"SCHEME.

"1. Union of Benefices. The benefice of Buckfastleigh and the benefice of Dean Prior shall be permanently united together and form one benefice with cure of souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of Buckfastleigh with Dean Prior' but the parishes of the said benefices shall continue in all respects distinct.

"2. Taking effect of union. Upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme is published in the London Gazette the union shall forthwith take effect and the Reverend John William Timms if he is then incumbent of the said benefice of Buckfastleigh shall, with his consent (testified by his signature hereto), be the first incumbent of the united benefice.

"3. Parsonage House. Without prejudice to the exercise before the date when the union takes effect of any of the powers conferred by the Parsonages Measures, 1938 and 1947, upon the union taking effect the parsonage house at present belonging to the benefice of Buckfastleigh shall if at that date it so belongs to the said benefice be the house of residence of the incumbent of the united benefice and the parsonage house at present belonging to the benefice of Dean Prior if at that date it so belongs together with the site and appurtenances thereof and the grounds usually occupied and enjoyed therewith shall, as soon as conveniently may be, be sold and disposed of by us at such time or times and in such manner in all respects as to us shall seem expedient and the net proceeds of such sale or sales shall be held by us on behalf of the united benefice as endowment capital and subject to the provisions of the Benefices (Stabilization of Incomes) Measure, 1951.

"4. Patronage. In every series of three successive turns of presentation to be made to the united benefice after the union has taken effect, the patron of the benefice of Buckfastleigh shall have the first and second turns and the patron of the benefice of Dean Prior shall have the third turn."

And whereas the provisions of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1952, the Union of Benefices Rules, 1926 and 1930, and the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that it shall be and become effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette.
