"2. The territory to be annexed to the parish of Crawley:

"(a) All that part (coloured blue on the map) of the parish of Charlwood which lies to the east of the middle of the River Mole and to the south of Gatwick Airport.

"(b) All that part (coloured green on the map) of the parish of Horley which is bounded on the southwest by the parish of Charlwood and on the remaining sides by a continuous imaginary line commencing on the boundary which divides the last mentioned parish from the parish of Horley at a point opposite the western end of the southern boundary of close numbered 1445 and continuing thence eastwards along the aforementioned boundary to its end and thence in a straight line in the same direction to the western end of the northern boundary of close numbered 1459 (thereby crossing the London to Brighton line of the British Railways (Southern Region)) thence north-eastwards along the last mentioned boundary and southeastwards along the northeastern boundary of the last mentioned close and thence first eastwards then southeastwards along the northern and northeastern boundaries of close numbered 1460 thence north-eastwards, southeastwards and southwestwards along the northwestern, northeastern and southeastern boundaries of close numbered 1461 and the south-eastern boundary of close numbered 1470 and in a straight line in continuation thereof to the boundary which divides the parish of Horley from the parish of Charlwood."

And whereas the provisions of the New Parishes Measure, 1943, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme, have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Measure.

And Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrars of the said dioceses of Southwark and Chichester.

W. G. Agnew.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 20th day of November 1959.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 13th day of November 1959, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Church Commissioners, acting in pursuance of the New Parishes Measure, 1943, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme for altering the boundaries of the parishes of Saint John the Evangelist, Hedge End; Hound and Bursledon, all in the diocese of Winchester.

"SCHEME

"Whereas we are satisfied that it is desirable that the boundaries of the said parishes should be altered in the manner hereinafter mentioned:

"And whereas the Right Reverend Alwyn, Bishop of Winchester, consents to the proposed arrangements (in testimony whereof he has executed this Scheme):

"Now, therefore, we, the said Church Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that from and after the day of the date of publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme the boundaries of the said parishes of Saint John the Evangelist, Hedge End; Hound and Bursledon, shall be altered in the manner described in the Schedule hereto and delineated on the map annexed to this Scheme.

"THE SCHEDULE

"I. The territory to be annexed to the parish of Saint John the Evangelist, Hedge End:

"(a) all that part (coloured pink on the map annexed hereto) of the parish of Hound which lies to the east and north of a continuous imaginary line commencing on the boundary which divides the last mentioned parish from the parish of Saint Mary, Scholing, at a point opposite to the north-western end of the wall or fence which forms the southwestern boundary of close numbered 25 on the map and continuing thence southeastwards along the said wall or fence to the southeastern corner of the aforesaid close and continuing thence in a straight line eastwards to the middle of Grange Lane and continuing thence generally southwards along the middle of the aforesaid lane and along the middle of Shop Lane to a point opposite the middle of the footpath which runs from Shop Lane to Green Lane and continuing thence to and along the last mentioned footpath (thereby crossing close numbered 27) to its end and thence eastwards to and along the wall or fence which forms the northern boundary of close numbered 39 (thereby crossing the last mentioned road) and in a straight line in continuation thereof to the boundary which divides the parish of Hound from the parish of Bursledon.

"(b) all that part (coloured blue on the map) of the parish of Bursledon which lies generally to the north of a continuous imaginary line commencing on the boundary which divides the last mentioned parish from the parish of Hound at a point opposite the middle of the western end of Pewitt Hill and continuing thence eastwards to and along the middle of Pewitt Hill, southwards along the middle of the Bursledon Road and eastwards along the middle of Pylands Lane to the boundary which divides the parish of Bursledon from the parish of Saint John the Evangelist, Hedge End.

"II. The territory to be annexed to the parish of Bursledon:

"all that part (coloured green on the map) of the parish of Hound which is bounded on the north
