

Scheme bearing date the 14th day of January, 1960, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Church Commissioners, acting in pursuance of the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, and the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1952, now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme which we have prepared with the consent of the Right Reverend Cuthbert, Bishop of Coventry (in witness whereof he has signed this Scheme), for effecting (1) the union of the benefice of Churchover and the benefice of Willey and (2) an alteration of the boundaries of the parishes of Churchover and Monks Kirby, all of which benefices and parishes are situate in the diocese of Coventry.

"SCHEME

"1. Union of Benefices. The benefice of Churchover and the benefice of Willey shall be permanently united together and form one benefice with cure of souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of Churchover with Willey' but the parishes of the said benefices shall continue in all respects distinct.

"2. Taking effect of union. If upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme is published in the London Gazette the benefice of Churchover shall be vacant the union shall take effect forthwith and if the said benefice shall then be full the union shall also take effect forthwith if the incumbent of that benefice at that date shall consent to be the first incumbent of the united benefice, but if he shall not so consent the union shall take effect upon the date of his avoidance of that benefice.

"3. Parsonage House. After the union has taken effect and upon the provision of a house approved by us as suitable to be the house of residence for the incumbent of the united benefice, such house as aforesaid shall be the house of residence of the united benefice.

"4. Alteration of boundaries. With the consent (which has been given to us in writing) of the Reverend Arthur Kenelm Fagge, being the incumbent of the benefice of Monks Kirby with Witherbrook and Copston Magna, upon the union taking effect all that part (coloured pink on the map annexed hereto) of the parish of Monks Kirby which lies to the east of the middle of the Rugby to Leicester railway line of British Railways (London Midland Region) shall be severed from the said parish and shall be annexed to the parish of Churchover.

"5. Archdeaconry and Rural Deanery. The united benefice shall be in the Archdeaconry of Coventry and the rural deanery of Rugby."

And whereas the provisions of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1952, the Union of Benefices Rules, 1926 and 1930, and the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that it shall be and become effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette.

W. G. Agnew.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace the 8th day of February 1960.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 14th day of January 1960, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Church Commissioners, acting in pursuance of the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, and the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1952, now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme which we have prepared with the consent of the Right Reverend Stretton, Bishop of Lichfield (in witness whereof he has signed this Scheme), for effecting the union of the benefice of Blymhill and the benefice of Weston-under-Lizard, both situate in the diocese of Lichfield

"SCHEME

"1. Union of Benefices. The benefice of Blymhill and the benefice of Weston-under-Lizard shall be permanently united together and form one benefice with cure of souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of Blymhill with Weston-under-Lizard' but the parishes of the said benefices shall continue in all respects distinct.

"2. Taking effect of union. Upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme is published in the London Gazette the union shall forthwith take effect.

"3. Parsonage House. Upon the union taking effect the parsonage house at present belonging to the benefice of Blymhill shall be the house of residence of the incumbent of the united benefice."

And whereas the provisions of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1952, the Union of Benefices Rules, 1926 and 1930, and the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that it shall be and become effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette.

W. G. Agnew.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 8th day of February 1960.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 21st day of January, 1960, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Church Commissioners, acting in pursuance of the New Parishes Measure, 1943, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme for altering the boundaries of the parishes of Bawdsey and Hollesley, both in the diocese of Saint Edmundsbury and Ipswich.

"SCHEME

"Whereas we are satisfied that it is desirable that the boundaries of the said parishes should be altered in the manner hereinafter mentioned:

"And whereas the Right Reverend Harold, Bishop of Saint Edmundsbury and Ipswich, consents to the proposed arrangements (in testimony whereof he has executed this Scheme):

"Now, therefore, we, the said Church Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that from and after the day of the date of publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme the boundaries of the said parishes of Bawdsey and Hollesley shall be altered in the manner described in the Schedule hereto and delineated on the map annexed to this Scheme.

"THE SCHEDULE

"The territory to be annexed to the parish of Hollesley:

"All that part (coloured red on the map annexed hereto) of the parish of Bawdsey which lies to the east and north of an imaginary line commencing at a point on the boundary which divides the parish of Alderton from the parish of Bawdsey in the middle of the ditch which divides close No. 224 (on the map) from close No. 224a and proceeding thence south-westwards along the middle of the said ditch to a point opposite the western end of the southern boundary of close No. 175a, thence first eastwards to then generally eastwards along the last mentioned boundary to its end and in a straight line in continuation thereof to the sea."

And whereas the provisions of the New Parishes Measure, 1943, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme, have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Measure.

And Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Saint Edmundsbury and Ipswich.
