

Your Majesty's Tenderness for the Welfare of Your People of these Islands as yet distinct Kingdoms of this Island, cannot, by the Zeal You have shewn, but influence them as forcibly from the Heart to a present Love and Liking of the Union, as that Law now pass'd has provided for the Security of it. The Advantages on both Sides are mutual in the Hanover Succession, upon which all the Publick Interest of United Britain for Eternity must turn: And Your Majesty has taken such Measures otherwise for the Satisfaction of both Your People, as to enforce that of the Apostle, so far as is possible, to make them live peaceably one with another.
This Testimony we humbly beg Leave to give to Your Sacred Majesty, together with our Prayers for Your Majesty's long, prosperous and peaceable Reign over all Your Subjects. Dated the 25th Day of April, in the Sixth Year of Your Majesty's blessed Reign over us.

The following Address from the Corporation of Kendall was presented to Her Majesty by Colonel Grakme; introduced by the Rt. Hon. Mr. Secretary Harley.

WE Your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgesses, and other Gentlemen, free Inhabitants, of Your Corporation of Kendall, in the County of Westmorland, do with one Heart beg Leave to approach Your Royal Presence with our Congratulations. Every Day gives us fresh Occasion to admire Your Majesty's Piety and Prudence; but never was there a more Glorious one than the Union of the Two Kingdoms affords us. By the Strength of the Island is so much increas'd, and the Protestant Succession so effectually established to Posterity, that future Ages will reap the Benefit as well as this; and may bless that God who inspired Your Majesty with Wisdom to effect so great a Work. May the same Providence preserve Your Reign long over us; and may Your People be united in Hearts, as they are in Interest; and no other Content ever be amongst them, than who shall be most zealous to approve themselves Your Dutiful Subjects. Given under our Hands this 24th of April, 1707.

The following Address from the Borough of Totnes was presented to Her Majesty by Thomas Coulson Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament; introduced by the Rt. Hon.
Mr. Secretary Harley.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

WE Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Burgesses of Your Majesty's ancient Borough of Tot-nes, and also the Vicar and other Principal Inhabitants of the said Town and Parish, do presume to congratulate Your Majesty, That the Treaty of an Union between Your Two Kingdoms of England and Scotland, (which for above an Hundred Years past had been in vain attempted) is finished in Your Majesty's auspicious Reign: And we do humbly assure Your Majesty, That we do sincerely wish it may be attended with all those great and glorious Consequences proposed by Your Majesty therein, even a lasting Blessing to the whole Island, a great Addition to its Wealth and Power, and a firm Security to the Protestant Religion.

The following Address from the Borough of St. Ives was presented to Her Majesty by the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Starnford.

To the most Excellent Majesty, Anne, Queen of Great Britain, &c.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants, of Your Majesty's Borough of St. Ives, in the County of Cornwall.

WE Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects do most humbly and heartily congratulate Your Majesty's Joy and Satisfaction in the happy Conclusion of the long desired Union of the Two famous Kingdoms of Great Britain.

We now humbly crave Leave to rejoice with Your Majesty for the Success of Your Councils, nothing inferior to that of Your Arms; for thereby You have accomplished that which in former Times hath been in vain attempted, and have thereby laid a Foundation of Honour, Riches, Power and Strength, to Your Kingdom of Great Britain.

And we heartily pray, That Your Majesty may long live and reign over us; and that You and all Your Subjects may enjoy the Benefit, and reap the Fruit and Advantage of this happy Union.
In Witness whereof we have caused our Common Seal to be here-unto affixed, this 19th Day of April, in the 6th Year of Your Majesty's Reign, Anno; Dom. 1707.

The following Address from the Borough of Ludlow was presented to Her Majesty by Sir Thomas Powys, one of their Representatives in Parliament.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bayliffs, Burgesses and Commonalty, of Your ancient and ever loyal Corporation of Ludlow, in the County of Salop.

Most Dread Sovereign,

Such is the Happiness of Your Majesty's Auspicious and Benign Reign, that every Year some Publick Blessing hath given Your Subjects a just Occasion of Addressing to Your Majesty with their Congratulations on the glorious Success of Your Arms abroad, and Councils at home.

For the sake of which, we humbly approach Your Majesty as present, not doubting also, before the end of the ensuing Campaign, (by God's great Blessing) to congratulate Your Majesty on the further Success and Progress of the other. The Reduction of France to Terms of Reason, and the Union of Your Majesty's Two ancient Kingdoms of England and Scotland, were reserved by Providence to be the lasting Glories (amongst other Things) of Your Majesty's Reign. No wonder that this happy Union now succeeded, when first our Hearts throughout the Island were added in Duty, Loyalty and Affection, to Your Majesty. We hope from henceforth we shall all be true Britains, and act unanimously for the Common Good, Prosperity and Welfare, of this happy Island of united Great Britain.

May Length of Days, and all true Blessings, attend Your Majesty; And as we now are become one People, under one Queen, the best of Monarchs, may we still (in God's due time) influenced by Your Majesty's most pious Example, be united farther under one Church, the best of Churches, (of whom Your Majesty is the glorious Patron) the Church of England as by Law established; which is the hearty Wish and united Prayer of us Your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects. In Testimony whereof, we have, at a Common-Council held for this Town this 22d Day of April, in the Sixth Year of Your Majesty's most happy Reign over us, caused the Common Seal of the said Town to be hereunto affixed.

The following Address from the Justices of the Peace, and Gentlemen of the Grand Jury for the County of Westmorland, was presented to Her Majesty by the Rt. Hon. the Lord High Treasurer.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Justices of the Peace, and the Gentlemen of the Grand Jury, for the County of Westmorland, at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, holden at Kendall for the said County, April 25. 1707.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects do most humbly and heartily congratulate Your Majesty upon the happy Conclusion of the long desired Union of Your ancient Kingdoms of England and Scotland: A Work of great Glory to Your Majesty's Reign, and of great Advantage to the Protestant Religion, and the whole United Body of Great Britain; and particularly to these Northern Counties, to whom Scotland, when Enemies, have been often troublesome Neighbours, and now, by Your wise Councils, we assure our selves will become as good Friends.

And we do most zealously give God Thanks, that a Work so difficult as to baffle the wisest Attempts of former Ages, should be so successfully finished by Your Majesty; and conclude that Divine Providence hath reserved this great Blessing upon Great Britain for Your Majesty's Reign; and by this Addition of Strength, will enable You to command Peace, according to Your own Terms, from the now tottering Pride of France.

And we beg Leave to assure Your Majesty of our Resolution in all Things to behave our selves as becomes good Neighbours, and dutiful Subjects to the best of Queens; and to vie or strive with them in nothing but in offering Prayers to God for the long Continuance of Your Glorious Reign over us.

A very dutiful and loyal Address from the President and Members of Her Majesty's Council of Barbadoes, and a like Address from the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Assembly, of Her Majesty's Island of Nevis, in the behalf of themselves and others, the Inhabitants of the said Island, have been presented to Her Majesty by Sir John Jennings, Rear Admiral of the Blue Squadron of Her Majesty's Fleet.

All which Addresses Her Majesty received very graciously.

Vicenza, April 23. N. S. The Earl of Manchester, Her Majesty of Great Britain's Ambassador Extraordinary to the Repu-blick of Venice, arrived here two Days ago from Francon-furt, and has received the Visits of the Foreign Ministers and other Persons of Quality at this Court. There is an Account from Hungary, That a Body of the Malecontents commanded by Count Caroli, having attack'd one of 3500 Rascians near Kez-kemet, the latter made to good a Defence, that the Enemy were soon entirely routed; and retiring to Kezkemet, the Rascians pursued them thither; and entering the Place with them, made a great Slaughter of them, Count Caroli himself narrowly escaping, and afterwards set fire to the Town.

Alt-Ransbad, April 27. N. S. On Sunday the 24th Instant in the Evening the Duke of Marlborough took his Leave of the Court of Hanover, and came away at 4 the next Morning: His Grace lay that Night at Halberstadt, where he was complimented by the Magistrates. Yesterday Morning he continued his Journey to Hall, where his Grace was met by Mr. Robinson, Envoy Extraordinary from Her Majesty of Great Britain, Count Zinzendorf, Envoy from the Emperor, and Monsieur Cranenberg, the Dutch Minister: After Dinner his Grace received the Compliments of the Magistrates, and of the University; then proceeded hither, accompanied by Mr. Robinson and Monsieur Cranenberg: He went directly to Count Piper's Quarters; and after some Conference with him, came to the Quarters the King had ordered to be prepared for him.
