" Outline of the Forces Family Pensions Scheme

" The family pensions and other awards provided for in this Schedule are those payable in respect of the service of deceased Officers, Chief Petty Officers, Petty Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers and Men of the Royal Navy and the Royal Marines, as distinct from the awards which are payable in respect of deaths which are due to service.

" 3. Subject to the detailed regulations set out below, family pensions may be paid to eligible members of the families of deceased Officers, R.N. ratings and R.M. other ranks who were entitled by service to half pay, retired pay or service pension, or, where death occurred during service, would have been so entitled had they been invalided on the day they died.

(a) Officers' widows at the rate of £20 a year.

(b) R.N. ratings' and R.M. other ranks' widows at the rate of 7s. 8d. a week.

No additional increase under this Clause is to exceed one quarter of the pension payable to the pensioner.

"11. Supplements to 'Modified' Family Pensions

(a) Where, but for the pension or allowances awarded on the ground that the husband's death was due to service, a widow would have received a National Insurance award, the Admiralty may grant a supplementary pension equal to the amount by which the widow's 'attributable' pension and the 'modified' family pension falls short of an award of 'ordinary' family pension, together with the National Insurance award and a lead of £26 a year in the case of the widow of an officer, 7s. 6d. a week in the case of the widow of a Regimental Sergeant Major, Royal Marines, and 5s. 0d. a week in the case of the widow of any other rank or rating.

(b) A supplementary pension for a widow with children will be calculated as if the awards to that widow and children were one award, and may not be calculated as a separate pension for each dependant.

(c) The same lead will apply for a motherless child or children as for the widow and children of an officer of corresponding rank.

(d) A supplementary pension will be assessed on the basis of the awards in payment in the calendar year starting on the date of commencement of the 'modified' family pension granted under Clauses 8 or 9, but excluding the amount by which the rate of National Insurance Widow's Allowance would exceed that of subsequent National Insurance Widow's Benefits or does exceed that of the widow's 'attributable' pension. The amount of the supplementary pension will be re-assessed on the cessation of individual children's pensions, but will otherwise normally remain unaltered.

(e) In calculating or re-assessing a supplementary pension any Education or Rent Allowance, or any grants to a widow or unmarried dependant under Order in Council of 13th May 1959, shall not be taken into account.

" 12. Definition of Rank for the Purposes of Minimum Awards of 'Ordinary' and 'Modified' Family Pensions.

Rank for the purposes of Clauses 7 and 9 will be as follows:

(a) Officers. The rank shall be the substantive rank held by the officer on his retirement, provided that unless the officer is invalidated, the rank had been held on the Active List for the following minimum period:

(i) Admiral/General, Royal Marines 1 year

(ii) All other officers ... .. 2 years

Where an officer dies while serving on the Active List the minimum period above will not apply. Higher paid acting or temporary rank will be taken into account to the same extent as for retired pay purposes.

(b) R.N. Ratings and R.M. Other Ranks. The highest paid rank held for an aggregated period of two or more years during the last five years of service preceding termination of full pay service (including service in a higher paid rank of less than two years' duration); or, if more favourable, where the R.N. rating or R.M. other rank was invalidated or died whilst serving the substantive rank held at the time of discharge or death. If a R.N. rating or R.M. other rank who has completed a pensionable engagement is permitted to remain in or re-enter the Service in a lower rank, the rank will be the highest paid rank held for two or more years during the five years preceding the completion of such pensionable engagement if this is more favourable.

" SECTION III

" Conditions Governing the Award of Family Pensions

" 13. Pension Cannot be Claimed as a Right

(a) A pension cannot be claimed as a right and will not be granted or continued when the applicant is shown to be living with a man as his wife, nor will it be granted if the service of the Officer, R.N. rating or R.M. other rank has not been such as in the opinion of the Admiralty to justify the award.

(b) If the death of an officer or rating or marine, or the wound, injury, or disease which resulted in his death, was due wholly or in part to his own negligence or misconduct or to any cause within his control, any grant which might otherwise be made to his widow or children may be withheld or reduced in amount at the discretion of the Admiralty.

(c) If an officer retired, dismissed the Service, or called upon to retire for misconduct or inefficiency, or a R.N. rating or R.M. other rank discharged for misconduct or inefficiency was not granted any retired pay or pension in respect of his service, no award will be made to the family. If reduced retired pay or service pension was awarded, the family pension will be at such rate as the Admiralty may determine.

(d) If the applicant is granted any other pension or allowance from public funds on account of the service of the deceased, any pension which might otherwise be granted under this Schedule may be withheld or reduced as the Admiralty may determine.

" 14. Conditions relating to Marriage

(a) To be eligible for a pension, a widow must have been married to the Officer, R.N. rating or

R.M. other rank before his retirement or discharge; or, if he subsequently gave further service in circumstances rendering him eligible to be considered for a re-assessment of retired pay or pension, before the termination of such further service.

(b) If the death of the Officer, R.N. rating or R.M. other rank occurred within a year of his marriage, the Admiralty, in the light of the circumstances of the case, may withhold or reduce the award otherwise admissible.

" 15. Effect of Separation on Widow's Pension and Gratuity

Subject to any exception which the Admiralty may approve in a particular case, an award will not be made to a widow who was separated from her husband at the time of his death. Should such an exception be approved, the award will be at such a rate, and subject to such conditions, as the Admiralty may determine.

" 16. Withholding or Diversion of Pension

In exceptional circumstances the Admiralty may withhold the whole or any part of a pension granted under this Schedule and may divert the whole or part for the benefit of persons dependent on the pensioner.

" 17. Date of Commencement of Pension

The date of commencement of pension will be determined according to the circumstances of the case and will normally, if application is not unduly delayed, be the date following the husband's death; or, if death occurred during service, the date following the termination of allowances issuable after death.

" 18. Belated Claims

If a widow dies before establishing her claim to pension, arrears of pension will not, save in exceptional circumstances, be allowed to her estate.

" 19. Re-marriage

The pension of a widow who re-marries will be suspended, but if she again becomes a widow her pension may be restored in whole or in part at the discretion of the Admiralty, if her pecuniary circumstances justify such restoration.

" 20. Children

(a) A 'child' for the purposes of the award of a pension under this Schedule means:—

(i) A legitimate child of the Officer, R.N. rating or R.M. other rank whose mother is, or would have been, eligible for a widow's pension.

(ii) A step child of the Officer, R.N. rating or R.M. other rank, whose mother is, or would have been, eligible for a widow's pension, and who was mainly dependent on him at the time of his death.

(iii) A child adopted by the Officer, R.N. rating or R.M. other rank, or by his wife, before his retirement or discharge; or, if he subsequently gave further service in circumstances rendering him eligible to be considered for a re-assessment of retired pay or service pension, before the termination of such further service; who was mainly dependent upon him at the time of his death.

(iv) An illegitimate child of the Officer, R.N. rating or R.M. other rank, or of his wife, born before his retirement or discharge to pension; or, if he subsequently gave further service in circumstances rendering him eligible to be considered for a re-assessment of retired pay or service pension, before the termination of such further service; who was mainly dependent upon him at the time of his death.

(b) A child's pension will normally cease when the child attains the age of 18 years in the case of the child of an Officer or a Regimental Sergeant Major, Royal Marines, or the age of 16 years in the case of all other ratings and ranks, but may be granted or continued after those ages:—

(i) if the child continues to receive full-time education, or is an apprentice not receiving more than nominal wages; or

(ii) if, before attaining the age referred to above, the child was, and continues to be afflicted by mental or bodily infirmity and is therefore incapable of earning his or her own living, provided the Admiralty considers that the pecuniary circumstances of the child and family are such as to justify the award.

(c) Children's pensions will be paid to the widow or mother of the child, or other person responsible for the child's maintenance, or to the child direct, as may be decided by the Admiralty.

(d) Pensions of children of Officers and of Regimental Sergeant Majors, Royal Marines, may be issued annually in advance, with effect from 1st April in each year.

" 21. Commutation of Retired Pay

The widow and children of an officer who commuted a portion of his retired pay will not on that account be deprived of entitlement to pension under this Schedule, but the widow of an officer whose marriage took place after commutation, a step-child eligible by virtue of a marriage after commutation, or child adopted after commutation, will be granted only such portion of any pension which would otherwise be awarded under this Schedule as corresponds with the portion of retired pay not commuted.

" SECTION IV

" Gratuities to widows and children on the death of serving officers, R.N. ratings and R.M. other ranks

" 22. (a) The provisions of this section apply to the widows and children of officers and R.N. ratings and R.M. other ranks who die while serving on full pay on or after 1st February, 1964.

(b) All awards under this section will be governed by the general conditions set out in Section III as applicable.

" 23. Where a permanent officer or a short service officer dies while serving on full pay on the Active List, his widow may be granted a gratuity as follows:

(i) If, had the officer been invalided, he would have been eligible for a terminal grant, a gratuity equal to nine tenths of the terminal grant to which he would have been entitled had he been invalided on the day of his death.

(ii) In other cases a gratuity on the following scale for each year which would have been reckoned for service gratuity as an officer.

Less than 4 years' service ...	275
4 " " ...	360
5 " " ...	445
6 " " ...	530
7 " " ...	620
8 " " ...	710
9 " " ...	800

Thence by increments of £90 for each additional year of service which would have been reckoned for service gratuity.

" 24. Where a R.N. rating or R.M. other rank dies while serving on full pay on a regular engagement his widow may be granted a gratuity as follows:—

(i) If, had he been invalided he would have been eligible for a terminal grant, a gratuity equal to nine tenths of the terminal grant to which he would have been entitled on the day of his death.

(ii) If, had he been invalided on the day he died, he was not eligible for a terminal grant, his widow may be paid a gratuity in accordance with the following scale:—

Less than 4 years' service ...	100
4 " " ...	120
5 " " ...	140
6 " " ...	160
7 " " ...	180
8 " " ...	200
9 " " ...	220
10 " " ...	240
11 " " ...	260

Thence by increments of £20 for each additional year of service which would have been reckoned for service gratuity.

" 25. Where, had the officer or seaman or marine been invalided, an adjustment would have been due from his award in respect of gratuity or other non-effective payment previously received by him, an abatement may be made on that account in assessing the gratuity payable under Clause 23 or 24.

" 26. Where the officer or seaman or marine did not leave a widow but a child or children (as defined in Clause 20, and fulfilling the conditions of that Clause), the Admiralty may at its discretion award a gratuity to the child or children or to any of them. The total award shall not exceed that which would have been payable to a widow and the award to any one child shall not exceed one third of that amount.

" 27. Where the officer or seaman or marine leave a widow and in addition a child or children (as defined in Clause 20 and fulfilling the conditions of that Clause), who are not living with or supported by her, the Admiralty may divert a sum of not more than one third of the gratuity which would normally be payable to the widow for the benefit of all or any of such children.

" 28. Where a woman member dies in circumstances in which the child of a male member would have been granted a gratuity under Clause 26 above and leaves a child or children (as defined in Clause 20 and fulfilling the conditions of that Clause) the Admiralty may award a gratuity for the benefit of the child or children of such amount as it may determine.

" 29. Gratuities in respect of children may be issued to the widow or mother of the child, or other person responsible for the child's maintenance, or to the child direct, as may be decided. They may where appropriate be issued in instalments, or withheld for later payment.

" 30. Gratuities under this Section shall not be subject to abatement in respect of any Naval debt due from the deceased officer or seaman or marine, other than any abatement due under Clause 25."

Her Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

W. G. Agnew.
