Windsor, August 16.

THE humble Address of the Bishop, Dean, Chapter, and Clergy, of the Diocese of Salisbury: Presented to Her Majesty by his Grace the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

It is the peculiar Glory of Your Majesty's Reign, that Your Faithful Subjects have every Tear new Occasions given them to appear before You, with Hearts full of Joy, congratulating the great Blessings which God pours down on Your Majesty, and on Your Councils, with such singular Characters of His Favour and Protection, that both Your Majesty and Your People, made happy by Your Means, are become the Wonder of the World.

The great Work of the Union of the whole Island, so often attempted with so little Success, is now finished and settled by Your Majesty's tender Care and wise Management; so that, as our Church is with a just Gratitude acknowledged by the Representatives of all Your Subjects, both Spiritual and Temporal, to be in a safe and flourishing Condition under Your Majesty's Administration, we may now, upon this great Occasion, affirm the same of the State, when we see this noble Foundation laid for the Security of the present and future Ages.

We promise to Your Majesty, That we will endeavour all that lies in us, by a Friendly and Brotherly Correspondence with all in the united Kingdom, to cultivate what is now so well begun, and to give us a Prospect of great Things to follow in the Ages to come; which will celebrate the Memory of our Great Queen, as the Original and Foundress of a New Empire.

My God still continue to us these great Blessings which we enjoy under Your Majesty; and may You reign long and happily ever. We will ever renew these Your Prayers to Almighty God, and will live in all Duty and Loyalty towards Your Majesty, in Opposition to all Your Enemies both at home and abroad.

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Custos Rotulorum, Justices of the Peace, Deputy Licutenants, and other Gentlemen and Freeholders, of the County of Anglesey; and of the Mayor, Recorder, Bayliffs, and Burgesses, of the ancient Borough of Beaumaris, in the said County: Presented to Her Majesty by the Hon. Lieutenant General Chokinsdaley, (in the Absence of the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Chokinsdaley, Lord Lieutenant of North-Wales;) introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Lord High Treasurer.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

May it please Your Majesty,

THE glorious Successes of Your Majesty's Arms abroad have hitherto been the customary Theme of our Addresses to Your Majesty: Nor do we at all doubt, by the Blessing of God, ere long, to witness the same Success; only in this (we hope but) short Interval of these victorious Successes, we humbly beg Leave to entertain Your Majesty with a brief Mention of other Conquests made by Your Subjects, not over their Enemies but themselves, by really succeeding, in Obedience to Your Majesty, those violent and hereditary Reluctances which for so many Ages effectually had, and, without Your Majesty's irresistible Influence, for ever might have, obstructed the Union of Great Britain. And, now the great Work is done, That it may be fruitful of all those happy Effects proposed by it, and that Your Majesty may long live to reap the Glory and Satisfaction of them, is the earnest and incessant Prayer of Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Town-Clerk, Brethren, Capital Burgesses, and other Burgesses and Inhabitants, of Her Majesty's ancient Borough of Derby, in the County of Derby: Presented to Her Majesty by the Rt. Hon. the Lord James Cavendish, one of their Representatives in Parliament.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

May it please Your Majesty,

WE Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, presume formerly to lay before Your Majesty the grateful Sense we had of Your gracious Design to unite the divided Parts of Great Britain into one Kingdom; and humbly declare our hearty Wishes for perfecting that mighty Work: We have since had the Happiness to see the Accomplishment of our Wishes, and the Pleasure to observe the rest of our Fellow Subjects to have the like just Sense of so great a Blessing, in the universal Joy, and remarkable Unanimity, with which they have offer'd Your Majesty their Thanks on this glorious Occasion.

To have rescued Europe, and united Britain; to have made Your People's Happiness Your Aim, and to have surely attained what You piously design; will give Your Annals a particular Lustre with all Posterity. May it be the Endeavour of all Your Majesty's Subjects, as it shall be ever ours, by a distinguishing Gratitude and ready Obedience, to ease in some Measure the Weight of Affairs You suppose for the Common Good: May Your Majesty's Happiness rise proportionably as You have rais'd ours: And may God long preserve Your Majesty, the Joy, the Glory and Security, of Great Britain, and the Protection of the Liberty of Mankind.

Which Addresses Her Majesty received very graciously.

Leipsick, August 10. N.S. Since the Arrival of Count Wratisslaw there have been very frequent Conferences between the Ministers employed in the Mediation and those of Sweden, in order to find out Expedients for composing the Differences between the Imperial and Swedish Courts. King Stanislaus interposes in this Affair with as much Application as if his Crown depended on the Success of their Councils. But the Ministers of Sweden in the last Debate on that Subject made certain Demands, which the Mediators cannot answer till they receive new Instructions. In the mean time the 4 Swedish Regiments remain in Silesia, though Count Wratisslaw insists upon their being immediately recalled. The Time when the Swedes will march out of this Country is still undetermined: But we are assured their Field-Marshal Reinschild has received Orders from the King his Master to be in a readiness the latter End of this Week to march at the Head of a very great Detachment. On Saturday last the University of this City held a publick Act in Honour of the Queen of Great Britain, on Occasion of the happy Union of England and Scotland. All the Foreign Ministers were invited to be of the Audience. The Ceremony opened with a Consort of Musick: After which the Professor Menhemius, who is a Member of the Royal Society in England, introduced the Performances, which were to follow with an elegant Oration. The Exercises were performed with much Grace and Order. Mr. Robinson, the British Envoy, made his Compliments to the Society for so remarkable an Instance of their Veneration and Respect for Her Majesty; and after the whole Ceremony was concluded entertained the Foreign Ministers, the chief Members of the University and City, with several other Persons of Distinction, in a very splendid Manner.

Copenhagen, August 13. Letters from Schonern bring Advice, That the Swedish Detachments, one of 3000 Men, designed for Finland, and the other of the same Number, for Germany, were ready to be transported. The Emperor's Resident received yesterday a final Answer, That his Danish Majesty could not give the Holstein-Contingent, till the States of the Circle of Lower Saxony were assembled, and that Matter determined in its proper Method: But that Minister was at the same time told by the Ministers, That the King of Denmark having not paid the Sums due for his Oldenburg-Contingent for these two or three Years last past, his Majesty was willing those Sums, which amount to about 70000 Crowns, should be immediately deducted out of the Payment of Subsidies due to him from the Emperor.
