Kingsington, May 7.

THE following Address was presented to Her Majesty by the Protestant Dissenting Ministers of the several Denominations in and about the City of London; introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Sunderland, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Protestant Dissenting Ministers of the several Denominations in and about the City of London.

May it please Your Majesty,

Amongst the rest of Your dutiful and loyal Subjects, we beg Leave with all Humility to congratulate Your Majesty upon the Accession every Year makes to the Glories of Your auspicious Reign; and more especially upon the happy Union of Your Two Kingdoms of England and Scotland.

We adore that Divine Providence which hath removed the Difficulties that were insuperable to Your Greatest Predecessors, even under the Advantages of Peace, and reserved to Your Majesty the Honour of making us one flourishing People, through Your wise and steady Councils, together with the unparalleled Judgment, Application and Fidelity, of Your Majesty's Commissioners, and Your Two Parliaments.

By this entire Union of the Two Nations, we with Joy behold the Peace and Quiet of Your Majesty's Government firmly settled; the Protestant Succession to the Imperial Crown of Great Britain, and the reformed Interest in general, secured; the Strength and Honour of the whole Island much advanced; and our common Safety, both against Attempts from abroad, and Breaches upon our happy Civil Constitution at home, effectually provided for.

Herein we have a repeated Instance of Your Majesty's paternal Care of all Your People; and cannot but hope, that so illustrious an Example will inspire all Your Protestant Subjects with that generous Love and Charity, that it may never more be in the Inclination of any of them to molest one another upon Religious Accounts.

May the Great God so prosper Your Arms, and those of Your Allies, that Your Majesty may be the glorious Instrument of re-establishing the Peace, and securing the Liberty, of Europe; and, at the same time, of restoring our Protestant Brethren abroad to their ancient Rights.

May Your Majesty and Your illustrious Consort, the Prince, be continued in Health.

May Your Sacred Majesty be bless'd with a long and prosperous Reign over a People more reformed in their Manners, and united in Affection, (according to Your Majesty's earnest Recommendations) and still reap the Benefits of a Government, which, by the Divine Blessing, You have made so considerable for Safety and Greatness.

May all these our Requests be as fully answer'd, as those we have offer'd to the Almighty for this Union.

Then will our Inaugurings be lasting; and Your Majesty will have the Satisfaction of transmitting Liberty and Union to all succeeding Ages.

The following Address from the City of Coventry was presented to Her Majesty by Sir Orlando Bridgeman Bar. and Edward Hopkins Esq; their Representatives in Parliament; introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Sunderland, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bayliffs and Commonalty, of the City of Coventry.

May it please Your Majesty,

WHE Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, cannot be silent, whilst the whole Nation are paying their grateful Acknowledgments for new Blessings procured by Your Majesty: For as we share those with the rest of Your Subjects, so we presume to think we are not out-done by any in Zeal and Affection for Your Person and Government.

The Occasions for addressing to Your Majesty are so frequent, that we even fear to be troublesome; but when we see one Year produce such Things at home, as have been the Fruitless Attempts of a Century, and such Conquests gained in one Campaign abroad, as could not in Reason be expected from a tedious War, we humbly beg Leave to assure Your Majesty, That as these Affairs exceed all Humane Expectation, so we do cheerfully contribute to that extraordinary Expense which is necessary to put in Execution the Result of those wise Councils, which, next to God and Your own Royal Virtues, are only capable of producing such Effects.

We heartily pray, That Your Majesty's Reign may be long, as it is glorious; and that it may be attended with that Ease and Tranquillity, which may make it comfortable to Your Self, as You make it happy to us.

Given under our Common Seal this 21st Day of April, Anno Domini 1707.

The following Address was presented to Her Majesty by Thomas Edwards Esq; Bayliff of the Liberty of the Isle of Ely, and the Rev. Mr. Patrick, Justice of the Peace in the said Isle; introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Rt. Rev. Syson Lord Bishop of Ely, the Chief Justice of the Isle, Bayliff of the Liberty, Deputy Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, Grand Jury, and the Ailizes held for the Liberty of the said Isle, upon the 28th Day of April, in the Year of Our Lord One thousand seven hundred and seven, Clergy and Gentlemen at the said Assizes.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

IT is with exalted Joy, but yet in great Humility, that we congratulate Your Majesty's Success both abroad and at home; the first tending to restore Peace to Europe, and to establish the Liberty of Mankind; the latter to secure the Protestant Succession. Thus Arbitrary Power from all Quarters must submit to Your just and prudent Administration. The late Union of England and Scotland, hitherto thought almost insuperable, doth not only evidence Your Majesty's Greatness of Mind, and Wisdom for Your Subjects, in attempting it, but also Your great Wisdom in bringing it to effect: But yet a greater Work than this Your Majesty has begun, and made great Steps towards; that is, the uniting in Heart and Affections a divided People.

May Your Majesty live long to complete this good Work, and to see Your Subjects thus made happy by Your Majesty's great Wisdom and Goodness.

The following Address from the City of Bristol was presented to Her Majesty by Robert Eyre Esq; their Recorder.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common-Council, of the City of Bristol.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

BEING justly sensible of the invaluable Blessings of Your Majesty's Government, and the great Benefits likely to accrue to us and our Posterity by the Union of the Kingdoms of England and Scotland, so happily effected under Your Majesty's auspicious Conduct and Administration, (which most eminently shine forth in the Welfare of Your People); we humbly crave Leave to offer our Congratulations, and to assure Your Sacred Majesty, That our utmost Endeavours shall be always in Subservience to Your Majesty's Honour and Dignity, for the Preservation of Unity, Peace and Concord.

And we pray the Almighty, That the continued Lustre of a long and prosperous Reign over us, may be late advanced in Your Accession to an Heavenly Crown.

The following Address from the City of Corke having been transmitted by the Lords Justices of Ireland, was presented to Her Majesty by his Excellency the Earl of Pembroke, Lord President of Her Majesty's Council, and Lord Lieutenant of that Kingdom.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, and Commonalty, of the City of Corke, in Your Kingdom of Ireland.

ture Ages, hath surmounted those Difficulties, in uniting Two Kingdoms of England and Scotland, which former Princes in vain attempted to remove, and which for a considerable Time disappointed and delayed the Glorious Design since Your Majesty's wearing the Crown; we cannot but wish the rest of the World acknowledge Yours to be a Reign of Miracles, and signally blessed by Heaven.

Your Majesty hath happily accomplished what one of Your Royal Ancestors generously attempted, and promised to himself to have been able to finish; and hath truly made Great Britain one People, by providing that they shall for ever hereafter have the same Head and Heart, the same Prince and Legislature: They will now forget the Name and Animosity of warring Nations, and be united in Affection one to the other, as all Your Subjects are in admiring the daily Instances of Your Majesty's Royal Goodness and condescendant Wisdom.

You triumph over Your Enemies abroad, and use Your Power at home, to secure Your Subjects in the full Enjoyment of their Religion and Liberties, and to repress and frigate the Attempts and Designs of a Prince who was thought able to have given Laws to Europe, till Your Majesty convinced the rest of the World, and even too, of their Mistake: and when it should be for the Good of Your People, and of all Your Allies, Your dutiful Subjects assuredly promise to themselves, That Your Majesty will put an end to this glorious and successful War, by a safe, honourable and durable Peace.

May Your Majesty's loyal Subjects presume to hope, That the Conclusion of this Your present Kingdom will at some time be so far taken into Your Princely Consideration, that, as the Protestants of it are of British Extraction, and have ever shewn a firm Affection to the Crown, they may rejoice for their own, as well as their Neighbours, Happiness, in uniting Your Majesty's Kingdoms.

Given under the Common Seal of the said City the 12th Day of April, in the Sixth Year of Your Majesty's Reign.

The following Addresses have also been presented to Her Majesty.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of Your Majesty's Justices of the Peace, and Grand Jury, assembled at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the County of Northumberland, held at Newcastle the 23d Day of April, in the Sixth Year of Your Majesty's Glorious Reign.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects take this Opportunity to acknowledge (amongst the many Advantages we enjoy under Your auspicious Reign) that of the happy Union of Your Two Kingdoms of England and Scotland; this and the adjacent Counties being now freed from the many Calamities, and insupportable Burdens, they laboured under during the unhappy Wars between these Kingdoms: A Blessing Your Royal Progenitors for many Years fruitlessly endeavoured to obtain. We return our humblest thanks to Your Sacred Majesty, the Finisher of so difficult a Work; whereby not only a lasting Monument of Honour is raised to Your Crown, and the succession thereof, established in the Protestant Line; but also our Religion, and the Safety of all Your People, preserved. We must ever acknowledge such signal Blessings; and humbly assure Your Majesty, we will obey Your Royal Commands from the Town, in becoming one People, as well in King's Hon as Interest; and devoutly pray, Your Majesty may long live to reign over us, and enjoy the Fruits of this great and glorious Work.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common-Council, of the Town and County of Newcastle upon Tyne, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

When we reflect upon the great Devastations committed, and the insupportable Calamities under which this and other Northern Counties laboured before the happy Union of the Two Kingdoms of England and Scotland, under Your Royal Great Grandfather, and during the tumultuous Rebellion and intestine Wars against Your Royal Grandfather; and to what Dangers the Situation of our Country might unavoidably have exposed us, our Persecutions, and Controversies, if the Succession of the Two Crowns had been divided, and the old Animosities revived; and when we consider how ineffectual all Attempts towards an Union in Government and Succession have heretofore proved; we cannot but admire the Goodness of Almighty God, and return our most humble and sincere Thanks to Your Majesty, for bringing a Work of so much Difficulty and Nicety to a happy Conclusion; whereby we are not only settled in profound Peace and Tranquillity, but delivered from the Apprehensions of future Dangers. A Blessing which Great Britain in general, and we of this Town and County in particular, ought to acknowledge, and for ever commend, with the greatest Gratitude. And that it may appear to Your Majesty, and all the World, that we have Hearts disposed to be our People with Satisfaction, we will always act with all possible Respect and Kindness to them, as we hope they will do to us, and thereby answer Your Majesty's Expectation expressed in Your most Gracious Speech to both Houses of Parliament. And that Almighty God may still multiply His Blessings upon Your Majesty, and that You may long wear the Imperial Crown of Great Britain, and that the Succession to the Monarchy thereof in the Protestant Line, and our Church, as by Law established and effectually secured by Your Majesty, may so continue and flourish through all Generations; is and ever shall be the hearty Prayers of us, Your Majesty's most dutiful and obedient Subjects. Given under our Common Seal the 21st Day of April, in the Sixth Year of Your Majesty's most Glorious Reign over us.

All which Addresses Her Majesty received very graciously.

Turin, April 27. N. S. The 24th Instant Prince Eugene received a Courier from Vienna, which obliged him to return from hence to Milan sooner than he designed: His Highness, accompanied by Count Daun, left this Place on the 25th at break of Day, in order to reach Milan that Night. The 25th the Prince of Vaudemont, with the Troops under his Command, passed the Stura near Cirie, where great Multitudes of People, and several Persons of Quality, were assembled, out of Curiosity to see their March: They arrived that Night at Alpignan, and are to be at Suia tomorrow. The same Day the Count de Medavi came hither, and had the Honour to wait on his Royal Highness and the Dutchesse, who received him in a very obliging manner; and next Day he returned to the Army. The Count de Kniphauen, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Prussia to the King of Spain, arrived here on the 25th at Night; and being commissioned to negotiate with his Royal Highness, it is believed he will stay here some Time. Last Night Don Pedro Moraffe, Marquis d'Ornubia, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Spain to his Royal Highness, arrived here from Milan.

Frankfort, May 8. Tho' there are several Accounts of the French Troops being in motion on the Rhine, we are assured, that hitherto all things are very quiet in those Parts, and like to continue so, unless the Enemy draw Forces thither from other Places. We hear his Excellency the Earl of Manchester has had an Audience of his Imperial Majesty, and finds that Court in a very good Disposition to comply with what he has propos'd, in the Name of Her Majesty the Queen of Great Britain.

Paris, May 9. We have received farther Particulars of the Battle gained on the 25th of April by the United Forces of France and Spain, commanded by the Duke of Berwick. These inform us, That the beginning of the Action was very bloody, our Foot not being able to sustain the Shock of the English and Dutch Infantry, who bore 'em down twice: And notwithstanding the Duke of Berwick rallied our Men in Person, and animated them by his own Example, there was no Advantage to be hop'd for on that side; which the General observing, thought fit to rely entirely upon his Horse, and accordingly charged the Portuguese with his whole Cavalry, which soon forc'd 'em to retire, leaving him Master of their Ground, and at liberty to flank the Body of English and Dutch, at the same time that they were attack'd in front by our Infantry, who by this means had Opportunity of rallying. The Enemy being thus overpowered, and put into Disorder, were obliged to quit the Field. Their Loss is computed at between 4 and 5000, besides some Battalions made Prisoners in their Retreat. There are Reports, That my Lord Galway is kill'd, and the Marquis das Minas wounded. We have not on our own side lost less than 3000 Men. The Duke of Savoy prepares with much Vigour and Application for the speedy opening of the Campaign, and the Inhabitants of Provence and Dauphiné are in great Apprehensions of an Invasion. His Royal Highness has made prodigious Magazines on the Frontiers, and got together an incredible number of Mules and Cartage-Horses for transporting Ammunition and Provisions. These Preparations have alarm'd all the adjacent Parts of France, and put the Inhabitants under great Contemnation. The Hopes with which we were flatter'd of the King of Sweden's declaring himself in our Favour are very much abated, since we have heard of the Duke of Marlborough's Arrival and Reception at the Swedish Court.

Ostend, May 12. A Fleet of Merchant Ships that lay 5 Months in the Downes, consisting of 55 Sail, arrived at Ostend this Evening, to the great Advantage and Satisfaction of this Place. Two Days ago came in here 5 Ships, which coming from France at the the Time that this Town was besieged, put into Dunkirk, and had been detained there upon the Reduction of this Place to the Obedience of King Charles. Hague, May 13. N. S. All Obstacles in the Affairs of the Bishop of Paderborn being removed, we expect every Day to receive from Rome the Confirmation of his Election to the Bishoprick of Munster. The States General have signified to the Countess of D'Hona their Intention to promote her Husband, and to have Regard to what he may have suffered in the Battle of Almanza.

Brussels, May 14. N. S. His Grace the Duke of Marlborough arrived here yesterday in the Afternoon, and has given Orders to the Army to form their first Camp at Hall on the 22d Instant.

Dublin, May 1. This being the Day appointed for the Thanksgiving for the Union of the Two Kingdoms of England and Scotland, the Lords Justices met this Morning at the Castle; and after being complimented by the Nobility, Judges and Gentry, in Town, they went in State to Christ-Church, and returned in like manner to the Castle; from whence the Company were carried to Dinner by their Excellencies to their respective Houses: And the Evening concluded with Ringing of Bells, Bonfires, and all Marks of Joy. My Lord Mayor had the Militia drawn out on College-Green, and treated each Company with a plentiful Allowance of Wine.

Dungeoys, May 2. Her Majesty's Ships the Royal-Oak, the Grafton, and Hampton-Court, with about 40 Coasters under their Convoy, being about six Leagues to the Westward of Beachy, fell in with a French Squadron of 9 Men of War of the Line, of 50 to 60 Guns each, and many Privateers from 20 to 30 Guns, all of 'em compleatly mann'd. The Grafton was boarded by three Men of War of 56 Guns, who carried her after a warm Dispute of half an Hour. The Hampton-Court was attacked by one of the Men of War, and afterwards boarded by two others, of which, with great Difficulty, she disengaged her self; but as she was bearing away, she fell in with two fresh ones, that shot away her Main-mast and Fore-top-mast. The Royal-Oak, Captain Baron Wyld Commander, came up to her Assistance; but finding her Ensign struck, made the best of her way to save her self, having 7 Foot Water in the Hold, and very much shattered in the Engagement: She had received several Shors under Water from two French Men of War of 50 to 56 Guns, that were on board her above half a quarter of an Hour; but she ply'd them so warmly, that they were forc'd to sheer off, not without being much disabled. She is since come in hither, and by Assistance from Shore, out of all further Danger. We don't yet know the Number of the Coasters that are fallen into the Enemy's Hands; there being good Accounts of several since the Engagement that were supposed to have been taken.

Rye, May 3. Just now came in hither a Long-Boat belonging to the Hampton-Court, that was taken by the French in the late Engagement off Beachy. There were in it a Midship man and 7 Sailors, who, while the Enemy were busy in plundering the Vessel, went through the Ports into the Long-Boat, where they lay concealed under the Tholes. The Enemy in the mean time driving with the Flood; when they thought themselves at a sufficient distance, they fell to their Oars, and had the good Fortune to get hither in Safety. They give an Account, That their Captain continued the Fight some time after he was mortally wounded, being shot into the Belly, and carried off by one of those that came hither in the Long-Boat. They suppose there were about 200 killed and wounded; and add, That they saw the Master of the Ship among the former.

Plymouth, May 4. Yesterday came in the Isaac of and for London, with Oil from Pharo. The St. Philip of and from Bilboa, with Iron, Wine and Fruit, for Topsham.

Dartmouth, May 4. Yesterday put into Torbay 11 Five English Men of War which were ordered from Spithead to cruise in the Channel, and sailed again in the Evening. This Day is come into this Port the Friendship of and for Rotterdam, with Wine from Bourdeaux, but lost from Ireland.

Hull, May 5. On Thursday Night last the Dutch, Capt. George Lumley Commander, met with a small French Privateer of 4 Guns, 4 Patereroes, and 44 Men, betwixt Flamborough and the Spurn, which he took yesterday Morning, and brought into Humber, with the Captain, Lieutenant, and two Officers more, Prisoners: The rest of the Men he sends to Hull this Day.

The Rt. Hon. Sidney Earl of Godolphin, Lord High Treasurer of England, is pleased to give Notice, That he has directed the Trustees for Circulating Exchequer Bills to lay open New Rolls, on Monday the 12th of this Instant May, at their Office near the Exchequer, for taking Subscriptions, from Persons of sufficient Abilities, for Circulating Exchequer Bills, for any Sum not exceeding One Hundred Thousand Pounds, at a Premium of One Pound per Cent. for the Sum by them respectively subscribed: Each Subscriber to deposit Five Pounds per Cent. at the time of Subscription, to remain in the Office until the Determination of the Contract.

All Persons owing Arrears of Rent for Wine-Licences, or whose Licences are expired, are hereby desired to take Notice, That if they do not pay their said Arrears, and renew their said Wine-Licences, with all speed, they will be forthwith sued at Law for the same.

By the Receiver-General for Prizes. Notice is hereby given, That the Officers and Company of Her Majesty's Ship Rye will, on Thursday the 15th Instant, be paid their Proportions of the Prize-Ship Betty Gally; according to the Directions in Her Majesty's most Gracious Declaration for the Encouragement of Her Ships of War, &c.
