The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday March 25. to Thursday March 28. 1706.

Venice, March 20. N. S.

HE Imperialifts and the French Forces continue in their former Posts: The former have been joined by a Regiment of German Foot, that is lately arrived in the Valley of Polisella, and will shortly be followed by further Reinforcements. General Steinau is now at Brescia, where he is making the necessary Preparations for the putting of our Frontiers into a good Posture of Defence. Vienna, March 20. We have lately received Letters from Barcelona with Accounts of the Transactions in those Parts; a Relation of which has been printed here, containing in Substance, That on the 11th of December last Advice came to Barcelona, that a Party of the Garison of Denia had routed one of the Enemy, 6 of the latter being killed, and 22 taken Prisoners: Besides which our Men took 15 Horses. The 12th the Syndics of the County of Ribagorca, bordering on Catalonia, came to Barcelona, to do Homage to his Catholick Majesty, in the Names of themselves and the rest of the Inhabitants of that County. The 14th came Advice, That a Saique firted out by the Miquelets of St. Felix de Quixols had taken one of the Enemy's Ships that came out of Marseilles. 400 Spaniards were sent from Barcelona to Lerida, to be incorporated into the Regiment of Don Juan d'Aumais, which lay in Garison there. The 16th there came an Account, That another Ship belonging to the Enemy had been seized at St. Felix de Quixols; and that General Schrottenbach was lately dead at Girona. The 17th the King declared Count Unlefeld General of Horfe. Some English Troops were detached towards the Frontiers. There came Advice, That these which lay at Lerida were marched out, with 4 Pieces of Cappon when fome Expedition. Two Saiques of Cannon, upon some Expedition. were fent from Barcelona towards Roses, to prevent the bringing of any Provisions into that Place by Sea. The 18th they had News, That Colonel Don Raphael Nabot having quitted the Duke of Anjou's Service, came with his whole Regiment, confifting of 500 Horse, and about 150 Horse more that had joined him near Oliva, to Denia, where being reinforced by Major-General Ramos with part of the Garison, they marched the 11th to Xabea, in which Place was a Garison of 400 Men, whom they attacked, and having killed 27, and taken the rest Prisoners, with the Loss only of 7 Men on our side, made themselves Masters of that Town; as they did the next day of Oliva, that Garison also remaining Prisoners of War; and afterwards of Gandia, where they found 300 Horses, and abundance of Provisions and Ammunition. That upon the publishing of a General Amnesty to all that should forsake the Duke of Anjou's Interest, an incredible number of Deputies came from the neighbouring Towns and Places to make their Submission to his Catholick Majesty. The 19th they had an Account, That the Detachment that marched from Lerida, as before-mentioned, advanced to Fraga, which Place the French were fortifying, having put into it a Garison of 800 Men, who were soon driven from thence, and did not escape without considerable Loss. The 21st an Officer came from Valentia, with the joyful News, That General Ramos and Colonel Nabot had possessed themselves of Alzira, having defeated three Troops of Horse that the Marquis de Villa Garcia, Viceroy of Valentia, had sent to oppose them; after which they marched to Valentia with 1000 Horse and 500 Foot, and made themselves Masters of that Place, where they took the Viceroy Prisoner; and that in short the whole Kingdom of Valentia, the Towns of Alicant and Penisola excepted, had declared for his Catholick Majesty. The 27th, the King being informed that the Enemy were drawing all their Troops towards Arragon, and had burnt the Town of Monroy, which had declared for him, refolved to fend Forces that way; and acquainting the Deputies of Barcelona, that he should want the Assistance of that City upon this extraordinary Occasion, the Burghers came to his Majesty, and tender'd all that was in their Power; which Offer was accompanied with all possible Demonstrations of Zeal and Loyalty. The 29th his Majesty declared the Conde de Cifuentes Viceroy of Valentia. The 30th 6 Troopers of the Regiment of Medinilla came over to us, with Assurances, that their whole Regiment would do the like upon the first Opportunity. The Earl of Peterborow marched that day towards Tortosa. Advice came, That a Body of the Enemy's Troops had besieged St. Matheo. The 6th of January an Account was brought, That the Towns of Xativa and Original had submitted to the Catholick King. The 7th a Vessel belonging to Majorca came to Barcelona; the Master whereof reported, that the whole Island was ready to declare for his Majesty. The 10th the King named the Officers of a Regiment of Foot which the County of Riborca had resolved to raise for The 13th News came, That the Earl of his Service. Peterborow being marched from Tortofa with a Bodyof Troops to the Relief of St. Matheo, the Enemy, upon his Lordship's Approach, retired with great Precipitation; and that the Garison fallying out upon them, killed 300 of them, with the Loss only of 9 Men killed and wounded on our side. The 17th there came Advice, That the City and Deputies of Valentia had resolved to raise a Regiment of Horse, and another of Foot, for his Catholick Majesty's Service. The 26th the News was brought, That the two Saiques which were lately sailed from Barcelona had taken two Prizes laden with Corn, and carried them into Palamos. The 28th a Spanish Regiment was sent by Sea from Barcelona to Tortosa. They received Advice from Lerida, That Major-General Cunningham, who commands there, having Intelligence that the Chevalier d'Asfeld, who lay at Balbastro, intended to fail upon some of our Dragoons who were quartered at Tamarite, he detached Colonel Wilks that way with 300 Granadiers, and as many Fusiliers; and he and Colonel Palms followed with more Forces. That the

with a cots and dinga fonable rrokx in uid defigni iore thin d in House to be hade of Blood, a ge Volum confiding et appeared Architecte to be

Ios. aben Golden In Took at it il-mall, k dge. When

Cole-Mire

e on Frida

of Meadow d near Cla

be fold by

y, Elq, one

re Honfe of

ded against te on Tuel-rish Char-of the said

r they'lbe

nft Robert

an, intend

ernoce, at

Dividend re to come Money, or inft Tames on, at the ts; who

oney, and

rd House,

arpenter,

s or other

but they ic County

y last the

ike infer-

of fmall

lame of vn curled

ir Malter erfon can or-Smith, e Grei is, Weff.

alf high,

ace, one

Any one

well re-

own bay.

Gelding. : When l his Pafer the ves Nofaid. 10 1 asth the Chevalier d'Asfeld, with 9 Squadrons of Horse and Dragoons, and as many Barralioas, marched towards Colonel Wilks, who meeting with the Enemy's Van-Gurrd, attacked them with great Resolution and the state of the state tion, the' much inferior to them in number, and obliged them to retire in much Confusion. Major-General Cunningham came up that night with the rest of his Forces, which, when joined, did not make in all above 1000 Men, English and Dutch. The Engagement was renewed the next morning about 8, and in ment was renewed the next morning about 8, and in the beginning Major-General Cunningham was wounded by a Mulquet-ihot, of which he died; but Colonel Wilks maintained the Fight with 60 much Vigour and Courage, that about three in the Afternoon the Enemy, notwithstanding their great Superiority in number, made a shameful Retreat to Fons, having lost many of their Men. Our Troops continued about two hours upon the Field of Battle, and then marched to Ballaquere, bringing away with them many Prifoners, among whom are a French Lieutenant-Colonel, and feveral other Officers: The Lofs on our fide was inconsiderable. The 29th and 30th, Hamilton's Regi-ment, with other Reinforcements, and several Pieces of Cannon, were fent from Barcelona by Sea to Tortofa.

Count Rechteren, Envoy Extraordinary from the States General, went from hence the 11th Instant for Tyr-nau, with very favourable Proposals from this Court for the Cessation of Arms defired by the Malecontents; and we are expecting their Resolutions thereupon. In the mean time Preparations are making for carrying on a vigorous War against them, if they should not aca vigorous War against them, it they should not accept of the Conditions that are offered them. General Palfy is encamped with the Troops under his Command at Zenckendorf, near Creutz, where he is to be joined by General Heister. Monsieur Guarient, one of the Emperor's Council of War, is going from hence with the Character of Envoy Extraordinary to the Ottoman Porte, to notify his Imperial Majesty's Accession to the Throope to the Throne.

Dressen.

Dresse Muscovy

Francfort, March 28. The French continue to make Preparations at Strasbourg for the ensuing Campaign. On our fide all possible Precautions are taken to prevent their relieving Fort Louis, which Place continues very closely blocked up. They write from Vienna, That Prince Eugene would be going from thence about the end of this Month towards Italy.

Paris, March 29. Our Letters from Spain give an Account, That the Duke of Anjou arrived the 12th Instant at Caspe, where his Army lay encamped, under the Command of the Marshal de Tesse; and that shey were preparing to pass the Ebro, in order to join the Troops commanded by the Chevalier d'Asfeld. The Duke of Berwick arrived at Madrid the 11th.
They write from Roses, That the Count de Toulouse was come thither from the Isles of Hieres with the Squadron under his Command, having been at Sea several days, and suffered much by bad Weather.

Hazur, April 2. N.S. The Count de Maffei arrived here the 22d past from England, and set out the 28th for Vienna. The Horse and Foot Guards that have been quartered here during the Winter marched the fime day towards the Maefe, having been relieved by the Regiment of Dhona. Signior Mocenigo, who lately came hither from England, where he refided as Amballador from Venice, and was to have gone to France with the same Character, having prevailed with that Government to excuse him from this new Emthat Government to baffy, intends to leave this Place in few days, in order to his Return home. Letters from France fay, the Count de Toulouse failed the 10th of the last Month from the Isles of Hieres. Those from Madrid of the 17th give an Account, That the Galleons were failed about a week before for the West-Indies.

Printed by M. Jones

Falmouth, March 22. The 18th Instant one of Her Majesty's Ships took off of the Lizard a small French Privateer. The 19th Her Majefty's Ship the Hound came in here from Plimouth; as did alfo the Jenny Galley and Dolphin Sloop, both of and from London. Her Majefty's Ship the Penzance failed by this Place the same day, having five Merchant-men under her Convoy, bound for Ireland, Briftol, and other Ports, and was joined by Her Majethy's Ship the Valeur, with 6 Sail more, bound the same way: One of Her Majesty's Ships came before this Port, to convoy several Ships that are failed with her to the Eastward. Ye-Master, from Jamaica, whence she sailed the 20th of December last, and did not meet with any Ship in her Plimenth, March 22. This day came in one of Her M2jefty's Ships, with 7 or 8 Sail of Merchant-men under her Convoy.

Briftel, March 23. This day failed out of Kingroad Her Majesty's Ships the Bridgewater and Shoreham, with divers outward bound Merchant-men under their Tarmouth, March 25. On the 23d passed through our Road about 20 Sail of laden Colliers to the Southward. The fame day about 150 Sail of light Colliers failed out of our Road for Newcastle. This day came in here several Transport ships and other Merchant mea from Holland.

If any Able-bodied Men are willing to serve Her Majesiy in the Train of Artislery in Flanders, with his Grace the Duke of Marthorage, let them repair to Cuprain Silver, Majer-Gumer of England, at his House in St. James's Park, or at the Engels on Blackbeath, they had enter this present Pay of Seven Shillings a Week, and be further encouraged and advanced as they shall effect.

Advertisements.

This day is published, Discourses on the Deceitful-ness of Humane Virtues. By Monsieur Esprit, of the French Aca-demy at Paris. Done cut of French by William Beauvoir, A. M. and Chaplain to his Grace Junes Duke of Ornambl. To which is added, The Duke de Rochesoucaur's Moral Reslections. Printed for A. Bell at the Cross-Reys and Bible in Cornbill, R. Smith at the Bible under the Piazza of the Royal Exchange, and J. Round at Sences's Head in Exchange Alley.

This day, being the 28th of March, is published, The Art of Duncing, demonstrated by Characters and Figures, by which one may learn easily, and of one felf, all forts of Dances; being a Wo ke very ufeful to all such as oractice Dancing, especially Macher. Done from the French of Monsteur Feuillet, with many Alterations in the Characters, and an Addition of the English Rigaudon and Fiench Bretagne. By P. Siris, Dancing-Master. Sold by the Author, at his House in Newport-Breet, at the upper end of Sc. Martia-Lanc, by Richard Messey, Instrument See, at the Golden Viol and Hautbyy on the North fide of St. Paul's Church, and by Alexander Livingdon, Mussel Instrument Celler, at the Violio and Hautboy in Birchin Lanc, near the Royal-Exchange. Price a Guisca.

The Commissioners in a Commission of Bankrupt against lame chail Lane, near the Royal-Exchange. Price a Guincel.

THE Commissioners in a Commission of Bankrupt against James Blaikely, late of Lendon, Linendraper, give Notice, That they will attend at Swan's Coffee house behind the Royal Exchange on Thursay the 11th of April next, from 9 in the Forenoon till 4 in the Asternoon, to make a Dividend of the said Bankrupe's Estate; And all Greditors that have nor already proved their Debts, and paid their Contribution Money, are then and there to come propared to de the same, or they'll from that day be excluded the Benefit of the said Dividend.

ANNE R.

Hereas by an

Entituled, t of Seamen, Her Majeth That all and every the July Ridings and Places of the Tram of Berwick upon To Chief Magitrates of the r rute within the Jame, and them respectively is and every Application to be rethem respectively is and every Application to be residently and when zed by U. High Admiral of England for Executing the Office of heins, to Receive and Compose of March, One thouse to wade diligent Search baubecen after My ployee as the bid, withdraw, or men and Seafaring-Men, red, to be taken up, seure of the discontinuous and Seafaring-Men, ed: And for the more est High Constables, Petty-City City Constables, Petty-City Constables, Petty-City City Constables, Petty-City Constables, Petty-City Constables, Petty-City City and other Officers aforted in Executed in fluch manner, aliretted. And the fisid the Enabled to Enter this, and the Doors of any Houfes we Contealed, and they may firster, any Sum not conditionally and divigent faring Man, who hall be the Per mannered from the Control of the

By t PRO For the Putting in Ex Encouragement and ter and speedier M for the Encouragen men, voluntarily t

Sea Service.

his Pay commenced from the fame time, shall be decreed much as if he had received muto as if he had received staman or Seafaring. Min Conautar, Juch Defertion out Benefit of Clergy; and fim, City, Town or Place, or taken, Iball have full in Offinder to the Common Geral Conference of the Common Geral College. said Offence. And that i swing-idan, as aforesaid. ed to Receive and Conduct

: : 3 from Capt. Dymond, in the capt. Dymond, in the cast Spost to poor them, Coster and the capt. The th Hair, with a dark, our, with Buttous of ine Man, thooping in is a substance of the series of the series between the series between the series of Rascians 1 into the Quarters in which they kille foners, whom they b