

- (d) the policies and practices in the service, industry or employment concerned in such matters (where appropriate) as pricing, profit margins, dividends, efficient use of manpower and equipment, and organisation;
- (e) the repercussions which a particular settlement in the case concerned might have in other employments;
- and to publish your findings on these matters and your recommendations, together with the reasons for these:

And whereas it is Our intention that any undue growth in the aggregate of profits which may follow from restraint in earned incomes shall also be restrained, by fiscal or other appropriate means, Our further will and pleasure is that you do from time to time report upon the need if any for such action to be taken:

And for the better effecting for the purposes of this Our Commission, We do by these Presents authorise you to undertake such general or particular studies relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them as you may from time to time deem expedient:

And We do by these Presents further authorise you to sit in more than one division, each division consisting of such three or more of you as the said Frederick Geoffrey Lawrence shall determine; and to allocate to each of the said divisions such of the matters referred for your consideration as you may deem expedient; and We do further authorise you, if you think fit in any matter before you, to call in the aid of one or more assessors specially qualified; and to determine, with the consent of the Lords Commissioners of Our Treasury, the remuneration, if any, to be paid to an assessor;

And We do by these Presents give and grant you full power to call before you such persons as you shall judge likely to afford you any information upon the matters referred to this Our Commission; to call for information in writing; and also to call for, have access to, and examine all such books, documents, registers and records as may afford you the fullest information on the subject and to inquire of and concerning the premises by all other lawful ways and means whatsoever:

And We do by these Presents authorise and empower you to visit and personally inspect such places as you may deem it expedient so to inspect for the more effectual carrying out of the purposes aforesaid:

And We do by these Presents will and ordain that this Our Commission shall continue in full force and virtue, and that you, Our said Commissioners, may from time to time proceed in the execution thereof, and of every matter and thing therein contained, although the same be not continued from time to time by adjournment:

Provided that, should you deem it expedient, the powers and privileges hereinbefore conferred on you shall belong to, and may be exercised by, any three or more of you.

Given at Our Court at Saint James's, the fifth day of November 1962; In the Eleventh Year of Our Reign.

By Her Majesty's Command,

Henry Brooke.

National Income Commission.
