

"SCHEME

"1. Union of Benefices. The benefice of Emberton and the benefice of Tynningham with Filgrave shall be permanently united together and form one benefice with cure of souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of Emberton and Tynningham with Filgrave', but the parishes of the said benefices shall continue in all respects distinct.

"2. Taking effect of union. Upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme is published in the London Gazette the union shall forthwith take effect and the Reverend Hugh Iorwerth Kiffig Jones, if he is then incumbent of the said benefice of Emberton, shall, with his consent (testified by his signature hereto), be the first incumbent of the united benefice.

"3. Parsonage House. Upon the union taking effect the parsonage house at present belonging to the benefice of Emberton shall be the house of residence of the incumbent of the united benefice.

"4. Patronage. After the union has taken effect the right of presentation to the united benefice shall be exercised by the patrons of the two benefices alternately, the patron of the benefice of Emberton having the first presentation to the united benefice to be made after the union."

And whereas the provisions of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1952, the Union of Benefices Rules, 1926 and 1930, and the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that it shall be and become effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette.

W. G. Agnew.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 13th day of May, 1959.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 1st day of May 1959, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Church Commissioners, in pursuance of the Church Patronage Act, 1870, and of the Acts therein mentioned, have prepared the following Scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowsons or perpetual rights of patronage of and presentation to the churches and cures (hereinafter called 'the said benefices') of (1) Landrake with Saint Erney in the County of Cornwall and in the diocese of Truro and (2) Bere Ferrers and Dittisham in the County of Devon and in the diocese of Exeter.

"SCHEME

"Whereas we are satisfied that the Right Honourable Kenelm William Edward Earl of Mount Edgcumbe of Mount Edgcumbe, Plymouth in the County of Devon (hereinafter called the 'said Earl of Mount Edgcumbe') is the patron or person entitled to present or nominate to the said benefices.

"And whereas the said Earl of Mount Edgcumbe desires to transfer the advowsons of (1) the said benefice of Landrake with Saint Erney to the Bishop of Truro for the time being and (2) the said benefices of Bere Ferrers and Dittisham to the Board of Patronage of the diocese of Exeter and is consenting to this Scheme (in testimony whereof he has executed the same):

"And whereas we are satisfied that the transfer will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls:

"Now, therefore, with the consents of the Right Reverend Edmund, Bishop of Truro, the said Board of Patronage of the diocese of Exeter and the Right Reverend Robert, Bishop of Exeter, as the Bishop of the diocese in which the said benefices of Bere Ferrers and Dittisham are situate (in testimony whereof they have executed this Scheme), we, the said Church Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, (1) the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Landrake with Saint Erney shall be transferred to the said Edmund, Bishop of Truro and his successors in the same Bishopric and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the Bishop of Truro for the time being and (2) the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefices of Bere Ferrers and Dittisham shall be transferred to the said Board of Patronage of the diocese of Exeter and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Board."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrars of the said dioceses of Truro and Exeter.

W. G. Agnew.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 13th day of May 1959.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 1st day of May 1959, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Church Commissioners, in pursuance of the Church Patronage Act, 1870, and of the Acts therein mentioned, have prepared the following Scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Huddington in the County of Worcester and in the diocese of Worcester.

"SCHEME

"Whereas (1) We are satisfied that the Right Honourable John George Charles Henry Alton Alexander Chetwynd, Earl of Shrewsbury and Earl Talbot (hereinafter called 'the said Earl of Shrewsbury') is the patron or person entitled to present or nominate to the said benefice:

"(2) The said Earl of Shrewsbury desires to transfer the advowson of the said benefice to the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Christ and the Blessed Mary the Virgin at Worcester (hereinafter called 'the said Dean and Chapter') and is consenting to this Scheme (in testimony whereof he has executed the same):

"(3) The said Dean and Chapter are willing to accept such transfer (in testimony whereof they have executed the same):

"(4) The Right Reverend Mervyn, Bishop of Worcester, has executed this Scheme, in token of his consent thereto as Bishop of the diocese in which the said benefice is situate:

"and (5) We are satisfied that the transfer will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls:

"Now, therefore, with the consents (testified as aforesaid) of the said Earl of Shrewsbury, the said Dean and Chapter and the said Mervyn, Bishop of Worcester, we, the said Church Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice shall be transferred to the said Dean and Chapter and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Dean and Chapter."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law
