And whereas the provisions of the New Parishes Measure, 1943, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme, have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Measure.

And Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Salisbury.

W. G. Agnew.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 13th day of May 1959.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 23rd day of April, 1959, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Church Commissioners, acting in pursuance of the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, and the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1952, now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme which we have prepared with the consent of the Right Reverend Kenneth, Bishop of Lincoln (in witness whereof he has signed this Scheme), for effecting the disunion of the united benefice of Little Ponton with Stroxtun in the diocese of Lincoln.

"SCHEME

"Whereas by an Order of His late Majesty King George the Fifth in Council dated the 17th day of December, 1929, and published in the London Gazette on the 31st day of the same month the benefice of Little Ponton and the benefice of Stroxtun were united into one benefice with cure of souls, but the parishes of the said benefices continued distinct in all respects:

"And whereas the Bishop of the said diocese of Lincoln has forwarded to us provisional proposals pursuant to the said Pastoral Reorganisation Measure recommending that the union of the said benefices should be dissolved, that the said benefice of Little Ponton should be held in plurality with the benefice of Great Ponton and that the said benefice of Stroxtun should be held in plurality with the benefice of Harlaxton and Wyville with Hungerton all of which benefices are situate in the said diocese of Lincoln:

"And whereas effect can be given to the said proposals so far as they relate to the dissolution of the said union by a Scheme prepared by us and affirmed by Order of Your Majesty in Council pursuant to the said Union of Benefices Measures, and so far as they relate to the said pluralities by subsequent Orders made by the said Bishop pursuant to the said Pastoral Reorganisation Measure:

"Now, therefore, we, the said Church Commissioners, do humbly recommend and propose to Your Majesty in Council as follows, that is to say:

"1. Disunion of benefices. The union of the benefice of Little Ponton and the benefice of Stroxtun in the said united benefice of Little Ponton with Stroxtun shall be dissolved and the said benefices shall thereupon each become a separate benefice with cure of souls within the limits of its separate parish under the styles of 'The Benefice of Little Ponton' and 'The Benefice of Stroxtun' respectively.

"2. Taking effect of disunion. With the consent (which has been given to us in writing) of the Reverend Thomas Henry Louis Parker, now incumbent of the said united benefice, the disunion of the said united benefice shall take effect upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme is published in the London Gazette.

"3. Distribution of endowments. Upon the disunion taking effect, the endowments and property of the said united benefice shall be divided and distributed as follows, that is to say, the endowments and property specified in the Schedule hereto shall be assigned and annexed to the separate benefice of Stroxtun and all other the endowments and property of the said united benefice shall be assigned and annexed to the separate benefice of Little Ponton.

"4. Patronage. Upon the disunion taking effect, the rights of presentation to the separate benefices of Little Ponton and Stroxtun shall be vested in the persons (or their successors in title) in whom the rights of presentation to those benefices respectively vested immediately before the union of the said benefices.

"THE SCHEDULE

"Endowments and property of the united benefice of Little Ponton with Stroxtun to be assigned and annexed to the benefice of Stroxtun upon the disunion taking effect.

"(1) A capital sum of £6,736 ls. 6d. held by us on behalf of the said united benefice, producing an annual income of £240 lls. 0d.

"(2) A permanent annuity of £86 14s. 8d. charged on our General Fund in favour of the said united benefice."

And whereas the provisions of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1952, the Union of Benefices Rules, 1926 and 1930, and the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that it shall be and become effectual in law immediately upon the publication in this Order in the London Gazette.

W. G. Agnew.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 13th day of May 1959.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 23rd day of April, 1959, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Church Commissioners, acting in pursuance of the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, and the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1952, now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme which we have prepared with the consent of the Right Reverend Hugh, Bishop of Newcastle (in witness whereof he has signed this Scheme), for effecting the union of the benefice of Alwinton with Holystone and the benefice of Alnham, both situate in the diocese of Newcastle.

"SCHEME

"1. Union of Benefices. The benefice of Alwinton with Holystone and the benefice of Alnham shall be permanently united together and form one benefice with cure of souls under the style of 'the United Benefice of Alwinton with Holystone and Alnham' but the parishes of the said benefices shall continue in all respects distinct.

"2. Taking effect of union. Upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme is published in the London Gazette the union shall forthwith take effect.

"3. Parsonage House. Upon the union taking effect the parsonage house at present belonging to the benefice of Alwinton with Holystone shall be the house of residence of the incumbent of the united benefice.

"4. Patronage. After the union has taken effect the right of presentation to the united benefice shall be exercised by the patrons of the two benefices alternately, the patron of the benefice of Alwinton with Holystone having the first presentation to the united benefice to be made after the union."
