HONOURS AND AWARDS

CENTRAL CHANCERY OF THE ORDERS OF KNIGHTHOOD

St. James's Palace, London S.W.1.

7th August 1964.

The QUEEN has been graciously pleased on the advice of Her Majesty's Australian Ministers, to give orders for the undermentioned award of the British Empire Medal.

Awarded the British Empire Medal for Gallantry, (Civil Division):

John Baden WILLIAMS, Guide, Alice Springs.

An elderly man climbed to the top of Ayers Rock at Alice Springs but on the way down he slipped and fell to a ledge 600 feet above ground where he was unable to ascend or descend. Williams and another man climbed to a spot about 150 feet above the ledge. Williams climbed down to within about 30 feet of the trapped man and managed to throw him a rope. Williams then gradually pulled the man to safety. Williams completely disregarded the danger to himself while effecting the rescue. He had attached one end of the rope to his arm and the slightest slip would have plunged both men over the edge to their death.
