And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that it shall be and become effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette.

W. G. Agnew.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 15th day of June 1959.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 20th day of May 1959, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Church Commissioners, acting in pursuance of the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1952 and the Church Patronage Act, 1870, and the Acts mentioned therein, now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme which we have prepared with the consent of the Right Reverend Alwyn, Bishop of Winchester (in witness whereof he has signed this Scheme), for effecting the union of the benefice of Upper Clatford and the benefice of Goodworth Clatford, both situate in the diocese of Winchester.

"SCHEME

"Whereas the right of patronage of and presentation to the benefice of Goodworth Clatford is now vested in the Reverend William George Iremonger:

"And whereas we are satisfied that the transfer of patronage recommended in clause 4 hereof will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls:

"Now, therefore, we do humbly recommend and propose to Your Majesty as follows, that is to say:

"1. Union of Benefices. The benefice of Upper Clatford and the benefice of Goodworth Clatford shall be permanently united together and form one benefice with cure of souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of Upper Clatford with Goodworth Clatford,' but the parishes of the said benefices shall continue in all respects distinct.

"2. Taking effect of union. Upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme is published in the London Gazette the union shall forthwith take effect, and the Reverend John Drummond Pigott, if he is then incumbent of the benefice of Goodworth Clatford, shall with his consent (which has been given to us in writing) be the first incumbent of the united benefice.

"3. Parsonage House. Without prejudice to the exercise before the date when the union takes effect of any of the powers conferred by the Parsonages Measures, 1938 and 1947, the parsonage house at present belonging to the benefice of Goodworth Clatford shall be the house of residence of the incumbent of the united benefice.

"4. Patronage. With the consent (which has been given to us in writing) of the Reverend William George Iremonger, being the patron of the benefice of Goodworth Clatford, upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme is published in the London Gazette and without any conveyance or assurance other than such duly gazetted Order the patronage of the constituent benefice of Goodworth Clatford shall be surrendered in favour of the said Alwyn, Bishop of Winchester, and his successors in the same Bishopric; and the patronage of the united benefice shall be exercised by the patrons of the two constituent benefices of Upper Clatford and Goodworth Clatford alternately, the patron of the constituent benefice of Goodworth Clatford having the first presentation to the united benefice to be made after the union."

And whereas the provisions of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1952, the Union of Benefices Rules, 1926 and 1930, and the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that it shall be and become effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 15th day of June 1959.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 10th day of June 1959, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Church Commissioners, acting in pursuance of the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, and the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1952, now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme which we have prepared with the consent of the Right Reverend Gerald, Bishop of Chester (in witness whereof he has signed this Scheme), for effecting the union of the benefice of Christ Church, Eaton and the benefice of Saint Michael, Hulme Walfield, both situate in the diocese of Chester.

"SCHEME

"1. Union of Benefices. The benefice of Christ Church, Eaton and the benefice of Saint Michael, Hulme Walfield shall be permanently united together and form one benefice with cure of souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of Eaton and Hulme Walfield' but the parishes of the said benefices shall continue in all respects distinct.

"2. Taking effect of union. Upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme is published in the London Gazette the union shall forthwith take effect.

"3. Parsonage House. Without prejudice to the exercise before the date when the union takes effect of any of the powers conferred by the Parsonages Measures, 1938 and 1947, the parsonage house at present belonging to the benefice of Saint Michael, Hulme Walfield shall if at that date it so belongs to the said benefice be the house of residence of the incumbent of the united benefice.

"4. Patronage. After the union has taken effect the right of presentation to the united benefice shall be exercised by the patrons of the two benefices alternately, the patron of the benefice of Christ Church, Eaton having the first presentation to the united benefice to be made after the union."

And whereas the provisions of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1952, the Union of Benefices Rules, 1926 and 1930, and the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that it shall be and become effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette.
