket in Flintshire will be run for on Monday the 22d Instant, by any Horse, &c. carrying 10 Stone; the Horses to be entered at the Dragon in Newmarket 6 days before, where there is good Entertainment for Men and Horses.

A Commission of Bankrupt being awarded against William Benford, late of London, Clothworker; All Persons that owe him any Money, or that have any Goods or other Effects of his in their hands, are not to pay or deliver the same to any Person, but to such only whom the Commissioners shall appoint: But they are desired forthwith to give Notice thereof to Mr. Joshua Hiffeld, Attorney at Law, at Founders-Hall in Lothbury, London, one of the Commissioners.

A Commission of Bankrupt being awarded against Francis Limbouch, alias Limburgh, late of London, Merchant; All Persons that owe him any Money, or that have any Goods or other Effects of his in their hands, are not to pay or deliver the same to any Person, but to such only as the Commissioners shall appoint: But they are desired forthwith to give notice thereof to Mr. John Abington, Attorney at Law, in Coleman-Street, London, one of the Commissioners.

A Commission of Bankrupt being awarded against Francis Palmer, late of Gosport in the County of Southampton, Baker; All Persons that owe him any Money, or that have any Goods or other Effects of his in their hands, are forthwith to pay and deliver the same to Mr. John Marett and Mr. Thomas Fraunces, both of Gosport aforesaid, Assignees, or they will be sued. And all the Creditors of the said Bankrupt are to pay their Contribution-money to the said Mr. John Marett, who is appointed Treasurer by the Commissioners.

THE Commissioners in a Commission of Bankrupt against Peter Gray, late of London, Packer, intend to meet on Wednesday the 17th Instant, at Three in the afternoon, at the Irish Chamber in Guildhall, London, in order to make a Dividend of the said Bankrupt's Estate, when and where all Creditors concerned are to come prepared to prove their Debts, and pay their Contribution-money, or they will be excluded.

Whereas in the Gazette of Thursday last an Advertisement was inserted, That the Commissioners in a Commission of Bankrupt against Aaron Awkell, late of London, Woollendrapier, did intend to meet on Wednesday the 17th Instant, at the Irish Chamber in Guildhall, London, in order to make a Dividend of the said Bankrupt's Estate; These are are therefore to give notice, That the said Aaron Awkell hath agreed with his Creditors; and the aforesaid Advertisement is intended for the due Distribution of the said Awkell's Estate, according to the Direction of the said Awkell and his Creditors, and the Agreement executed between the said Awkell and his Creditors, for which purpose only the said Commission is continued: And, notwithstanding the said Commission, the said Awkell is in his Shop and Trade as formerly: Of all which Matters any Person may receive Satisfaction from the acting Commissioners in the said Commission named.

A Large Dwelling House in the Parish of St. Peter in Cambridge, together with a very commodious Brewing-Office, situate on the side of the River there, with Brewing-Vessels, and all Conveniences thereunto belonging, being a College-Leaf, is now to be Let. Enquire of Mr. John Westbrook at the Red Bull in Cannon-Street; or Mr. Thomas Huffey as the Goat near Temple-Bar in Fleet-Street, London, or Mr. John Dennis, Cook of Jesus-College in Cambridge.

Whereas Hester Baugh, of Bristol, aged about 19 years, is missing from her Relations, and cannot be found upon Enquiry after her, These are to desire any Person who knows where she is to inform Giles Blower, of Parshore in the County of Worcester, or Joseph Baugh, Cooper, in Bristol; and upon due Proof made whether living or dead, such Person or Persons shall receive 5 Guineas Reward.

Lost or stolen the 27th past, from the House of Mr. Moses Hart in Fenchurch Street, a Diamond Ring, having one large yellow British Diamond weighing about 10 or 11 Grains. If offered to be sold, pawn'd or valued, pray stop it and the Party, and give notice to Mr. Richard Morson, Goldsmith, at the Three Crowns and Anchor in Lombard-Street, and you shall have 5 Guineas Reward.

Whereas the House of Brereton Bouchier Esq. in Barnsley in the County of Gloucester, was broke open on Friday night the 21st past, and several Pieces of Plate, Linen, and other things of Value, were from thence stolen and taken, some whereof are herein after described; viz two Silver Tankards, containing about a Quart each, bearing a Coat of Arms Lozenge-ways, viz. a Cheveron between three Martlets, close wing'd; 5 Silver Spoons, with the Crest, viz. on a Torte a Demy Horse-Marine, about his Neck a Hair Chain hanging between his Legs, and so returning over his Back; two small Silver Salts with'd, having the same Crest; a Child's Silver Porringer and Spoon; a Set of Casters, somewhat bruised, and marked at the bottom B. E. a plain two-handled Silver Cup, holding above a Pint, and marked at the bottom M. B. a Silver Sauce pan, holding about half a Pint; 6 Silver Tea-Spoons, with Twisted Handles and double gilt; with two Livery-Suits of deep blue. Whoever secures any of the Persons concerned, shall have 10 l. Reward for each, and the third part of the Value of what shall be discovered of any part of the Goods, so as to be had again. Notice is to be given to Mr. Samuel Brewster, of Clements-Inn, or to the said Mr. Brereton Bouchier in Barnsley aforesaid.

RID away withal the 28th past, at 9 at night, by a middle-sized Man aged about 24, pockettreen, dark-brown curl'd Hair, in light colour'd Clothes, from the King's-Arms at Westerham in Kent, a white Mare 14 hands and an inch high, her Mare shorn before; a Snip on the Nose, some small Fleabits, her farther Hook a little swelled, coming 5; together with a new Saddle and Bridle, and Cloth Flaps to the Saddle. Whoever secures her, and gives notice at the Greyhound in the Borough of Southwark, or at the King's Arms in Westerham in Kent, shall have two Guineas Reward, and reasonable Charges.