Vienna, January 9. N. S.

THE 6th Instant the Sieur Osten, a Colonel in the Danish Forces, arrived here from Transilvania: He had the Misfortune to be taken Prisoner on the 7th of the last Month by a Party of Hungarians, and had Leave given him to come hither on his Parole for 6 Weeks, in order to solicit his being exchanged for Monsieur Verville, a French Colonel. Colonel Osten left Prince Ragotzi the 16th at Eczed; from whence he intended to go towards Monkate, to see the new Fortifications that are making there; and he was afterwards expected at Tolzal, a Castle belonging to his Aunt, the Countess Erdodi, not above a day's Journey from Tirnau. Count Berzeni went from Tirnau the 2d past, as is supposed, to the Siege of Oedenbourg, in which Place there is a small Garison of 300 Men, but commanded by Baron Wintzenheim, a brave and experienced Officer, who, as is reported, has repulsed the Enemy in three several Attempts they made to scale the Walls in the night; whereupon they are said to have withdrawn their Forces from before that Place. An Officer arrived here last night from Prince Eugene, with Letters dated the 2d Instant from his Head Quarter at Carzago, giving an Account, That the French Army marched away from the Neighbourhood of Lonato the 26th past; and the Imperial Army did the like 3 days after; so that the Campaign is now quite ended on that side, and both Armies are separated, and marched into Winter Quarters.

Berlin, January 16. Monsieur Mardvelt arrived here the 3d Instant, with Letters from the Court of Hesse-Cassel, to notify the Death of the Princess Royal, Daughter to the King of Prussia; and on the 5th Monsieur Terrau, one of his Majesty's Chamberlains, was dispatched to that Court with a Compliment of Condolance from his Majesty to the Prince of Hesse-Cassel upon that melancholly Occasion. Monsieur Ilten, one of the Elector of Hanover's Privy-Councillors, arrived here the 9th, and had Audience the 11th of his Majesty, to whom he made a Compliment of Condolance, in the Name of the Elector his Master, upon the Death of the Princess Royal. The Prussian Forces and Recruits, which according to the late Treaty for that purpose, are sent to Prince Eugene's Assistance; are marching towards Italy with all possible expedition, and will join his Highness very early the next Campaign. They write from Warsaw, That the Swedes had passed the Weiffell, carrying with them Materials, for making Bridges to pass the Bugg likewise, in order to attack the Muscovites; and that the King of Poland having Intelligence of their Motions, had ordered General Menzikof, with a great part of the Muscovite Forces, towards Pultask, where there was already 10000 Foot and 6000 Horse; and had posted the rest of his Troops in the Passes and Woods, his Majesty appearing resolved to wait for the Swedes; so that we may probably hear of some Action on that side.

Frankfort, Jan. 16. We hear the Imperialists have retaken Cham in the Upper Palatinate; and there being now a considerable Body of regular Troops in Bavaria, it is not doubted but the Insurrection there will soon be suppressed. General Kirchbaum lately attacked a Body of 5000 Malecontents near Braunau, whom he entirely routed, many of them being killed upon the spot, and divers taken Prisoners: And this continuation of ill Success will we hope not a little contribute to their being persuaded to lay down their Arms. The 14th Instant the Princess of Baden was safely delivered of a Prince at Rastadt.

Hague, January 22. N. S. The States of Holland and Westfriesland continue assembled, having under Consideration what Supplies will be necessary for this Year's Service, and how they shall be raised. The Convoy for Lisbon is fitting out with all possible diligence. The King of Spain has appointed the Count de Goessen to have the Administration of his Revenue in the Netherlands, particularly in the Duchy of Limbourg, in the room of Count Zinzendorf. Monsieur Van Suckken, who was appointed to be Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Denmark to Her Majesty of Great Britain, having received Orders from Copenhagen to return thither, will accordingly leave this Place in few days. Monsieur Rosencrantz went from hence 3 days ago, in order to return likewise to Copenhagen. Letters from Madrid of the first Instant confirm the Account we had before by the way of France, of a Tumult at Saragossa, occasioned by the Marshal de Tesse's having, without any Regard to the Privileges of that City, caused several of the Burghers to be imprisoned, upon Suspicion of their being affected to the House of Austria. The Burghers took up Arms to rescue the Prisoners; and in this Dispute there were
