

Saint Saviour, Harden, and the benefice of Wilsden cum Allerton, both situate in the diocese of Bradford.

"SCHEME

"1. Union of Benefices and Parishes. The benefice of Saint Saviour, Harden, and the benefice of Wilsden cum Allerton shall be permanently united together and form one benefice with cure of souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of Harden and Wilsden' and the parishes of the said benefices shall also be united into one parish for ecclesiastical purposes.

"2. Taking effect of union. Upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme is published in the London Gazette the union shall forthwith take effect and the Reverend Ronald Edgar Forbes Dow if he is then incumbent of the said benefice of Saint Saviour, Harden, shall, with his consent (testified by his signature hereto) be the first incumbent of the united benefice.

"3. Parish Church. The parish church of the parish of Saint Saviour, Harden, shall be the parish church of the united parish.

"4. Registers. After the union has taken effect the marriage registers current at the church of Saint Matthew, Wilsden, shall be dealt with in accordance with section 62 of the Marriage Act, 1949.

"5. Parsonage House. Without prejudice to the exercise before the date when the union takes effect of any of the powers conferred by the Parsonages Measures, 1938 and 1947, the parsonage house at present belonging to the benefice of Saint Saviour, Harden, shall be the house of residence of the incumbent of the united benefice and the parsonage house at present belonging to the benefice of Wilsden cum Allerton if at that date it so belongs together with the site and appurtenances thereof and the grounds usually occupied and enjoyed therewith shall, as soon as conveniently may be, be sold and disposed of by us at such time or times and in such manner in all respects as to us shall seem expedient and the net proceeds of such sale or sales shall be held by us on behalf of the united benefice as endowment capital and subject to the provisions of the Benefices (Stabilization of Incomes) Measure, 1951.

"6. Patronage. After the union has taken effect the right of presentation to the united benefice shall on each occasion be exercised jointly by the patrons of the former benefices of Saint Saviour, Harden, and Wilsden cum Allerton.

"7. Taking down of church

"(1) As soon as conveniently may be after the union has taken effect the church of Saint Matthew, Wilsden, shall be taken down and the materials thereof shall be sold and disposed of by us at such time or times and in such manner in all respects as to us shall seem expedient subject to the conditions and restrictions imposed by the said Union of Benefices Measures.

"(2) The net proceeds (if any) to arise from such sale or sales, after payment of the expenses attendant thereon and upon the taking down of the church and all other expenses incidental to these matters, shall be held by us on behalf of the united benefice as endowment capital and subject to the provisions of the Benefices (Stabilization of Incomes) Measure, 1951.

"(3) The furnishings, that is to say, the font, communion table, plate used for the purpose of the Holy Communion, bells, organ, and other furniture and fittings of the said church of Saint Matthew, Wilsden, or such of them as the bishop of the said diocese may select, shall be transferred to such church or chapel, churches or chapels within the said diocese as the said bishop may select, and any such furnishings not so transferred may, with the exception of the font, communion table and plate used for the purpose of the Holy Communion, be sold and in such case the proceeds shall be added to the fund arising from the sale of the materials of the said church of Saint Matthew, Wilsden.

"8. Archdeaconry and Rural Deanery. The united benefice shall be in the Archdeaconry of Craven and the rural deanery of South Craven."

And whereas the provisions of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1952, the Union of Benefices Rules, 1926 and 1930, and the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that it shall be and become effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette.
