Kensington, June 1.

THE Two following Addresses were presented to Her Majesty by Hugo Boscawen Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the County of Cornwall.

To our most Serene and August Sovereign, ANNE, Queen of Great Britain, &c.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Town-Clerk, Burgesses, and other Principal Inhabitants, of the Town of Falmouth, in the County of Cornwall.

May it please Your Sacred Majesty, to permit us, Your Majesty's most dutiful and true Subjects, (though later than most) with no less Loyalty and true Sense of the innumerable Blessings we enjoy under Your most auspicious and benign Government, humbly to congratulate on what we hope will most especially continue to the Completion of the Happiness of this our illustrious Isle of Great Britain, (viz.) the Union of its Nations and Kingdoms. Your Majesty's Royal A. restur of ever blessed Memory, King James the first, had a pious Desire and seeming Prophecy of its Accomplishment, when he chose for his Motto the Prediction of the Prophet Ezekiel, concerning the Incorporation of Israel with Judah: But now, after an Hundred Years of true Endeavour, we see it as joyfully as wonderfully fulfilled: we behold (as in that Prophecy) the dry Bones as if to revive, and the Two Sticks to conjoin with a redoubled Glory and Strength; and beg Leave to proclaim to the World (and all other good Subjects) our hearty Wishes and Prayers; and hope, that (as 'tis in the Sequel of that Prophecy) so in this happy Accomplishment, the final Result will be triumphantly great and glorious, (the late Successes of Your Majesty's and high Allies Arms confirming us therein;) That the Kingdom of Christ shall thereby be exalted, the Malice of Gog frustrated, and all his Armies; with that of Magog defeated, whilst our literal is gathered by Gods everlasting Favour and Protection.

To the QUEEN'S most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Justice, Aldermen, Assistants, and other Inhabitants, of Your Majesty's Town of Penzance, in the County of Cornwall.

May it please Your Majesty,

THE quickest Sense of Duty and Gratitude move us to acknowledge the invaluable Blessings of Your Majesty's auspicious Reign over us: And when we see one happy Year bring forth what a Century attempted in vain, permit us (O dread Sovereign) what a Century attempted in vain, permit us (O dread Sovereign) to approach Your Sacred Person with our Congratulations upon this long desired Occasion, the happy Union of Your Two Kingdoms; a Work peculiarly referred by Providence to complete Your other glorious Achievements.

We humbly and heartily pray, That Your flourishing Reign may be very long; and that nothing may be wanting to make You the happiest, as you deserveably You are the most beloved, Monarch on Earth.

The humble Address of the Mayor, High Steward, Representatives in Parliament, Recorder, Aldermen, Town-Clerk and Approved Men, of Her Majesty's ancient Town of Guildford, in the County of Surrey: Presented to Her Majesty by Mr. Fulzain, Recorder of the said Town; introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Sunderland, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

To the QUEEN'S most Excellent Majesty,

WE Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, glad of all Opportunities to make our grateful Acknowledgments for the many distinguishing Blessings we enjoy under Your Administration, beg Leave to congratulate Your Majesty upon the late happy Conclusion of an Union between Your Kingdoms of England and Scotland.

Princes in former Ages extended their Ambition to Victories and Triumphs: 'Tis Your Majesty's greater Glory to employ Your Victorious Arms, not only to preserve the established Religion and Government of Great Britain, but the Protestant Interest and Balance of Power in Europe.

We are so sensible of the great Advantages we enjoy under Your Majesty's wise Administration, that we take this Occasion to present Your most Excellent Majesty, with our Assurances to continue our utmost Endeavours to make effectual all the Advantages proposed to Great Britain by the Union of England and Scotland: And to pray for Your long and happy Reign over us.

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Deputy-Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace and Grand Jury, assembled at the General Quarter-Sessions of the Peace, held for the County of Northampton, at the Town of Northampton, the 22^d of April, 1707. and of the Clergy, Gentlemen, and other Freeholders, of the said County: Presented to Her Majesty by Sir Richard Newman, High Sheriff of the said County; introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Lord High Treasurer.

To the QUEEN'S most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE at this time beg Leave to approach Your Majesty with our unexpressible Sense of Gratitude for Your great Care and Wisdom, in bringing to pass the so long desired Union of Your Two Kingdoms of England and Scotland; by which we have taken from the common Enemy the ancient Way of disturbing the Peace and Tranquility of this Island, and effectually establish'd the Crown in the Protestant Line: and we question not, but by Your Majesty's tender Regard to all Your Subjects, Rome itself will be convinc'd, that it is no longer in her Power, under pretence of Religion, fatally to divide, for her Service, the Protestants of Great Britain; and that the Minds and Affections of Your People will be for ever hereafter united.

What Impression this will make in the all Reformed Churches abroad need not be mentioned, since the whole World must know it places Your Majesty at the Head of them, as well as fixes You firmly in their Hearts.

That Almighty God will continue to Your Majesty his accustomed-Blessings of Prosperity at home, Victory over Your Enemies abroad, and a long Reign over us, are the Prayers of, &c.

The humble Address of the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, and Clergy, of the Diocese of Exeter: Presented to Her Majesty by the Rt. Rev. Father in God, Jonathan Lord Bishop of Exeter; introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Lord High Treasurer.

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty,

May it please Your Most Sacred Majesty,

THE Happy Union of the Kingdoms of England and Scotland, so long the earnest Wish and fruitless Attempt of former Reigns, is now with real Joy acknowledged by Your People the Strength and Glory of Your Majesty.

We adore the good Providence of Almighty God, in giving this eminent Success to the Wisdom of Your Councils, and to the Steadiness and Conduct of Your Ministers in so great a Work; without which the Honourable Peace, for which Your Majesty contends abroad with so much Glory and Prosperity, would have been at home, in all humane Appearance, to Your Divided Subjects, at best, an Unsecure, and therefore very Doubtful Blessing.

And as we humbly beg Leave to congratulate this Prosperous Effect of Your Majesty's Unwearied Vigilance and Care for the Present and Future Happiness of all Your Subjects; so we presume to assure Your Majesty of our Exact Obedience to Your Royal Commands, in endeavouring sincerely to promote that Union of Affections which You have had the Goodness to recommend to all Orders and Degrees of Men amongst us, as the needful Cement to this mighty Structure, and which we take to be, especially, the peculiar and proper Duty of Men in that Rank which we hold in the Church, under Your most Gracious Majesty's sacred Protection and Supremacy.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonality, of Your Majesty's ever loyal Corporation of Penzance in Cornwall: Presented to Her Majesty by the Rt. Hon. the Lord High Treasurer.

To the QUEEN'S most Excellent Majesty,

Permit us, Most Gracious Sovereign, from the Lands, End of Great Britain, and from the Entrails of our Hearts, amidst the Throng of Addresses already laid at Your Royal Feet, to congratulate Your Majesty on the UNION of Your Two Kingdoms; a Work, so difficult in its Nature, so long desired, often in vain attempted, and at last so happily concluded.

The Remoteness of our Situation from the Royal Person of a Queen, so good to Her People, so bountiful to our Country in general, and so provident in a most particular manner for our Preservation, amidst the Fears and Injuries we daily lay under from the common Enemy, must plead our Excuse for being so late in expressing the entire Satisfaction we enjoy in this and every good Work that adorns Your Majesty's glorious Reign over us: We esteem it no small Happiness to find so many of our Cornish Members concurrent in so good a Work; we are no less happy that our Country can boast it self in furnishing the best Manager of Your Majesty's and the Nations Treasure that Old England ever had, or Great Britain can produce.

We shall always rejoice in every Opportunity of expressing our Gratitude to Your Majesty; we shall continue ever Loyal to Your Service, firmly adhere to the Church of England as by Law established; pray for Your Majesty's long and prosperous Reign over us; and not only avoid, but oppose, all Heats and Animosities, which may divide or weaken Your Great Monarchy, and the Interest of Your People.

In Testimony whereof we have caused our Common Seal to be hereto affixed, and have hereto set our Hands the 22d Day of May, in the Sixth Year of Your Majesty's Reign.

The humble Address of the Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Commonalty, of Her Majesty's Ancient and Loyal Corporation of the Borough of Ipswich in the County of Suffolk: Presented to Her Majesty by William Thomson Esq; Recorder of the said Borough: Introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Lord High Treasurer.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

Having great Reason to be sensible that Your Majesty takes Delight in doing Good to Your Subjects, we humbly presume, that a Dutiful Expression of their Gratitude for Your affectionate Care of them, will not be unacceptable.

Therefore we take Leave herein to offer our most humble Acknowledgments for the many remarkable Instances of Your Regard to our Welfare and Happiness, particularly that of Uniting Your Kingdoms of England and Scotland. And as we enjoy the Benefits of that, with other Blessings, so our Felicity excites Your Majesty to our utmost Endeavours for the Continuance of Your Prosperity and Glory.

The most humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, Aldermen, Capital Burgesses, Governor, Assistants, Common-Council, and other free Inhabitants; within the Borough of Dorchester: Presented to Her Majesty by Amsham Churchill Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament: introduced by his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, Lord Privy-Seal, and High Steward of that Borough.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

The late Happy Union between Your Majesty's Kingdoms of England and Scotland, (often unsuccessfully attempted by Your Royal Predecessors) now gloriously accomplished in Your Majesty's Auspicious Reign, gives just Occasion, and animates us sincerely and unanimously to Congratulate Your Majesty's unparalleled Prudence and Conduct: The effecting of which great Work carries therewith such an advantageous Importance to both Nations, and consequently must baffle and confound the Intrigues from France, in former Reigns too frequent put in Practice.

For a further Manifestation of Gratitude, (diffused in our Spirits by this Conjunction) it's our Wish, that Your Majesty's Fleets and Armies may be always Victorious and formidable, to reduce and break the insulting Measures of Your Majesty's Enemies: And that Your Majesty's Reign over us may be Long and Prosperous, for Security of the Protestant Religion, and Liberties of this United Island of Great Britain. Given under our Hands the 26th Day of May, in the Sixth Year of Your Majesty's Reign.

The humble Address of the Bailiff and Burgesses, of Your Majesty's ancient Borough of Alborough, in the County of York: Presented to Her Majesty by Robert Muckton and William Jessopp Esq; their Representatives in Parliament: Introduced by his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, Lord Privy-Seal.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

The wonderful and surprising Effects which continually flow from Your Majesty's great Wisdom and Goodness, give us every Day fresh Occasions of Congratulation and Joy. We are oblig'd to the Pursuing of that Union which hath been so often attempted in vain by Your Majesty's Predecessors; which great Work, and the Step You have put by Your Arms to that Torrent of Tyranny and Oppression, which as well threatened the Liberties of Your People at home, as those of the rest of Europe, are such Instances of Your prudent Foresight and Care in preventing and obviating of all Inconveniences that may happen to Your Subjects, or even to their Posterity; of Your tender Regard for their Welfare and Happiness, and of the Ability, Integrity and Diligence, of Your well chosen Ministry, as no History can parallel; and then that that peculiar Felicity hath been reserved for Your Majesty, which the most Powerful and Wise of Princes have not hitherto been able to attain to, to place Your chief Satisfaction in exerting Your Wisdom and Power for the Good of Mankind, and not for their Oppression. This, Madam, hath crown'd all the rest of Your Royal Virtues, and will establish an indelible Veneration for Your Great Name, in the Hearts and Minds of all wise and good Men in this present and all Ages to come.

That Your Majesty may long continue a Blessing to the World, and to Your People, is the Prayer of Your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Jurats, Common-Council, Freemen, and Inhabitants, of the Corporation of Gravesend and Milton in the County of Kent: Presented to Her Majesty by the Hon. Lieutenant-General Chelmswoldy, Governor of Gravesend and Tilbury-Fort.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

May it please Your Majesty,

The many signal Blessings which we and all Your Subjects enjoy, under Your Majesty's most Gracious Government, are of so distinguishing a Nature, that they cannot but justly challenge from us a more than common Acknowledgment. We have already had frequent Occasions to bless and adore the Divine Providence that has plac'd Your Majesty on the Throne of Your Ancestors, and has so often crown'd with Success and Victory those Arms which Your Majesty has employ'd Abroad for the Safety and Welfare of Europe, under the Conduct of Your great General the Duke of Marlborough. And we have now a just Occasion given us to throw our selves at Your Majesty's Feet, and humbly to Congratulate Your Majesty on the wonderful Accomplishment of the Union of Your Two Ancient Kingdoms of England and Scotland: A Work so often in vain attempt'd by Your Royal Predecessors, but reserved by Providence to be perfected in Your Majesty's most Glorious Reign.

May the same Almighty Providence long continue to protect Your Sacred Life, with that of Your Royal Consort the Princess Denmark; to bless and preserve Your Government at Home; prosper Your Arms Abroad; and thereby to make You the glorious Instrument of establishing a Safe, an Honourable, and Lasting Peace throughout all Europe.

The humble Address of Her Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Constable, Headboroughs, and others, of the ancient Borough of Steyning in the County of Sussex: Presented to Her Majesty by William Wallis Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament: Introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Hertford, Lord-Lieutenant of the said County.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

We Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Constable, Headboroughs, and others, of Your ancient Borough of Steyning, in the County of Sussex, being very sensible, that the many Blessings we have received with the rest of our Fellow Subjects, under the Auspicious Reign of Your most Excellent Majesty, are, under God, all owing to Your most Wise and Prudent Government, and the Faithful Discharge of Your Ministry.

Blessings without Example, but the Happy Union of England and Scotland: A Work of that Nature, altho' for many Years endeavour'd by Your Royal Predecessors, yet never could be perfected but by Your Majesty.

And as Your Majesty has completed the Happy Union of the Two Nations, so it shall be our constant Endeavours to Union amongst our selves; which, under God and Your Sacred Majesty, will make Great-Britain Happy: The vain Hopes, as to the Succession, from Dissatisfied Persons, being now vanish'd.

And as Your Majesty's Arms has been, beyond Example, successful, under the Valour and Conduct of Your great General the Duke of Marlborough; may Providence always have Your Sacred Person, Them, and Your Fleets, under His Protection, so they may return with a firm and Lasting Peace, to the Glory of Your Majesty, and the Happiness of Your People.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Common-Council, and Burgesses, of the Borough of Great Grimsby: Presented to Her Majesty by Arthur Mear and William Coatesworth Esq; their Representatives in Parliament.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

Amongst the rest of Your Dutiful Subjects, we, the Mayor, Aldermen, Common-Council, and Burgesses, of Your Majesty's ancient Borough of Great Grimsby in the County of Lincoln, crave Leave, with the deepest Sense of Joy and Gratitude, to Congratulate Your Majesty upon a Blessing reserved by Providence to Your Fortunate Reign; of having United Your Two Kingdoms of England and Scotland; with which Noble Design the Great-Greatfather began the last Century, as Your Majesty did begin the present: But what that Prince was not able to express during a profound Peace, Your Majesty's high Wisdom can

May Your Majesty long reign Queen of Great Britain, and may You always be served by such Wise and Faithful Ministers as You now are: May Your Treasure be as well managed, and Your Armies as well conducted: So shall we, amongst the rest of Your Subjects, be the Happiest People.

The humble Address of the Deputy-Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, and others, Freeholders of the County of Breton: Presented to Your Majesty by the Hon. Major Ashburnham, in the Absence of the Rt. Hon. John Lord Ashburnham, Custos Rotulorum of the said County.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

MADAM,
WE cannot remain in Silence any longer, though we still want Words to express the Joys we feel in the Greatness of Your Majesty, and to describe our ardent Wishes for the Continuation and daily Increase of it.

We acknowledge our Happiness under the Protection of the most Powerful and Best of Queens. Your Wisdom has found Means to unite Your People of Great Britain at home. Your Councils and Your Arms are settling with Success the Safety and Liberties of Europe.

Blessings and Glories like these seem to have been reserved for Your Majesty's Reign only, as a Reward of that Pious and Virtue that have always shone so eminently bright in Your Sacred Person.

Permit us then, most Gracious Sovereign, most humbly and dutifully to congratulate Your Majesty's Successes and Glory in all Your Affairs and Actions, and to lay at Your Royal Feet our sincerest Praises and best Services; beseeching the Almighty to grant unto Your Majesty Length of Days in perfect Health, as the most sensible Blessing and Happiness of all Your People.

The humble Address of the Portreeve and Chief Inhabitants of Her Majesty's ancient Borough of Ashburton in the County of Devon, has also been presented to Her Majesty.

To the most Excellent Majesty of A N N E, by the Grace of GOD, Queen of Great Britain, France, and Ireland, our most Gracious and Dread Sovereign.

WE acknowledge our selves, most Mighty Princess, unable to celebrate, as we ought, the marvellous and stupendous Productions of Your Majesty's most Glorious Reign, which we behold with Wonder and Astonishment: But nothing so much as the surprising and most happy Event of Your Majesty's unwearied Endeavours to Unite this Your Remov'd (but still now divided) Island of Great Britain. Who, but Your Majesty, would have been discouraged from encountering the Difficulties which had frustrated all former Attempts? What Wisdom, and that of Your Majesty's, could have made such a Choice of Able and Faithful Instruments, to contrive and conduct to a Happy Issue such an Important Affair? And what Prince ever before sat on Your Royal Throne that equal'd Your Majesty, in making Merit the only distinguishing Mark of advancing any to the Publick Service? 'Tis to this we owe, most Dread Sovereign, (under GOD) this great and wonderful Blessing of our happy Union, and the many others we enjoy under Your Majesty's most auspicious and unparall'd Government: For which we most humbly offer, with the utmost Gratitude, all that we are, and all that we have, as a just Tribute from the most Dutiful and Obedient Subjects to the Greatest and Best of QUEENS. Dated and Signed in Ashburton the 13th of May, 1707.

All which Addresses Her Majesty received very graciously.

Constantinople, March 12. N. S. The Tartars are very uncertain under a Peace, which restrains 'em from making Incursions into Muscovy or Poland. They have some Years en-deavour'd, by all manner of Artifices, to alarm the Port with Jealousies against the Muscovites, and engage them to a Rupture with that Nation. The Tartar Han lately sent hither his first Minister for that Purpose, but his Intinuations had no other Effect than the deposing of his Master; the Port having sent the Emperor's first Master of the Horse with a Commission for a new Cham. However these Importuni-ties have awaken'd the Turks, and put them upon fortifying their Frontiers. They last Year finished the Cattle or Kerh, which commands the Passage of the Streights of Crimea into the Black Sea; and began the Fortification of Bender, situate on the Mouth of the River Nieiter, which they now continue; and for that Purpose Four Frigars are already sail'd thither with Provisions, Artillery, Arms, and Ammunition. The Princes of Wallachia and Moldavia were or-der'd thither, with 2000 Men each, to work at the Fortifications; but they have ransom'd themselves from that Service.
Besides this Provision for the Security of the Confines, the chief Application of the Ministers has been of late to bring the Finances into good Order; which Oeconomy has made them able to supply their Magazines, and recruit their Soldiers as often as is requisite, and has given Occasion to some Jealousies that the Port is inclined to make a Diversien in Hungary in favour of France; tho' we have all possible Afsurances that there is not the least Ground for any such Suspicion.

The French Ambassador often remits Money, by way of Belgarde or Wallachia, into Hungary; but it is observed that the Sums are neither so frequent or large as heretofore.

The Captain Pasha will go this Summer with the Gal-lies and the greatest Part of the Ships into the Archipelago and the Mediterranean, to keep those Seas clear of the Maltese, and gather the usual Tribute from that Island.

Barcelona, May 3. N. S. The King labours with great Application at the retrieving of his late Losses in Valentia. He is drawing together all the Force he is able to put a Stop to the Enemy, and hinder any Interruption into Catalonia. There are in this Country 8 Battalions of his Majesty's Regular Troops, and above 2000 Horse, besides six English Battalions and 3 Dutch, that were not in the late Action. These, in Conjunction with the Recruits from Lisbon, and the Forces under the Lord Galway, will form above 20 Battalions of Regular Troops, and about 6000 Horse; which, with the Militia of Catalonia, that is numerous, and well disciplin'd, may be able to keep the Enemy at a stand till the arrival of fresh Reinforcements. It is said, we are to assemble on the Banks of the Ebro, in order to entrench there, and oppose the Passage of the Enemy over that River.

Lisbon, June 1. N. S. His Portuguese Majesty, notwithstanding the late ill Success of his Troops in Spain, and the Solicitations of the Enemy, has been pleas'd to give Assurances to the Minister of the Queen of Great Britain of his Resolution to continue firm in the Alliance, and to act with Vigour for the good of the common Cause. The Duke of Ossuna having got together a small Body of Troops, most of them drawn out of the Garisons of Cadiz and Port St. Mary, has laid Siege to Serpa, an inconsiderable Town on the Frontiers of the Algarve, which, we hear, after a Siege of eight Days, is on the point of capitulating.
The Young Marquis da Minas is thereupon order'd to return from Beira into Alentejo with the Forces under his Command, consisting of 2000 Foot and 1000 Horse, and, according to our last Advices, has repass'd the River Tagus, with a Design to continue his March towards the Enemy.

Copenhagen, May 28. Count Reventlau, who was in the Emperor's Service in Italy, was admitted last Wednesday into the honourable Order of the Elephant, receiving the Blew Ribon from the King's own Hand.
Our Muscovite Ambassador's Brother, who was taken by a Swedish Party on his way from Berlin to Poland, and suppos'd to be releas'd, is still in Custody.

Berlin, May 28. We have received Letters this Evening of the 25th from Breslaw, which say, The Muscovites who were on the Rhine were marching with all possible Expedition through Bohemia and Moravia; and it is thought they may be at present not far from Cracow. Their Marches are made with so much Secrecy, that they move only in the Night.
Some of the Emperor's Ministers at Breslaw having had notice, That Monsieur Bonac was sending ten large Waggons from Dantzick to Hungary, laden with Arms and Ammunition, and guarded by 40 Men, gave Advice of it to the Muscovite General Rheen, who, according to their Desire, had the Waggons seiz'd near Thorn, distributed the Arms among his Troops, and threatened to hang the Wagoners for having counterfeit'd Muscovite Passes.

From the Duke of Marlborough's Camp at Meldert, June 6. On the 3d Instant the Count de Goes, his Imperial Majesty's Minister at the Hague, came hither to confer with my Lord Duke of Marlborough upon the present Situation of Affairs, and in the Evening went back to Louvain, in order to return to to the Hague. The same Day Lieutenant-General Fagel was ordered into Flanders, where he is to command a Body of 12 Battalions, to be drawn from the neighbouring Garisons, in order to observe the Enemy, and oppose any Attempt they may make on that side. Our Army is still encamp'd on the Plains of Meldert, where the heavy Bagage join'd us on Friday.
The French continue likewise in the Camp of Gemblours, with the little River Orneau before them, having

ving only made a motion to extend their Right nearer to Perwez.

Hague, June 7. N. S. Letters from Francfort inform us, That the Marquis de Villars had entered into Wirtemberg, and was on his March to Stuttgart. The Germans are rearer'd behind the Neckar, and are gathering what Reinforcements they can to hinder the further Progress of the Enemy into the Empire. Yesterday the States General invited the German Ministers to a Conference, wherein they pressed them very earnestly to desire of their respective Masters, that they would take timely and effectual Measures to obviate the Dangers which threaten'd their Country. This Morning an Envoy from the Republick of Genoa arriv'd here on his way to England. They write from the Duke of Marlborough's Army, That it hath been join'd by a Regiment of Horse, and 2 or 3 Battalions, which are arriv'd there from the Bishoprick of Munster. The Enemy defect in such Numbers, that above 1000 have desist'd Pass'd for Brussels, besides those that have taken other Roads, or have lifted themselves in the Service of the Allies. Advices from Paris say, The Duke of Orleans had entred Saragossa without Opposition; the Forces that were in Garrison there retreating upon his Approach.

Whitchael, June 1. By a Packet-Boat arriv'd from the West Indies, we hear that all things were quiet in those Parts. They write from Antegoa of March 29. That their Apprehensions of being attack'd by the French were over; and that the 18 Sail of Ships which had been seen by the Packet-Boat, according to the best Advice they could get of them, were Dutch Ships bound for Surinam. We hear from Jamaica, That Her Majesty's Ship the Dunkirk Prize had brought in within a Spanish Prize of considerable Value; and that one of our Privateers had taken a French Ship of 300 Tuns, laden with Wine, Brandy, and Dry Goods.

St. James's, June 1. Colonel Wade is arriv'd Express from the Lord Galway, with a particular Relation of the Battle of Almanza, which will be suddenly published.

The Master, Wardens, and Apprentices, of the Trinity-House of London, give Notice to all Masters and Pilots of Ships, Trading to and from the Northward, That, for the Good of Navigation they have lately erected on Turnmouth Peer a Beacon painted White, of 64 Foot high; which said Beacon being in one with Gullston New Steeple, and the South Peer Head, 103, bear North-West and South-East one of the other: The Marks just standing in one, leads you Two Cables Length to the Northward of the Bay of Gorton Sand. As to the Breadth of the Channel, it is a large Half Mile to the North-East, betwixt the Bay of Gorton Sand and the South Head of St. Nicholas.

By the Principal Commissioners for Prizes.

On Wednesday the 25th Instant will be expos'd to Publick Sale by the Comd' at Salers Hall in St. Swithen's Lane, London, the Ship St. Mark, burthen 100 Tuns more or less, lower'd to 190 u.
