decessors tende Uniting Tour ferms to have Prividence to in y sey which is of live Ma.
The Foundation Line, and the r Gratitude to Maj fir's Ser. of Love, Cha-t, as Nations, employe the Aiza over us.

k isar, one of tace the Duke

1.2jef²y, rs, Judices of two stiembled a, ora.

j čis, do in all terjul Successie, :ng whic., 1.0one and Pomons : A Mirk Sur Subjects of by Providence fter the many jer the many; as dies alls, and Recour-er Majely has promote that Tuar Majely's ind continually in the Hearts of nawleaged the

f Southampin take or Botm,

Majesty, cprey-thuse, of the Coun-22d Day of l Subjects, the fustices of the Jens General of Southamp-ness in rejer-zunos o lythe orbitant Power Oppressor; but vijiry, Prudent vijo, tice Wijest ation to marry now perfected own Suspects, continue any ejoy the Bleffed ad.

Saffron-Walden n. the Earl of ik, Earl-Mar-

Majesty, or poration of Mijeliy's most imputing, that bem. egty upon Tur vice, but Feigh o Congratulate ifficult Nations,

and Scotland:
to accomplish, cuive Hinder of re Jensièle will Jhid, to future our People. May

May the Good Go.: West Your Majesty with a Continued Proj. 120 not And (as tis bott our boundern Duty and our great Integrated Reign over int, that You may have long enjoy the loudes ress.) We heartly pray, That this sortimate Island of Great Bridger Tear Gust Expeditions and Desiret, in Uniting our that and Afelians in Expeditions on the Expense of our Lines and Fortunes.

In White where, we have complet our Common Scal to be kerente afficial, the Theory of Sprin, in the Sinth Than of That Missife? Reign.

The following Address from the County of Histmorland The awas presented to He Majesty by the Re. Hon. the Earl of Majesty.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Justices of the Pence and Grand Jusy of the Sounty on Highmorkind, at the General Outster-Selfions hold at Apply, for the find County, upon Monday the 21th Day of April, 1707.

WE are so full of Wonder and Asimiration at Your Majesty's Minutable Virtues, and Glorious Successive Abroad, teat we cannot sufficiently assimire the Divine Goodness for so Great a philog, in giving as a Princess who excels all that ever came tifue. It is not long fines we Congratulated The Majefy for the Glole is not long fines we Congratulated The Majefy for the Glole is not long fines we Congratulated The Majefy for the Glole is not long fines we congratulated The Majefy for the Glole in Success of Europe, but now we have an Occasion which me innealizately souther at a pen the Happy Union of the The Mindons of England and Societies Happy Union of the The Mindons of England and Societies Happy Union of the The Jugardens attenting this Work are righty Advantagious to at Tour Mijeft's subjects; yet now will have a greater Share into the pinest then as, who will be effectively secured in our Lives and Fretues from any Disturbance from that Greater Mijeft to off the which is a new Glory waterwrith God crowns Tour Mijefty, that we may all beheld The with greater Feneration.

And thus God Allaighty would continue to pour down his Blofogsupon Tour Majefy, Tour Royal Confort, and the Royal Family are and food by the confort of those and Prayers of Tour Mijefty's most Ductful and Loyal Subjects.

The following Address from the Borough of Southwark was prefented to Her Majetty by Charles Cox Etq; one of their Representatives in Partiament: Introduced by his Grace the bake of Northumberiana.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of Your Majelty's Dutitul and Loyal Subjects, Deputy-Lieurenants, Justices of the Peace, and Inhabitants, of the Borouga of Southwark.

Inhabitants, of the Borough of Southwark.

May it pleafe Your Dejoily,

To give us Leave to throw our felves at Your Reyal Feet with Hearts fell of Jey and Gratitude for the Usion of fear two Kingsoms. The Reventhing fuch different Interests, after so Kingsoms. The Reventhing fuch different Interests, after so many fruitless Endantours of former Princes, was ca pake of being accomplish a only by Your Wisdom: And after the separed Successes of Your Arms against France; after humbling a Power so somitable to all Europe, after the Deliverance of some other Countries from Opportsion, and of Your own from their hears: This was the only Thing wanting to compleat Your Glory, and the Happiness of Your whole People.

Securad by Your Arms from Foreign, and by this Blissed Union from Demestick, Dancers, the Tranquists of this Island seems for ever equalished: He are, from this Time, held sogether by Sattal, as wed as Civil, Interests: and shall therefore join to gether in the same trayer, That You may long Reign, as You most Justly deserve, the Darling of Your subjects, the Terror of Tar Enemies, and the Arbiter of all Christendom.

The following Address from the Borough of Appleby was presented to Her Mujesty by James Grahme Esq; one of their kepresentatives in Parliament; introduced by the Rt. Hon. Mr. Secretary Harley.

To the QUEEN's most Excellen Majesty.

Ehe humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Common-Cauncil, and other the Burghers and Inhabitants, of Your Mighty's ancient Borough of Appleby within the County of Westmerland.

MADAM,

THE Triumphs of Your Majesty's victorious Arms abroad, and the undistribute Peace and Tranquility we ofgy at home, under Your Austicious and Clerious Reign, have given us frequent Oscasions of paying our must chankful Acknowledgments to dissen and Tour Self for such and thankful Acknowledgments to dissen and Your Self for such and the Biosings: And we see Leave to say. (Malion) We have always done it with a similar for Gol's Honor, and a hearty, loyal and shocere assembly some the glorious Occasions We are too scripble of the Majories and Calabatties this Part of Your Kingson Justice in some rims, not to be truly 10 mkful for this happy and advantagious Udin, which based the Petiticles and Endeavours of former Rights and (though often attempted) would never pals into a Limital it had the Honor to be locked with Your peaceful and some Seeper.

The following Addresses have also been presented to Her

To the QUEE N's Most Excellent Majesty, The humble Addiels of Youn Majesty's Justices of the Peace-Deputy-Lieutenants and Militia Officers, for the County of Middlesex, together with the Grand Jury in Quarter Ses-tions assembled.

May it please Your Majesty,

Way It Tour Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, among the Vice many others that have addressed from Majesty nows the nappy Union of the Two Kingdoms, so often attempted by other Princes, but happily effected by Your Majesty, begine to a you this Occasion to congravulate Tour Majesty, and offure Tour Majesty, That nothing shall be wanting on our Parts to render it every way effectual, to the Advantage of the united Kingdoms. That Your Majesty may long live to see the happy Effects of this, and all other Tour numearied Cores; for the good of Tour People; and that they may every way answer Tour noble Designs, shall be the constant Prayers of Your Majesty's mest dutiful and loyal Subjects and Servants.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord-Lieutenant, Deputy-Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Lexisfier.

May it please Your Majesty,

H E Compleat Union of Your Two Kingdoms of England and Scotland, (which an whole tige attempted in vain)
was a Feculiar Blossing referved for Your Majesty's Auspicious was a Feculiar Blifting referved for Twir Majely's Auflicious and Victorious Reign.

Admit us therefore, Dread Sovereign, to Congratulate Tour Mijesty upon so Glorious and Surprising a Provisione, so necessary for a Eirsh and Lasting Establishmens of the Peace and Prospecity of this Your Renowned Mind of Great Britain; which, as it is a World within it self, so, by the United Hands and Hearts of Your Subjects of both Kingdoms, may it so prosper in Riches and Strength, under Your Majesty's in st Hupp Government, (which God long continue to its) as to be able, by such an United Interest, to preserve the Balance of Europe, and to give Peace and Transquility to Europe.

All which Adderse Her Majesty accided was to the All which Adderse Her Majesty accided which which Adderse Her Majesty accided which we will be to so.

All which Addresses Her Majesty received very graciously.

Turin, April 23. N. S. On the Arrival of the Prince of Vaudemont with the Enemy's Troops in this State, the Duke of Savoy fent an Officer of his Guards to Compliment him, and offer what he might have occasion for in his March to of Savoy fent an Officer of his Guards to Compliment him, and offer what he might have occasion for in his March to Suza. The Prince returned the Compliment by one of his Aid-de-Gamps; and sent at the same time a French Bridadier to inform his Royal Highness, That the Forces of the Two Crowns had been obliged, by ill Weather, to halt one Day at Thin; and that the Prince desired his Royal Highness to give him leave to canton his Troops, it being impossible for them to encamp, with some other Proposals for their Ease and Accommodation on their March: To all which his Royal Highness has given his Consent. Montieur de Senecter having finished his Regotiation here about the Exchange of Prisoers, has received his Royal Highness's Orders to leave this Place, and he will be conducted to Saza to Morrow or next Day. General Slick went from sence Yesterday for Milan, from whence Prince Eagene and Count Daun came hitherto the same Day.

Berne, April 30. This Morning arrived here an Expression Zusich with an Account, That on Easter-Sunday a Congregation of Processants in the Country of Tockensoung being assembled in one of their Churches, a Parry of Roman Catholick's broke in upon them, and in a tumultuous manner interrupted their Pevorions, which the Protestants so z abously referred, that it came to Blows, and several on both sides were killed in the Disorder. The Canton of Zurich, upon this Intelligence, ordered some Troops to march into those Parts to support the Protestants; and have written to this Canton to demand the like Assistance, according to their Agreement. The grear Countil is now in a Debate what Measures to take upon this Occasion.

Paris, Mry 6. The Marquis de Sily arrived at Marii on the 5th Instant, with the News of a Victory which our Troops, in Conjunction with those of Spain, had gained over the Courselerate Army in Valentia on the 25th of April. He fays, that my Lord Galway having betieg'd Villena, and the Duke of Berwick marching to its Relief, the two Armies come to an Engagennest in the Plain of A

Lord Galway having belieged Villena, and the Duke or Bei wick marching to its Relief, the two Armies some to an lingagemarching to its Relief, the two Armies some to an lingagemeet in the Plain of Almania: Our Army was drawn up in kigns and (things of the Helmir to be Touck'd with The peaceful and Limitil it had the Hemist to be Touck'd with The peaceful and kigns and other and siders the Divine Goodness for making Tour Sund Mighty the Glevien Informent in bringing fush mighty
The Government on the Right, the Spiniards on the Dodres conflicting of Portuguele, the other Confield acts: They artacked us about Noon, with the exmandinary Fury, that the English and Dutch broke into our landing to pals: Me faithfully promife our usual Endangers in Priore that Unity and good Understance which The Miffer a plain of Almania: Our Army was drawn up in two Bodies, the French on the Right, the Spiniards on the Lett. The Enemy were in the fame Posture; one of their Bodies consisting of Portuguele, the other of their Confield and Signifery and Jidde function of the marking Tour land Might be Glevien Informent in bringing makes There and Chaging the Enemy Sword in Hand, put them into Outords:, and efter an obstinate Duspine of two Hours, obliged then