From Thursday March 13. to Monday March 17. 1706.

Madrid, March 2. N. S.

THE Duke of Anjou's Ministers meeting with great Difficulties in providing the necessary Funds for carrying on the War, have proposed to the Chapter of Toledo, and several other Chapters and Monasteries, to mortgage to them the Publick Revenues for a certain Sum of Money to be advanced by them; but many have excused themselves, alledging, That a great part of the Estates they possess being situated in those Provinces that are reduced to the Obedience of his Catholick Majesty King Charles III. or that have been the Seat of War, their Revenues have of late fallen short, and they are therefore become unable to contribute towards such a Loan. We have an Account, That the Duke of Berwick, who lately set out towards the Frontiers of Valentia, arrived the 15th inst at Albacere, where he is established his Head Quarters; and that he is assembling his Troops, in order to cover the Frontiers on that side. The Inhabitants of Arragon, who have taken up Arms for their Lawfull Sovereign King Charles III. make frequent Excursions into Castile and Navarre, in which they are generally successful, and seldom fail to beat up the Quarters of the Duke of Anjou's Troops, and carry home a good Booty.

Milan, March 8. The Siege of our Castle is carried on with great Vigour, and the Garison continues to make a resistance; however, the Imperial Batteries have ruined some of the Battions; and the Approaches being advanced to the Covered-way, the Besiegers are endeavouring to discover the Enemy's Mines. They have begun to raise new Batteries, having for that purpose sent for more Cannon from Casal. Several Deserters are come over from the Garison, who report, That they have store of Ammunition, but that their Provisions begin to fall short, and that they are in want of divers Necessaries.

Vienna, March 9. Monsieur Guarent, the Emperor's Envoy to the Grand Signior, returned hither Yesterday from the Ottoman Porte, where he has received Assurances from the Sultan and his Ministers, of their Resolution to observe religiously the Treaty of Carlowitz, and to do their Part towards maintaining a good Correspondence between the Two Empires. The States of the Lower Austria have already furnished part of the Recruits they engaged to raise, and the remainder will be ready in few Days. Letters from Hungary say, Count Caroli came the 16th inst, with a Body of Malecontents into the Neighbourhood of Segedin, and had in a manner blocked up that Place; and that Prince Ragorzi had caused Count Anchoy Esterhasi, one of the Chiefs of the Malecontents, to be seized for some Words he had spoken, which discovered an Inclination in him to submit to the Emperor. The Regiments of Lobowicz and Merc, which were to have served in Hungary, are countermanded, and will return to the Upper Ruine: And it is said, His Imperial Majesty intends to take into his Service several Regiments of some Princes in the Empire, to be employed in the Imperial Army on that side, in the room of those which have been sent from thence to Hungary.

Berne, March 12. Letters from Lyons of the 6th Instant say, The Marshal de Tesse was gone from thence to Susa, with intent to assemble what Troops he could upon those Frontiers to guard the Passes, his Orders being only to keep upon the Defensive. They write from Turin, That the Emperor having given the necessary Orders for the Duke of Savoy's being forthwith put into Possession of the Towns and Territories of Alexandria, the Lomeline, and the Valley of Sessia, in pursuance of the Treaties with his Royal Highness, every thing had been settled for that purpose with Prince Eugene; and the Duke had accordingly sent the Marquis de Courance to take Possession of those Places in his Royal Highness's Name.

Brussels, March 21. The 16th Instant in the Evening Mr. Stepney, Her Majesty of Great Britain's Envoy Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary, and Monsieur Renswoude, one of the Deputies of the States General, sailed from Rotterdam on board the Yachts appointed by the States to carry them and to arrive hither. The 18th in the Morning Mr. Stepney arrived at Antwerp; and the next day, being the Anniversary of Her Majesty's happy Accession to the Crown, the Cannon of the Yacht were fired, and were answered by those of the Castle, Town and Citadel, and by three Salvo's of the small Arms of the Garison; the Marquis de Terracena, Governour of that City, and the Magistrates, being desirous upon this Occasion to distinguish themselves by this Mark of their Respect to Her Majesty, and their Esteem for the English Nation. In the evening Mr. Stepney continued his Voyage, and arrived here yesterday in the afternoon. Count Tilly, (who commands here in the Absence of Monsieur d'Auverquerque) caused the Cannon round the Town to be thrice discharged, by way of a Salute, upon the Approach of the Yacht; and the Envoy being come on Shore, received the Visits and Compliments of the Chief Nobility in Town. Monsieur Renswoude, having some private Concerns that detained him at Antwerp, is not expected here till to morrow night. Monsieur Bream, a Secretary of the King of Denmark, is come hither to his way to France, being appointed to reside there on the Part of his Danish Majesty.

Brussels, March 22. N. S. Monsieur d'Auverquerque was present the 19th Instant in the Assembly of the States General, to whom he gave an Account of the present Condition of their Troops; and he received their Thanks for his Services and good Conduct. His Excellency will shortly return to his Command at Brussels. A general Review of all our Troops is to be taken about the middle of next Month; and they are soon after to take the Field; in order to which, great Magazines of Stores and Provisions of all kinds are erecting for their Subsistence in several Towns of Flanders and Brabant. The States General have ordered Armies to be provided for all the Horse in their Service. The Emperor's Envoy has desired the States to advance a considerable Sum of Money to the King of Spain, offering to Mortgage to them the Tolls and Customs of Ghent, Ostend, and several other Places that have been reduced to his Catholick Majesty's Obedience. Letters from several Parts make mention of a Negotiation that is said to be on foot between Prince Eugene and Monsieur Medavi, in order to the latter's retiring out of Italy with the Remains of the French Troops now in that Country. They write from Holstein, That the Prince, Son to the Administrator of that Dutchy, is chosen Coadjutor to the Bishop of Lubec.

Falmouth, March 10. Yesterday came into this Port the Peace of Flushing, bound for Boudeaux, in Ballast. This day sailed hence the Prince George Packet-Boat; Captain Lucas Commandeur, for Lisbon.

Plimouth, March 11. Yesterday arrived here the Joseph from Oporto; bound for London. This day came in the King William Packet-Boat from Jamaica. At the same time sailed hence to the Eastward Her Majesty's Ships the Warwick and Lark, with about 30 Sail of Merchant-men under their Convoys.

Deal, March 15. This morning came in hither Her Majesty's Ships the Warwick and Lark, and under their Convoys about 30 Sail of homeward bound Merchant-men and Coasters, which came last from Plimouth.

His Royal Highness Prince George of Denmark &c. Lord High Admiral of England, &c. is pleased to direct, That all the Foremast-Men belonging to Her Majesty's Ship the Advice, which are in and about Town, do forthwith repair aboard Her Majesty's Ship the Colchester at Deptford, or in Longreach, otherwise they will be taken up and punished as Deserters; His Royal Highness having directed the said Men to be removed from the aforesaid Ship Advice aboard the Colchester, to serve in her, and paid the Wages due to them in the former aboard the latter, before she sails from the River.

The Rt. Hon. the Lord High Treasurer of England is pleased to give Notice to all Persons who have any Exchequer Bills of 50 l. give Notice to all Persons who have any Exchequer Bills of 50 l. each, viz. from Numbr. 1. to Numbr. 5600. inclusive, and bearing Date between the 19th of March 1700. exclusive, and the 30th of January 1701. inclusive; That no Interest will be allowed on the said Bills longer than the 17th of March 1706. upon which Day Money was reserved in the Exchequer to Discharge the Bills so Numbered and Dated on Demand.
