STATE INTELLIGENCE

By the Queen

A PROCLAMATION

Signifying Her Majesty's Agreement to the Termination with respect to the Southern Cameroons of the Trusteeship Agreement of 13th December 1946.

ELIZABETH R.

Whereas by virtue of an Agreement approved by the General Assembly of the United Nations on the thirteenth day of December 1946, We are the Administering Authority for the territory known as the Southern Cameroons and the responsibility for the administration of the said territory is vested in Our Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland:

And Whereas the General Assembly of the United Nations on the twenty-first day of April 1961, resolved that the said Agreement should in agreement with the Administering Authority be terminated with respect to the Southern Cameroons on the first day of October 1961, upon its joining the Republic of Cameroun:

Now, therefore, We do hereby, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, proclaim and declare Our agreement to the determination of the said Agreement with respect to the Southern Cameroons on the first day of October 1961, and accordingly that Our said Government shall as from that date cease to be responsible for the administration of the Southern Cameroons.

Given at Our Court at Buckingham Palace this twenty-fifth day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand, nine hundred and sixty-one and in the tenth year of Our Reign.

God Save The Queen

Whitehall, London S.W.1.

26th September 1961.

The QUEEN made the following speech when Her Majesty attended the opening of the Seventh Commonwealth Parliamentary Conference in Westminster Hall on 25th September 1961:

Eight years ago, just before my Coronation, it was my privilege to be the guest of the Commonwealth Parliamentary Association here in Westminster Hall. Today, at your Jubilee Year Conference, it is with much pleasure that I greet you, the representatives from the Parliaments of all the lands within our Commonwealth family of nations, which enjoy responsible government. I give you on behalf of my husband and myself a very hearty welcome; and I hope that those of you who have come from overseas are enjoying your stay in this country.

In the last ten years my husband and I have visited many countries within the Commonwealth and we are very happy to see here many whom we have already met in the course of our journeys. Eventually we hope to visit all the countries of our family of nations.

This gathering shows the diversity of peoples, creeds and cultures within the Commonwealth, each having an equal place in our organisation of nations. In the wide association which is the Commonwealth we must all try to cultivate the virtues of tolerance and understanding, to recognise each other's qualities and to respect each other's feelings.

In this modern age, the strength and unity of the Commonwealth family does not lie in bonds forged by formal instruments, nor in common ancestry, nor in pursuing the same political line. It springs from the knowledge that we all share a lively concern for individual freedom and all the machinery which makes this possible.

There are several expressions of this unity. As the Head of the Commonwealth, I am one. The constant and close contacts between the Governments of the Commonwealth and the meetings of Commonwealth Ministers are another. Equally important is our common form of Parliamentary Government which is the very corner stone of our association.

It is specially fitting that in your Jubilee Year you should meet here in this ancient hall, in which the earliest meetings of the English Parliament were held centuries ago. For the Parliament at Westminster has served as an example on whose experience other nations of the Commonwealth have drawn, in shaping and developing legislative assemblies suited to their own special needs.

It is this common system of government by consent which is strengthened by the work of your Association and the conferences which it organises throughout the Commonwealth. At these meetings the elected Members of Commonwealth Parliaments can meet on terms not dictated by party consideration, to talk, to exchange views, to share varied experiences and discuss and develop ideas on matters of common interest. In this way closer understanding is fostered between those who work in the legislatures of the Commonwealth, and all the people who believe in Parliamentary Government are encouraged.

I thank the Association for the great part it is playing in the life and thought of the Commonwealth.

I wish you every success in your discussions; and it is with great pleasure that I declare the Conference open.

PRIVY COUNCIL OFFICE

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 25th day of September 1961.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas by section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, 28 & 29 Vict. c. 73, it is enacted that all pay, wages, pensions, bounty money, grants or other allowances in the nature thereof payable in respect of services in Her Majesty's naval or marine force to a person being or having been an officer, seaman or marine, or to the widow or any relative of a deceased officer, seaman or marine, shall be paid in such manner and subject to such restrictions, conditions and provisions, as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

And whereas Her Majesty deems it expedient to amend certain Orders in Council concerning retired pay, pensions and other grants for officers, nurses and ratings disabled, and for the widows and children of officers and ratings deceased, in consequence of service during the 1914 World War:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, in exercise of the powers conferred upon Her as aforesaid and of all other powers whatsoever Her thereunto enabling, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

1. In this Order the following expressions have the meanings hereby respectively assigned to them:

- (1) "the 1920 Order" means the Order in Council of the 11th June 1920, S.R. & O. 1920/1021 (II, p. 295), relating to seamen and marines, as amended by any subsequent Order in Council;
- (2) "the 1921 (Officers) Order" means the Order in Council of the 9th March 1921, S.R. & O. 1921/360 (p. 770), relating to commissioned and subordinate officers and nurses, as amended by any subsequent Order in Council;

(2) After paragraph (2) of the said Article 10 there shall be added the following paragraph:

"(3) Where a person to or in respect of whom a pension, allowance or gratuity may be or has been awarded under this Part of this Order—

- (a) is, in pursuance of a sentence or order of a Court upon his being found guilty of an offence, serving a term of imprisonment, detention, preventive detention or corrective training, or detained in a Borstal institution, approved school or remand home; or

- (c) being a female person, other than one to whom a parent's pension may be or has been so awarded, cohabits with a man as his wife:

the Minister may withhold the award of the pension, allowance or gratuity or, if it has been awarded, may direct that it shall be forfeited as from such date (including any past date) as he may think fit:

Provided that the Minister may, upon such terms and as from such date (including any past date but, in a case to which subparagraph (c) applies, not being a date before that on which the person ceases to cohabit with a man as his wife) as he thinks fit, restore, either in whole or in part, a pension, allowance or gratuity forfeited under this paragraph."

3. In Article 21A (which provides for parents' pensions) of the 1920 Order the words "shall in the case of a female parent cease on remarriage" and in Article 21B (which provides for parents' pensions) of that Order the words "provided that any such pension shall, in the case of a female parent, cease on remarriage" shall be omitted.

4. After Article 23 of the 1920 Order there shall be inserted the following Article:

"23A. Where a person would have been in receipt of a pension under Article 11, 13, 17A, 17B, 19, 20, 21 or 22 of this Order immediately before her marriage after the 30th September 1961, had not that pension been terminated, suspended, withheld or forfeited in consequence of her cohabitation with another person as his wife, that pension shall for the purposes of paragraph (2) or (3) of Article 16 or of Article 23, as the case may be, be deemed to have ceased on her marriage."

5.—(1) Article 10 of the 1921 (Officers) Order and Article 10 of the 1921 (Warrant Officers) Order (which contain general conditions relating to pensions to widows and dependants of deceased officers) shall be re-numbered 10 (1) and from each of the said Articles the words from "and no pension" to the end thereof shall be omitted, so however that the words shall continue to apply in relation to any pension which has been terminated before, or is suspended or being withheld or administered on, the 30th September 1961.

(2) The following paragraph shall be added to each of the said Articles:

"(2) Where a person to or in respect of whom a pension, allowance or gratuity may be or has been awarded under this Part of this Order—

- (a) is, in pursuance of a sentence or order of a Court upon his being found guilty of an offence, serving a term of imprisonment, detention, preventive detention or corrective training, or detained in a Borstal institution, approved school or remand home; or
- (b) is under any enactment deported from, required to leave, or prohibited from entering the United Kingdom or the Isle of Man, or is a person whose certificate of naturalisation has been revoked; or

the Minister may withhold the award of the pension, allowance or gratuity or, if it has been awarded, may direct that it shall be forfeited as from such date (including any past date) as he may think fit:

Provided that the Minister may, upon such terms and as from such date (including any past date but, in a case to which subparagraph (c) applies, not being a date before that on which the person ceases to cohabit with a man as his wife) as he thinks fit, restore, either in whole or in part, a pension, allowance or gratuity forfeited under this paragraph."

6. After paragraph (2) of Article 15 of the 1921 (Officers) Order and paragraph (2) of Article 15 of the 1921 (Warrant Officers) Order (which contain provisions relating to the pensions of officers' widows who marry), there shall be added the following paragraph:

"(3) Where a person would have been in receipt of a pension under Article 11, 13, 16A, 16B or 17A of this Order immediately before her remarriage after the 30th September 1961, had not that pension been terminated, suspended, withheld or forfeited in consequence of her cohabitation with another person as his wife that pension shall, for the purposes of this Article, be deemed to have ceased on her remarriage."

7. In paragraph (5) of Article 18 of the 1921 (Officers) Order and paragraph (5) of Article 18 of the 1921 (Warrant Officers) Order (which contain general conditions for the award of pensions to officers' relatives) after the word "remarriage" there shall be added the words "not being the marriage or remarriage of a parent of an officer" and in paragraph (1) of Article 22C of the 1921 (Officers) Order and paragraph (1) of Article 22C of the 1921 (Warrant Officers) Order (which contain conditions for the award of parents' pensions) the words "and shall cease on marriage or remarriage" shall be omitted.

8. The Minister may restore in whole or in part and in respect of any period after the 30th September 1961, any pension awarded to a female parent under Article 21A or 21B of the 1920 Order or under Article 19, 22A or 22B of the 1921 (Officers) Order or under Article 19, 22A or 22B of the 1921 (Warrant Officers) Order which ceased on her marriage or in consequence of her cohabiting with a man as his wife if the circumstances of the parent are, in his opinion, such as to justify its restoration.

9. This Order shall be construed as one with the 1920 Order, the 1921 (Officers) Order and the 1921 (Warrant Officers) Order and shall come into operation on the 1st October 1961.

PRESENT

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas by section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, 28 & 29 Vict. c. 73., it is enacted that all pay, wages, pensions, bounty money, grants or other allowances in the nature thereof payable in respect of services in Her Majesty's naval or marine force to a person being or having been an officer, seaman or marine, or to the widow or any relative of a deceased officer, seaman or marine, shall be paid in such manner and subject to such restrictions, conditions and provisions, as are from time to time directed by Order in Council;

And whereas Her Majesty deems it expedient further to amend the Order concerning retired pay, pensions and other grants in cases where the disablement or death of members of the naval forces is due to service after the 2nd September, 1939:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, in exercise of the powers conferred upon Her as aforesaid and of all other powers whatsoever Her thereunto enabling, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

The Order in Council dated the 29th September, 1949, relating to members of the naval forces as therein defined, shall be further amended in the respects set out in the following Articles of this Order.

1.—(1) As from the 1st April, 1962—

(i) in paragraph (2) of Article 10, for the word and figures " 2 or 3 " there shall be substituted the word and figures " 2, 3 or 4 ";

(ii) in the heading of Table 3 of the Third Schedule after the words " disablement assessed " there shall be added the words " on an interim basis " and after the said Table 3 there shall be added the Table set out in the Schedule to this Order.

(2) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Article, the said Table 3 shall continue to apply in relation to an award made before the said 1st April and based upon a final assessment as it would have applied had this Order not issued:

Provided that so much of the total amount payable to a member of the naval forces under such an award as remains unpaid at any time on or after the said 1st April may, if the member so requests the Minister, be paid to him forthwith as a gratuity.

2.—(1) As from the 1st October, 1961, Article 39 (which contains provisions relating to the pension of a female person who marries or cohabits with a man as his wife) shall cease to apply to parents of members of the naval forces and accordingly in paragraph (1) after the words " under this Part " there shall be inserted the words " other than Article 37 " and in paragraph (2) the words " or a pension awarded under Article 37 to the female parent of a member of the naval forces " and the words " or parent " shall be omitted.

(2) The Minister may restore, either in whole or in part, any pension awarded to a parent under Article 37 which ceased on her marriage or in consequence of her cohabiting with a man as his wife if the circumstances of the parent are, in his opinion, such as to justify its restoration:

Provided that no such pension which ceased in consequence of the parent cohabiting with a man as his wife may be restored in respect of any period before the 1st October, 1961.

3.—(1) To paragraph (1) of Article 39 there shall be added the following proviso:—

" Provided that a pension or allowance awarded to or in respect of a person under Article 32, 33 or 34 shall not cease on the marriage of that person after the 30th September, 1961, if, having regard to the special circumstances of the case, the Minister so directs."

(2) After paragraph (4) of Article 39 there shall be added the following paragraphs:—

" (5) Where a person would have been in receipt of a pension under Article 26 or 28 immediately before her marriage after the 30th September, 1961, had not that pension ceased in consequence of her cohabiting with a man as his wife, that pension shall, for the purpose of paragraphs (2) and (3) of this Article, be deemed to have ceased on her marriage.

(6) A pension to, or an allowance in respect of, a person which has ceased under paragraph (1) of this Article in consequence of her cohabiting with a man as his wife may be restored by the Minister, either in whole or in part, upon such terms and from such date (not being a date before the 1st October, 1961, or that on which she ceases so to cohabit, whichever is the later) as he thinks fit."

4. Subparagraph (c) of paragraph (1) of Article 58 (which provides for the forfeiture of pensions in certain circumstances) is hereby revoked:

Provided that Article 58 shall continue to apply to persons to whom it would have applied but for this revocation, being persons in respect of whom awards were withheld or pensions or gratuities forfeited before the 1st October, 1961.

5.—(1) This Order shall be construed as one with the Order in Council of the 29th September, 1949, as amended by any subsequent Order.

(2) Subject to the following provisions of this Article, this Order shall come into operation on the 1st October 1961.

(3) Article 1 shall come into operation on the 1st April, 1962.

NATIONAL INSURANCE ADVISORY COMMITTEE

10 John Adam Street, London W.C.2.

THE NATIONAL INSURANCE (MEMBERS OF THE FORCES) AMENDMENT REGULATIONS, 1961.

In accordance with section 77 of the National Insurance Act, 1946, the National Insurance Advisory Committee give notice that they have received from the Joint Authority (comprising the Minister of Pensions and National Insurance and the Minister of Labour and National Insurance for Northern Ireland) for consideration and report thereon the preliminary draft of regulations entitled the National Insurance (Members of the Forces) Amendment Regulations, 1961.

A short explanatory note on these regulations is appended to this notice.

Copies of the preliminary draft of these regulations may be purchased directly (price 4d.) from Her Majesty's Stationery Office at the addresses shown on the last page of this Gazette, or through any bookseller.

The Committee will take into consideration any objection, made by or on behalf of persons affected, received by them not later than 24th October 1961. Objections should be addressed to the Secretary, National Insurance Advisory Committee, 10 John Adam Street, London W.C.2.

Ifor Evans, Chairman.

Explanatory Note

These Regulations are made in consequence of the National Insurance Act, 1959, and amend the National Insurance (Members of the Forces) Regulations, 1949, to take account of the system of graduated contributions introduced by that Act. They indicate how far the provisions of those Regulations referring to contributions are to apply to graduated contributions, provide for disregarding National Service Grants and pay for short periods of territorial or reserve training in fixing liability for graduated contributions, make special arrangements for assessing such contributions on naval pay and for cases where (as on release leave) members of the forces are concurrently engaged in a civilian non-participating employment, and excise or bring up to date certain obsolete provisions of those Regulations regarding Exchequer supplement and arrangements with Northern Ireland.
