"Lisbon, Novemb. 2 N. S.

Merchant Ship belonging to Maltha came in here last week from Port Malione, having been 15 days in her Paffage from thence, which brings Advice, That Barcelona was furrendred; and that all flie French who were in Mino ca had lest the island, and the Inhabitants waited only for iffe appearing of some English Men of War to declare for King Charles the Third. They write from Faro of the 26th past, that an Express was come in there from Tavira, with Advice, That one of their Fisher Boats had spoke, with a Genoese Sattee that came out of the Streights, by which they likewise had an Account of the Town of Barcelona's being surrendred to the Consederates. Letters from the Confederate Army on our Frontiers contain the following Account.

That on the 7th past, the Army being then before Badajos, they had Intelligence, That the Marshal de Tesse was drawing his Troops together near Talavera; whereupon there was anew Disposition made of our Camp, the Lest being extended over the Guadiana towards the Bridge on the Xevora, for the better preventing of the Enemy's succouring the Town, and to secure our Bridges of Communication upon the Guadian. The 8th Lieut. Gen. Fagel came to the Camp. The 11th a Battery of 30 Twenty four Pounders, and another of 14 Mortars, were finish'd, and began early in the morning to play upon the Town. In the afternoon some Powder of the great Battery took fire, which occasioning a Disorder, the Earl of Galway immediately went thither in Person to give the necessary Directions for preventing any ill Consequences that might follow from this Accident. While his Lordthip was there, his Right Hand was unfortunately struck off above the Wrist, by a Cannon shot from the Town; and it was found necesfary to cut off his Arm a little below the Elbow, which succeeded very well: His Lordthip thereupon being obliged to leave the Army, retired to Elvas, and is now in a fair way of Recovery. It is not eafily to be exprest how much the whole Army was concerned for this unfortunate Accident; which is so much the more to be lamented, fince the Dispositions his I and the constitutions his I and the constitutions has been also been ons his Lordship had made were not pursued in the manner he had designed them. ever the Siege was carried on; and a practical Breach being made, they were preparing on the 13th to give an Assault that night: Bur between 10 and 11 they had Intelligence, That the Enemy's Forces were passing the Guadiana; whereupon a Council of War was called, and it was resolved to march against them. Accordingly part of the Army being lest to guard our Attacks and Batteries, the test of our Forces passed the Guadiana the next mornings and drew up its Order of Bar-

The Enemy in the mean time had passed the Xevora, and had formed their Troops on the other fide of that River, which was between the two Armies; only 10 or 12 Squadrons of their Dragoons remained on a rifing Ground on the Time fide with our Army, whom Lieut, Gen Wyndham attack'd with 7 Squadrons, and pushe them into the River, with great Diforder and Lois on the Enemy's fide. The two Armies Cannonaded each other about two hours; after which our Troops returned to their Camp. The Enemy having in the mean time, by the Advantage of a Pass they had. fecured, thrown Succours into Badajos, we withdrew our Artillery from the Batteries; and the 17th our Army decamped, and passed a Brook called Calomon. The Marshal de Tesse appeared upon some vising Grounds with part of his Army; but the March of our Troops being covered by the Marquis de Montandre, with 6 Battalions and 8 Squadrons, our Army drew off in very good Order, without any Loss; and encamped the next day at Telena. The 19th it passed the Guadiana; and all our Artillery was brought into Elvas.

The King of Portugal having an Account of the Earl of Galway's Misfortune, has been pleafed to fend his Lordship the following
