

authority and in accordance with and subject to lawful authority.

"(b) The said parochial church council shall pay or procure the payment of the whole of the cost of the repair, maintenance and insurance against fire and third party liability of the said church and all other outgoings in respect thereof and shall indemnify the diocesan authority against all costs, expenses, claims and demands whatsoever arising out of or in connection with the use of the said church as aforesaid.

"(c) The said parochial church council shall not use the said church for any purpose other than that specified, and shall not let or part with the possession of the whole or any part of the said church.

"(3) The diocesan authority may enter into agreements with the said parochial church council on consequential or ancillary matters in connection with the appropriation and use of the said church not being repugnant to or inconsistent with the provisions of this Scheme.

"(4) Subject and without prejudice to anything hereby authorised the jurisdiction of the Consistory Court of the diocese in respect of the said church shall not be affected.

"(5) The freehold of the said church shall not be disposed of by the diocesan authority."

And whereas the provisions of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1952, and the Union of Benefices Rules, 1926 and 1930, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that it shall be and become effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette.

W. G. Agnew.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 16th day of March, 1960.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 11th day of March 1960, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Church Commissioners, acting in pursuance of the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, and the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1952, now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme which we have prepared with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Geoffrey, Lord Archbishop of Canterbury (in witness whereof he has signed this Scheme), for effecting (1) the union of the benefice of Lydden and part of the benefice of Temple Ewell and River with Guston and (2) the union of the benefice of East Langdon and a further part of the benefice of Temple Ewell and River with Guston, all of which benefices are situate in the diocese of Canterbury.

"SCHEME

"1. Union of the benefice of Lydden and part of the benefice of Temple Ewell and River with Guston.

"(1) That part of the benefice of Temple Ewell and River with Guston which coincides with the area of the parish of Temple Ewell shall be severed from the said benefice and the part so severed and the benefice of Lydden shall be permanently united together and form one benefice with cure of souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of Temple Ewell with Lydden', but the parishes of Temple Ewell and Lydden shall continue in all respects distinct.

"(2) Upon the union taking effect the parsonage house at present belonging to the benefice of Lydden and situated at Temple Ewell, shall be the house of residence of the incumbent of the united benefice.

"2. Union of the benefice of East Langdon and a further part of the benefice of Temple Ewell and River with Guston.

"(1) That part of the benefice of Temple Ewell and River with Guston which coincides with the area of the parish of Guston shall be severed from the said benefice and the part so severed and the benefice of East Langdon shall be permanently united together and form one benefice with cure of souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of East Langdon with Guston', but the parishes of East Langdon and Guston shall continue in all respects distinct.

"(2) Without prejudice to the exercise before the date when the union takes effect of any of the powers conferred by the Parsonages Measures, 1938 and 1947, upon the union taking effect the parsonage house at present belonging to the benefice of East Langdon shall be the house of residence of the incumbent of the united benefice.

"3. Remaining part of the benefice of Temple Ewell and River with Guston.

"(1) Upon the taking effect of the unions hereinbefore recommended and proposed the remaining part of the benefice of Temple Ewell and River with Guston shall be known as 'The Benefice of River' and the incumbent thereof shall have the cure of souls within the limits of the parish of River.

"(2) Without prejudice to the exercise of any of the powers conferred by the Parsonages Measures, 1938 and 1947, upon the taking effect of the unions hereinbefore recommended and proposed the parsonage house at present belonging to the benefice of Temple Ewell and River with Guston shall be the house of residence of the incumbent of the benefice of River.

"4. Taking effect of unions.

With the consents (which have been given to us in writing) of the Reverend Ernest Allen, being the incumbent of the benefice of Temple Ewell and River with Guston, and of the Reverend James Narbrough Hughes D'Aeth, being the incumbent of the benefice of East Langdon, upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme shall be published in the London Gazette the unions shall forthwith take effect and:

"(a) the said Reverend Ernest Allen, if he is then incumbent of the benefice of Temple Ewell and River with Guston, shall be the incumbent of the benefice of River, and

"(b) the said Reverend James Narbrough Hughes D'Aeth, if he is then incumbent of the benefice of East Langdon, shall be the first incumbent of the united benefice of East Langdon with Guston.

"5. Endowments.

Upon the taking effect of the unions hereinbefore recommended and proposed:

"(a) the endowments and property at present belonging to the benefice of Lydden shall belong to the united benefice of Temple Ewell with Lydden.

"(b) the endowments and property at present belonging to the benefice of East Langdon shall belong to the united benefice of East Langdon with Guston, and

"(c) the endowments and property at present belonging to the benefice of Temple Ewell and River with Guston shall belong to the benefice of River."

And whereas the provisions of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1952, the Union of Benefices Rules, 1926 and 1930, and the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that it shall be and become effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette.
