Swanty, Mov. 13.

E have daily frefir reports of the ill effects of the late florms, feveral veffels being caft away upon the coafts of Ireland. A veffel of London bound for Tangier, and another laden with Pilchards for legora were lately forced to put into Milford having near Minhead and Comb ran much danger; having loft both (heit Sails and Mafts; alfo the fuffice of Horne, a great veffel laden with French wines homewards bound, with two French thips laden with Salt, Wine, and Brandy intended for Dublin, were with much difficulty preferved, and with much damage confiratined to put into Tinby.

Bay of Argiers, Oftob. 4. The Baffa of Argiers is labouring to incline the Duan to give latisfaction to the Baglifh Admiral, and to remove the war from their Gates : in the mean time fome hostilities have passed and feveral rencounters between boats, particularly on the 2d inflant zo toats of Argiers had engaged 2 of the English, between whom was mannaged a brisk dispute, wherein about 4 or 5 of the English were burt but none mortally, till Sir Tbo Allen to render the Fight more equal, fent the reft of the boats to take their thate of the Combat, and in the mean time ordered two of his Fregats to fland in between the Enemies boats and the 1 own, againft whom were fired from the Town neer 300 shot, but without any damage up the fishes or loss of men, but the Fregats fhor with set to take place amongst them, and three of the boats faid to have funk.

Venice, Nov. 9 A vetlel lately arrived from Smirnz informs us, that one of the fhips which came from Candialaden with 30 pieces of Canon and fome Goods, with about two hundred perfons abrard her, was by the violence of a florm forced on ground neer Cerigo, the learnen with fome few only of the other perfons efcaping the wreck. And that a Salch on which were embarked the Jews of Candia with the most part of their Goods and Wealth to a very confiderable value was feifed neer the Cape Sapien-Zu by fome Corfairs of Barbary.

The fame veffel farther informs us, that our Captain General Morofini had left the Charge of the Army with the conduct of the Fleet which transports them to the care of Monfieur de St. Andre Monsbrun who had made fome flay at Standia, himself being with fevetal of the principal Natives, with a foundron of the Fleet, a confiderable quantity of Provifions and number of Marn gone for Suda, intending to reinforce that and the other Garifons ftill remaining to this Republick, and to furnish them with all things necessary for their defence.

The Vilier leems refolved to continue all this winter at Candia, norwith flanding his many invitations to the Court, and the good reception and entertainment he may promife ro-himfelf from the fuccess of hislong Siege, but he has hitherto axculed himfelf by reprefenting to the Grand Segnior the necessity of his continuance in that Illand to fetfle his new Comque &, and to take care for its fortification, Grc. but tissid is unwilling to mix with the tronbles of the Court all he have first feen what issue of the Sultanels may have, who has hitherto by the affiltance of the Janifaries preferved the life of the Grand Segniors Brethren; the is lately gone to a place within five days journey of Lariffs where the wates for the Grand Segniois Orders. . The Senate hathrefolved to keep a confide: able Fleet at Sea to fecure the Commerce which is too frequently interfupted by the Confairs, and have otdered 24 men of war, 20 Galli.s and 4 Galleafles to be fitted up and 1 ut to fea for this emploiment.

Here is lately artived firm France the Duke of Nevers, who intends to pils this winter here in the converfation of the Princes of Haffia and Borghele, which latter makes his appearance with an konourable Train of attendaous and rich Liveries, visiting the most coust letable curich is of thisplace, and leaving behind him great marks of his bounty.

The good flip called the St Michael the Archangel was lately caft away near Zara with all her lating, the Mariners eleaping in their boat, but the Captain mortally hurt by the wreck.

From Conflantinople we are informed that the Grand Segnior is npon his way thither, followed by the Suitaneis his Mither, having at Lariffa rasify'd the peace lately made with this Republick, and from Canlia, that the Vifier immediately after he had taken pofferfion of that City, had given Order and caufed many men to be emploise at in digging Stone and burning Lime for the ipeedy repair of the ruines of that place.

The Jews of this place are much affl field for the lofs of their Brethren and Goods taken by the Barbary Corfains, and defpair of reparation, being fince informed that the fhip was foundred in the fea and perifhed with all its lacing.

Here is much difcourfe of fome overtures for a defenfive League amongs the Princes and others who have any concernments upon the Po, and of a mutual Contribution for the tailing of an Army to fecure the peace of that part of Italy against all fuch as shall endeavour to diffue bir.

Hague, Nov. 25. The Heer Grotius is fuddenly to i e fent into France with the Character of Ambaliador, part of whole negotiation may be to endeavor the taking of the late high Cuftomes imposed upon foreign Commodities and Manufactures, which will other wife oblige the States to come to a fudden refolui n upon the point folong confidered, in fixing as high a Cuftom upon French wines and the other Commodities of the growth or manufactury of France.

The Spanish Ambassador having formerly put in a Memorial to the States, desiring them to give Order for the freeing of the Spanish ships, which has been detained by the Zealanders, the States have been pleased to write to those of Holland to do what in justice and reason can be done in compliance to the said Ambassadors desires-

The affairs between us and D. nmark, are also under confideration, both in relation to the arcers of Subfidies due from feveral of the Provinces; as for the other differences of which the arbitration was committed to His most Christian Majesty, in which, Secretary Romph is ordered to move His said Maiesty.
