to said the he London razette.

publiced by Authority.

From Monday March 3. to Thursday March 6. 1706.

Berne, Febr. 26. N. S.

Etters from Milan give an Account, That the Garison of the Castle there had made feveral Sallies, but has always been repulsed with Loss; That Count Dann arrived before that Place the 18th Instant with 1000 Heydukes; that the Duke of Savoy was expested the 19th or 20th with a further Reinforcement of 1000 Men, a confiderable Train of Artillery, and a 1000 Men, a confiderable Train of Artiflery, and a proportionable quantity of Ammunifion; and that Mediutes were taken for carrying on the Siege with the umost Vigour. They add, That the French Garlion which lay in the Castle of Modena evacuated it the 8th Instant, pursuant to the Capitulation. Letters from Genoa of the 20th confirm the Surrender of the Castle last mentioned; upon which the Date of Modena with his Court was returned thithe or woden with his Court was returned thinks. They also give an Account, That Sir Cloudesly thousel was arrived with the Fleet under his command at Alicant, where the Earl Rivers was some on Shore with the Land Forces; and that some inglift Cruisers from Gibraltar had taken two French hies, one named the Mercury, being a Privateer of 36 Guns; the other a Man of War of 60 Guns, alled the Content.

ing, one state other a Man of War of 60 Guns; and the Content.

In March 5. N. S. Monsieur Printz returned hither the passes of the Narch 5. N. S. Monsieur Printz returned hither the passes of the Narch 5. N. S. Monsieur Printz returned hither the March 5. N. S. Monsieur Printz returned hither the March 5. N. S. Monsieur Printz returned hither the passes of the Prussia appointed Envoy Extraordination the King of Prussia to his Catholick Majesty in the King of Prussia and on his Journey to Spain, in the Charles the Third, is now on his Journey to Spain, in the Indian to the Matters there with the Duke of Savoy. We have an Account from Italy, That the Duke of Savoy. We have an Account from Italy, That the Bush of about 200 French, that guarded a Consor of Provisions which was carrying by Water to Cremona, and the Prisoners, and put the rest to slight, and took all the Boars and Provisions. All our Recruits for that County, as well as those for Flanders, lie hereabours, ready to make the Prisoners, and put the rest to flight, and took all the Boars and Provisions. All our Recruits for that County, as well as those for Flanders, lie hereabours, ready to make this Morning to review 400 Men that are to recruit is a Battalions, which are marched by this Town towards indeabourg, where they are to return till further Orders. Lucis from Breslau give an Account, That a Regiment having been raised in the Polish Prussia to be sent into Hungary, the Sier Smigielski canne upon them with some Polish Troops, obliged them to lay down their Arms, and afterwards received all the private Men, and as many of the Orketta swere willing, into the Number of his own Troops; by which means a Project has been disappointed that had out Monsieur Bonac, the French Minister at Dantzick, a gett deal of Pains and Money. They write from Cracow of the 26th past, That the Muscovite Major-General Behn care thinker the 24th, and the next Day had a Conference with the Magistrates, concerning the Provisions and Forage in the provisions and Forage in th with the Magistrates, concerning the Provisions and Forage with the Magistrates, concerning the Provisions and Forage he are to furnish towards the storing of a great Magazine to Musicion and Education of the State of Magazine and Miscovites are erecting there, who design to do the like a Wishiriz and Uzdie. They had lately much extended the Quarters in those Parts, in order to substitute more commentally. The Advices from Lemberg of the 20th say, the Car, with his whole Court, came this there the Day between the Advices from Lemberg of the 20th say, the Car, with his whole Court, came this they there, and had been attended by the Polish Nobility there, which resolved to adjourn the Great Council to Lublin, he to the more time to the lesser Diets to meet, and choose beautes to assist in that Assembly.

I magnet, March 6. The Margrave of Bareith is gone from Heilbron to Philipsbourg, to view the Garison and some states of the Place, and to give Directions, to the class and to also taken to provide Landau in the best maner that is possible, and a further Reinforcement of 1000 Mm has lately been sent this her. The Troops of the neighboring Circles are in motion towards their respective Renderous, and all Diligence is used in making such Dispositions as are requisite to prevent any Dengas the Enemy may have on this side.

*History March 11. N.S. Monsteau d'Auverguerque arrived.

have on this lide. High, March II. N.S. Monsieur d'Auverquerque arrived lingu, March II. N.S. Monsieur d'Auverquerque arrived les this Evening from Brussels. The Deputies of the Sars General-appointed to be with our Army in the Netherlands the next Summer, are, Messieurs Van Kollen, Vryberg, ad Godinga; and Monsieur Geldermalien is to go as Depution the Council of State. Monsieur Schlinder, Com-missay of War to King Augustus, is daily expected here, to treat about some Saxon Troops that are to enter into the Service of the Allies. They write from Vienna, That General Dopff arrived there the 27th past, and was to have Audience of the Emperor the Day following: That the Countess Dowager of Ricksinaul, Governess to the Emperors Maids of Honour, and Count Parr, Master of the Honshold to the Emperor, were appointed to go to Wolfembuttle, in order to conduct from thence to Vienna the young Princess of Wolfembuttle, who is to be married to the King of Spain: That Colonel Tiege, whom Count Rabutin had sent to Transilvania with a Detachment of 3000 Men, 1000 of them being Imperial Cuirassiers, to the Relief of some Places in that Province, which were attacked by the Malecontents, was arrived there, notwithstanding the Opposition he met with from the Enemy; and in his whole March, and several Engagements he had with them, had lost no more than 113 of his Men: And that Prince Ragorzi was marching to Transilvania, to endeavour to reposites himself of that Province, intending to return to Rolenau by the first of May, where he has summoned the States of the several Counties of Hungary, that adhere to his Interest, to meet at that time. Our Advices from France confirm, that the Enemy seem to have fummoned the States of the feveral Counties of Hungary, that adhere to his Interest, to meet at that time. Our Advices from France confirm, that the Enemy feem to have wholly laid aside the Delign of returning into Italy, and will content themselves with being upon the Defenive on that side. Letters from Rome say, the Pope had 'again put of the Decision of the Dispute concerning the Election of a Bishop of Munster to the 25th of the last Month. They write from the North. That the Crar came to Lemberg the 19th of February; and that the Great Council of the Polish Nobility assembled there would adjourn to Lublin.

Plimouth, March 2. On the 26th past arrived here a Dutch Ship for Viana, and two Ships from Topsham, bound for Lisbon. The 27th failed hence 12 Dutch Ships, homeward bound from France, and the Southampton Transport, bound for St.-Malo: At the same time came in the Fleet Galley from London, bound for Dublin and Leghorne, and a Dutch Ship from Limerick. The 28th failed 8 Dutch Ships, homeward bound from France, and the Beake Galley from Leghorne, bound for London. The first Instant the Thomas from Dublin put into this Port, being bound for Ostend; as did also Her Majesty's Ships the Nonsuch, Chester and Penzance, having parted yesterday off the Lizard from Sir Thomas Hardy, who has with him several Men of War, with 9 East-India Ships, and divers other homeward bound Merchantmen. This Day came in here a Dane from Nantz, a Merchant Ship from New-York, bound for London, and the Frankland Packet-Boat from Milsord.

Tarmouth*, March 3. Yesterday came into our Road from the Southward a Fleet of light Colliers and Coasters, which all failed this Day to the Northward, with their Cenvoys.

Cowes, March 3. This Day came in here the Laurel of Brittol. The Dolphin of Middlebourg has feat into this Port a small French Prize, and two others to the Mother-Bank.

Day Came in the Dolphin of Middlebourg has feat into this Port a small French Prize, and Instant came into the Downes.

Deale, March 4. The 2d Instant came into the Downes the Tuscan Galley, ---- Panewell Master, from Leghorne. This Day came in also Sir Thomas Hardy, in Her Majesty's Ship the Kent, with the Worcester, Swallow, August, and Burlington, and under their Convoy 9 Sail of Ships from the East-Indies, with several other homeward bound Merchant-men from other Parts, and some Coasters, being in all about 60 Sail.

St James's, Feb. 28. This Day their Excellencies Signior Nicolo Erizzo and Signior Aluisio Pisani, Ambassadors Extraordinary from the Republick of Venice, had a private Audience of Her Majesty, having been presented by Signior Cornaro, Ambassador in Ordinary from the said Republick, and introduced by Charles Cottrell Esq; Assistant-Master of the Ceremonies.

Kenfington, March 5. A very dutiful and loyal Address of the Ministers of New England, congratulating Her Majesty upon the most Glorious and Happy Successes of the Arms of Her Majesty and Her Ailies, and more especially those under the Command of his Grace the Duke of Marlborough, has been presented to Her Majesty by Constantine Phipps Esq;

Agent for that Colony.

Which Address Her Majesty received very gra-

Salter, of Lorder d his Examiration: in the faid renewed after Noon, at the id Saleer is require Eftate and Effen iny Goods or Effet thereof to Mr. Jin upt agrieft Elmi

aguich Ticca

ede an Africana othwish to pay the Fenchure Line faed, he boirg m.

or agair fi J haws recer, having med to him, are form ttorney at Liw, h its, or they will be

i, Lightermen, it. at 3 after Noon, a r for a Dividend d proved their Deba the fame, or they A John Cooke, alia

Mercer; and hele in to furrender him th and att Infa ilchall, London. E Samuel Blancher the Commilliant 2d of April car ancory-Lane. A Robert Smith of nt Reserve Sming and super. Thefe its boners, who was ril next, at 4 its certifreer. Inf. Thomas Im.

or I nomes the property of the Commits and the 2d of April pers up two Pard nA Nicholas Tocke

ing furrendred his will meet the 1st to of Mariborough Creditors may prouded and not be figured; County of Durhan, con examined: Te at two after Not, in Newcastle upa ters may attend, n Middlefex. Tula. ce) and been eximi Inflant, at 3 inthe ordon; to finish his to show Cause whys er, hach furrendred ned: The Com

r Noon, at the Iris niation; where his d nor be figred. reashire, Chapmi, e) and been examined infrant, at 4 she on, to finish his Extended, pay their Confinish for the figure of the figur mould not be light.
Illiam Creffind, &
Rt. Hen. the Lad
the late Ad: This d as the Ad direct, John Ellyott, of &

ified to the Ru Hor. ned to the late Ad: be confirmed as the by the 24th Inflati.
John Glover, of
Rt. Hon. the Lod
o the late Act: This firmed as the Act dis 24th Inffant. mel Harrord, late of fied to the Rt. Hr. ned to the late Act: be confirmed as the by the 21th lofting obert Robinson, of Rt. Hon. the Land he late AG: This ed as the Addirects. Leftant