

Labia one of the Gentlemen employ'd by the Senate for the distributing their Presents, which is deposited in the Church at Rimini till Order can be taken to bring it home to receive an entertainment suitable to his quality.

A considerable part of the remains of our Garrison of Candia is yet at Zante, where they expect the farther commands of the Senate, who have sometime since sent thither their Letters of thanks to the Captain General for all the excellent services performed by him during the late wars; ordering him in their name to acknowledge particularly the satisfaction they received in the faithful and prudent service of Colonel Annand, commonly called by them Arnardi or Arnandi, an English Officer, who had served them during the whole Siege of Candia, where he some time commanded a Regiment, giving many testimonies of his valour in the defence of the place, and of his prudence and address at the close of that long Siege, he being a person who with a Secretary which attended him was alone entrusted with the management of the Treaty for peace and the surrender of the place; and obtained those honourable Articles when the Garrison was no longer able to make resistance.

General Barbaro who some time since put to sea intending for Dalmatia, where he is to command in the room of General Priuli, the time of whose Government is expired, is safely arrived at Zars, whose welcome was there loudly proclaimed with the discharge of all their Artillery, all the Horse were upon his arrival drawn out to attend him into the Town, and the Foot placed in their best Order upon the walls, entertained him with the peals and volleys of shot: The winter being so far advanced, he intends to defer his progress till the Spring for the visiting of the several Towns and Fortifications of his New Government, contenting himself in the mean time to send his Commissary to take a view of the forces of that Province, and to distribute the Moneys which he brought over with him for their pay.

Signior Andrea Vallier, Proveditor of the 3 Islands, is suddenly expected home. This Republick putting an end to his Charge, and leaving the Government of those Islands, according to ancient Custom in time of Peace, to the care of particular Proveditors. They have made choice of Signior Antonio Vandrani to be Proveditor of Cephelonia.

Vienna, Jan. 5. The Emperour is now well recovered of his distemper which for some days much disordered him and perplexed the whole Court, he has since been so well restored to his strength as to write Letters with his own hand to the King and Queen of Spain, and sign several dispatches to the Electors and other persons.

The Turkish Aga has taken his leave of the Count de Monsecuculi the President of the Council of war, and is since dismissed with Presents to his satisfaction, and Letters to the Visier of Offen in return to those he brought from him.

Our complaints are great from Hungary of several violencies committed by the Turks and their daily threats of making fresh invasions upon them, insomuch as several Towns upon the frontiers, and generally all the common people have joynd in a petition to the Emperour to send such a force to their assistance as may secure them from farther attempts and enable them to pay their Duty to the Emperour.

From Fresbourg we are told that a young fellow of 24 years of age who was formerly a servant to the Count de Forgatz, went away from Friesstadt about the 5th of the last month and put himself into Neubausel, and by his addresses got to be entertain'd as a servant in the house of Ali Bassa the Commander of the Janiaries, where for some time he acted the part of a diligent servant, till laying hold of an opportunity he killed the Commander with his Wife and Children and all those few servants that were that day left in the house, and then setting fire to the house made his escape by means of a Cart laden with Corn which he pretended to drive to a Mill out of the Town, and returned again to Friesstadt.

The Resolution still continues for the departure of the Arch-Duchess the Emperours sister, and the intended Queen of Poland, about the end of this Month on her way for Poland, to whom has been assign'd the sum of 250 thousand Liures for her private expences, and the sum of 250 thousand Rixdollers as one half of her Portion. The Bishop of Olmuz is design'd to perform the Ceremonies of their Marriage, and the Count de Sinzenborff to attend her in the Quality of her Major Domo, till she be received by the Commissioners appointed by the King of Poland to receive her upon the Frontiers.

Hague, Jan. 21. The States of Ovryssel having drawn a considerable strength into all their frontier Towns and furnished them with a sufficient quantity of all necessary provisions, are become less jealous of their Neighbours, and have given the States here an account of the posture of their affairs, whereupon the forces which were design'd to have march'd to their assistance but were stopp'd by the late frosts, are countermanded.

The States of Holland will not meet before February, but their Deputies are in daily conference with the Commissioners of the Admiralty about Maritime affairs and the securing of our Trade, especially against the Corsairs of Barbary who are numerous at sea, and are ordered not to appear less than four together, and to set upon all Convoys.
