I Have always had a great Compassion for the Unhappy Circumstances of the Persecuted Protestants of France. I will Communicate My Thoughts upon this Matter to Our Allies; and hope such Measures may be taken as may Effectually answer the Intent of your Petition.

Kensington, April 8. This Day the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Chesham, Lord Lieutenant of the County Palatine of Chester, accompanied by the two Representatives, and several other Gentlemen of Quality of the said County, pre- sented to Her Majesty the following most dutiful and loyal Address.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Lord Lieutenant, Deputy Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, and Militia Officers, of the County of Chester.

Most Gracious Sovereign,
THE most wonderful and continual Blessings of Almighty God upon Your Majesty's great Undertakings affect our Hearts with the most exalted Transports of dutiful Joy and Satisfaction, and more especially upon the Union of Your Majesty's Two ancient Kingdoms of England and Scotland; a Work of such Difficulty, as hath baffled the wisest Attempts of former Ages, and hath been reserved by Divine Providence to be digested by the Superior Conduct of Your Majesty's Councils, approved by Your Parliaments, and perfected by Your Royal Sanction.

As the Deliverance of Europe from Oppression and Tyranny must render Your Majesty's Name and Memory Glorious to all Posterity, so we no less acknowledge Your Majesty's peculiar and indulgent Care of Your own Subjects, in the Terms and Provisions of this Happy Union, whereby Your Majesty hath established a firm and lasting Monument of Honour and Safety to the Crown and People of Great Britain, and to the Protestant Religion and Interest throughout the World.

We beg Leave humbly to assure Your Majesty of our Unanimous Disposition and Resolution to contribute our utmost Endeavours in our several Stations, That Your Majesty's Gracious Intentions and Desires may be effectually answered, by a perfect Union of all Your Majesty's Subjects, as well in dutiful Obedience and Loyalty to Your Majesty, (whom God long preserve) as in mutual Affections towards one another.

The following Address from Colchester was presented to Her Majesty by Sir Isaac Rebow, High Steward of that Corpora- tion, and Sir Thomas Webster Bar. their Representatives in Parliament; introduced by his Grace the Duke of Somerset.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, High Steward, Recorder, Aldermen, Assistants, and Common Council, of Your Majesty's ancient Borough of Colchester in the County of Essex.

May it please Your Majesty,

IT is not long since we congratulated Your Majesty for the Glo- rious Success of Your Majesty's, and the Arms of Your Allies, in several Parts of Europe: We now humbly crave Leave to re- joice with Your Majesty for the Success of Your Councils, nothing inferior to that of Your Arms; for thereby You have accomplish- ed that which hath many times been in vain attempted, and have thereby laid a Foundation of Wealth and Strength to Your Kingdom of Great Britain. And we heartily pray, that Your Majesty may long live and reign over us, and that You and all Your Subjects may enjoy the Benefit and reap the Fruit of this Happy Union. In Witness whereof we have caused our Common Seal to be hereunto affixed, the One and thirtieth Day of March, in the Sixth Year of Your Majesty's Reign.

The following Address has also been presented to Her Ma- jesty.

To the most Excellent Majesty of ANNE, Queen of Great Britain, &c.
The humble Address of the Mayor, Bayliffs and Burgesies, and other the Inhabitants, of the Town and Borough of New Windsor.

May it please Your Majesty,
WE Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects do most humbly and heartily congratulate Your Majesty's Joy and Satisfaction, in the happy Conclusion of the long desired Union of the Two Famous Kingdoms of Great Britain:

A Work so difficult, that while other Princes have gloried in the Attempt alone, it seems reserved for the peculiar Honour of Your Majesty, and the Glory of Your Ministry, to bring it to effect.

A Work so happy in its Consequences, that thereby the Succes- sion of the Crown is preserved in the Protestant Line, the best Religion in the World secured and Established, and all the Bless- ings of Peace, Plenty and Liberty, we now enjoy, transmitted to Posterity for all Generations.

The Hearts of Kings are in the Hands of God: It was He that inclined Your Progenitors to choose the Lion and the Unicorn to support their Arms; and it is He certainly who hath fulfilled the Prophetick Emblem, and made Victory and Union the Two Sup- porters of Your Throne.

We have nothing left to do but to bless God and the Queen for the many inexpressible Advantages we receive from Her Govern- ment; to beseech him to continue them, by lengthening the Thread of that important Life on which they depend, by adding Length of Days to Your Glory and Honour, and making the Tears of Your Reign as numerous as the Blessings we enjoy under it.

All which Addresses Her Majesty received very graciously.
