St. James's, December 7.

This Day his Grace the Lord Archbishop, with the Bishops and the rest of the Clergy of the Province of Canterbury, assembled in Convocation, presented the following Address to Her Majesty :

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Archbishop, Bishops, and the rest of the Clergy of the Province of Canterbury, assembled in Convocation.

May it please Your Majesty,

It is a Happiest peculiar to Your Majesty's Reign, that Your Subjects can, without any Suspicion of Flattery, wait upon Your Majesty every Day with their humble Acknowledgments for the Blessings they receive from Your Auspicious Government.

We are this Year particularly to Congratulate, not a single Victory, but such a Course of Wonderful Success, as can scarce be paralleld in History; such as will make Your Majesty's Reign glorious to all Posterity, and we hope will Reduce that formidable Power, which has so long threaten'd Us and the rest of Europe.

For the Surprising Success in the beginning of this Campaign, we have already offer'd up our Solemn Thanks to Almighty God; and we shall with Hearts full of Joy Celebrate the Approaching Day of Thanksgiving for the Continuance of God's Mercy through the Course of the whole Year, which Your Majesty has most Piously Appointed.

We think it our Duty in the next place to Return our humble Thanks to Your Majesty, whose Zeal for the Common Cause, whose Treasure and the wise Management of it, whose Fleets and Armies, and whose Great General the Duke of Marlborough, have given Life and Spirit to that Alliance, by which, under God, these great things have been brought to pass.

We desire also with all Thankfulness to acknowledge the Blessings we Enjoy at Home under Your Majesty's most Happy Government, that we are free from those great Inconveniences that do too often attend Reigns so eminently Bless'd with Military Success; that our Laws have their free Course; that Justice is equally Administer'd; that our Liberties and Properties are Secured; and that our Religion and our Church are Supported and Encourag'd both by Your truly Christian Principles and Your great Example.

Enjoying these Happy Advantages, we cannot but Acknowledge our Obedience to be in a Safe and Flourishing Condition under Your Majesty's Administration; and we hope that, by the Blessing of God, you will be Enabled to Transmit it Safe to Posterity, since the House of Austria has been your greatest Enemy.

May our Good God, who has hitherto made every thing so wonderfully prosper in Your Hands, still continue His Gracious Care and Providence over Your Sacred Person; that You may effectually accomplish all Your great Designs for the Good of these Kingdoms, and afterwards be long Bless'd with a Peaceful Reign over a United, a Dutiful, and a Grateful People.

To which Her Majesty was pleas'd to return the following most Gracious Answer :

My Lords, and the rest of the Clergy,

I Am very much Pleas'd with the Assurance of your Duty and Affection in this Address from the Convocation.

I hope it will have a very good Effect upon the whole Clergy, and all My Subjects in general.

I desire you to be Assur'd, that I have nothing more at Heart, than to Preserve the Church of England as by Law Established in a Safe and Flourishing Condition.
