Like Java 28. N. S. We want 5 Mails from England; shown on the Irid On the Fleet, or my Lord Galway, Noon, at the Irid On the Fleet, or my Lord Galway, Noon, at the Irid On the Fleet, or my Lord Galway, Noon, at the Irid On the Fleet, or my Lord Galway, Noon, at the Irid On the Fleet, or my Lord Galway, Irid Care, and Irid Chang, and Irid Chan

Candidate. This Affair cannot be suddenly dispatch'd. In the mean time the City is likely to reap very considerable Advantages from so great and wealthy Competitors, contending in Expence and Magnificence to recommend themselves to that Sovereignty. Our Letters from Turin of the 25th of the last Month say. That all the Troops were on their March: The Prince of Hesse, with his Body, was going towards Nice; Prince Eugene was to follow him the next Day, and his Royal Highness himself in two or three Days after. If we may believe the Reports that are lately spread among us, their Design is no less than the Siege of Toulon.

Copenhagen, July 9. The Emperor's Resident finding no Hope of succeeding in the Demand he had made of This Affair cannot be fuddenly dispatch'd. In no Hope of succeeding in the Demand he had made of Troops for the Army on the Upper Rhine, has chang'd that Proposal into a Request, for a like Number to re-Cruit his Majesty's own Troops, which are at present in Bavaria in the Emperor's Service. His Majesty is wholly recovered, and will appear in publick within few Days. To morrow being the Czar of Muscovy's Birth Day, his Ambassador designs to celebrate it with great Magnificence, at a Country-House of his Excellency's near Frederichberg.

The Minister of his Electoral High-Berlin, July 9. ness of Hanover has fignified to his Prussian Majesty, That, in Compliance with the pressing Instances of Her Britannick Majesty, the Emperor, States General, the Elector of Mentz, the Elector Palatine, and other Potentates, his Master is at last inclin'd to accept the Command of the Imperial Forces; but that his Electoral Highness expects the Report of Two experienced Officers, whom he has fent to the Army, before he absolutely declares himself. These Persons are to bring an exact Account of the State of the Troops, by which his Electoral Highness will be better able to judge of what more may be necessary to demand of the several Princes, to support him in his Undertakings for their Common Interest. His Electoral Highness desires his Prussian Majesty to exert himself on this Occasion, according to his great Power and known Zeal for the General Caufe. His Majesty has writ to the Elector with his own Hand, to congratulate his taking upon him a Command which may fo much redound to the Glory of his Electoral Highness, and the Advantage of the Our Letters from Lublin of the 26th of June mention frequent and abrupt Adjournments of the Council. They make the Czar's Neglect of their former Propositions a Pretext for their being less attentive to his Czarish Majesty's present Instances. The Dalaish and Profiles Provents as also a Minister from Prince nish and Prussian Envoys, as also a Minister from Prince Ragotski, were arrived there. Letters from Warfaw say, That General Henskens was marching towards Great Poland with a Body of 5000 Muscovires. Monfieur Dupuy, who was formerly Agent for this Court at Berne, is put in Arrest; and 'tis suppos'd for some Failure in his Conduct, with relation to the Principality of Neufchatel.

Paris, July 8. Though the People are under a general over Frontiers are alarm'd neral Dissatisfaction, and our Frontiers are alarm'd with the Approach of a powerful Enemy, the Affairs of the Treasury are in so great Disorder, that the King, even in this unseasonable Conjuncture, is forced to a new Declaration concerning the Money-Biks. The urging a Project which by fo many repeated Trials hath proved ineffectual, convinces us, that the publick Exigences are without a Remedy. Letters from the Marshal de Tesse encrease our Apprehensions for Toulon. He says the Enemy in a manner acknowledge their Design upon that Place, by openly declaring they are to act in Conjunction with the Fleet, and make a Discent on some Part of Provence. It is said, that if there be an indespensible Occasion, the Marshal de Noailles is to bring 8000 Men out of
