DANGEROUS DRUGS REGULATIONS, 1953

Suspension of Withdrawal of Authorities

(CONRAD SPENCER WHITEHOUSE)

Whereas the authorities conferred by the Dangerous Drugs Regulations, 1953, on Conrad Spencer Whitehouse, M.B., M.R.C.S., by virtue of his being a duly qualified medical practitioner, to be in possession of and to supply the drugs and preparations to which those Regulations apply were, the said Conrad Spencer Whitehouse having been convicted of offences against the Dangerous Drugs Act, 1951, withdrawn in pursuance of the powers conferred on the Secretary of State by Regulation 29 of the aforesaid Regulations by Notices published in the London Gazette and the Edinburgh Gazette on the 27th day of September 1955, the registered address of the said Conrad Spencer Whitehouse being then 11 Handsworth New Road, Birmingham 18:

And whereas at the same time the Secretary of State directed that it should not be lawful for the said Conrad Spencer Whitehouse to give prescriptions for the purposes of the Dangerous Drugs Regulations, 1953:

And whereas by virtue of Regulation 29 of the Dangerous Drugs Regulations, 1953, the Secretary of State is empowered at any time to restore such an authority as aforesaid which has been withdrawn under the said Regulation, or to suspend such a withdrawal:

And whereas I am satisfied that it is expedient to suspend the aforesaid withdrawal of authorities from the said Conrad Spencer Whitehouse:

Now, therefore, I hereby suspend, in pursuance of the powers conferred upon me by Regulation 29 of the Dangerous Drugs Regulations, 1953, the aforesaid withdrawal of authorities from the said Conrad Spencer Whitehouse, and I further suspend the operation of the said direction regarding prescriptions given in respect of the said Conrad Spencer Whitehouse.

Henry Brooke, One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

18th December 1962.

Suspension of Withdrawal of Authorities

(MARCUS GERSHON LUCAS)

Whereas the authorities conferred by the Dangerous Drugs Regulations, 1953, on Marcus Gershon Lucas, L.R.C.P., L.R.C.S., by virtue of his being a duly qualified medical practitioner, to be in possession of and to supply the drugs and preparations to which those Regulations apply were, the said Marcus Gershon Lucas having been convicted of offences against the Dangerous Drugs Act, 1951, withdrawn in pursuance of the powers conferred on the Secretary of State by Regulation 29 of the Regulations by Notices published in the London Gazette and the Edinburgh Gazette on the 31st day of October 1958, the registered address of the said Marcus Gershon Lucas being then "Dunedin", Stratford Road, Shirley, Warwickshire:

And whereas at the same time the Secretary of State directed that it should not be lawful for the said Marcus Gershon Lucas to give prescriptions for the purposes of the Dangerous Drugs Regulations, 1953:

And whereas by virtue of Regulation 29 of the Dangerous Drugs Regulations, 1953, the Secretary of State is empowered at any time to restore such an authority as aforesaid which has been withdrawn under the said Regulations, or to suspend such a withdrawal:
