It was March and Address Her Majesty received very graciously.

Address Her Majesty received very graciously. his March 12. N.S. Several Neapolitans, who left that Comyon account of the Perfecution there against those was at well affected to the House of Austria, being lately castiner, were kindly received by Cardinal Grimani, the first Minister here, and several of them entertained in its man House, and others in his Neighbourhood. The land hims Notice of it, and searing they might raise a limit, ordered a Guard to be posted in that part of the limit, ordered a Guard to be posted in that part of the limit, ordered a Guard to be posted in that part of the limit, which the Cardinal highly resenting, and looking this place, the Quarters of a Foreign Minister ought to entitle the part of the lastent an Express upon this Occasion to Vienna; and is feared this Incident may create a new Breach between the Custom. The Vice-Roy of Naples having the Custom Letters to the Bishops and other Wealthy casting the Duke of Anjou to carry on the War;

the Pope being informed of it, has fent them Orders by no means to comply with this Demand, as being an Infringement of the Privileges of the Clergy. The Dispute concerning the Validity of the Bishop of Paderborn's Election to the Bishoprick of Munster remains still undecided; and the Delays of this Court, in their Proceedings in that Affair, give Occasion of Complaint to those who are in his Interest.

Turin, March 16. General Thaun arrived here yesterday with a Copy of the Capitulation lately concluded, by Vertue whereof the French are to evacuate all the Piaces in Italy which remained in their Possession: With him is also come Monsieur St. Pater, a French Officer, that has been chiefly employed by General Medavi in the negociating of this Agreement: His Errand here is to settle with this Court the Route the French Troops are to take in their March through our Duke's Territories to Susa. His Royal Highness has received by an Express from the Marquis de Courtance an Account of his having taken Possession of Alexandria, and received the Oath of Fidelity of the Inhabitants of that Place; which being evacuated at the same time by the Imperialists, the Marquis put into it a Garison of his Royal Highness's Troops. Orders are sent him to take Possession in like manner of the Territory of Lomelia, and the Valley of Sessa.

Milan. March 10: The necessary preparations are making.

being evacuated at the fame time by the Imperialitis, the Marquis put into it a Garison of his Royal Highnes's Troops. Orders are sent him to take Possession in like manner of the Territory of Lomelia, and the Valley of Scsia.

Milan, March 19: The necessary Preparations are making for the Evacuation of our Castle by the Enemy's Troops, which are to march out to morrow, and the Imperialists at the same time are to take Possession of it: Part of their Troops that have been employed in the Siege of that for tress are to remain in Garison there; the rest are to go into Garison at Mantua, Cremona, Mirandola, and the other fortified Towns which the Enemy are to quit, pursuant to the late Agreement for that purpose. The Prince of Hesselbarnstates is appointed to command at Mantua. This Treaty, which gives no small Content and Satisfaction to the Inhabitants of this City, and in general of all Italy, is to be entirely put in Execution by the first of next Month.

Venuce, March 18. Two Expresses arrived here the 15th Instant from Mantua, with Advice of an Agreement lately concluded between Prince Eugene and General Medavi, whereby those Countries are delivered from the Calamities of a War that has lasted about fix Years; and the sslength whereof proves as disgraceful to the French, as its Beginning was prospectous to them. This is a great Mortification to the Duke of Mantua, to whose Interests no Regard has been had in the transacting of this Affair. The French Troops at Mantua, and in the other Places they are to evacuate, are accordingly preparing for their March homewards, which they are to begin before the first of next Month. They write from Revere, That Paul Diack, a Colonel of Husses, famous for his Exploits in those Parts during this War, died there lately, in the 48th Year of his Age.

Vienna, March 19. Several Conserences have been held here since the Archbishop of Coloca's 'Arrival upon' the Affairs of Husses and Endeavours will be used to renew the Negociations for the putting an end to the Troubles in that
