At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 3rd day of August 1965.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas by an Order in Council dated the 17th day of January 1961 provision was made with respect to the appointment of certain officers of Her Majesty's Armed Forces as Colonels Commandant, Royal Marines, subject, inter alia, to the condition that appointments should be held for a period of four years or until the officer so appointed attained the age of 65 years, whichever was the earlier:

And whereas Her Majesty has been pleased to approve the appointment of Admiral of the Fleet the Right Honourable the Earl Mountbatten of Burma, K.G., G.C.B., O.M., G.C.S.I., G.C.I.E., G.C.V.O., D.S.O., LL.D., D.C.L., D.Sc., to be such a Colonel Commandant as aforesaid and desires that the said condition should not apply in his case:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said condition shall not apply in relation to the appointment of the said Earl Mountbatten of Burma.

W. G. Agnew.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 3rd day of August 1965.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas a Representation duly made to Her Majesty in Council by the Minister of Housing and Local Government that, for the protection of the Public Health, burials should be discontinued as hereinafter directed in the Churchyard of the Church of St. John Baptist, Billesdon in the County of Leicester, has, in pursuance of an Order in Council made the 4th day of May, 1965, and duly published, been taken into consideration by a Committee of the Privy Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, in exercise of the powers conferred on Her by section one of the Burial Act, 1853 (16 & 17 Vict. c. 134), and of all other powers Her enabling, is pleased by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

1. Burials shall be discontinued forthwith and entirely in the said Churchyard of the Church of St. John Baptist, Billesdon.

2. This Order may be cited as the Burial Grounds (St. John Baptist Churchyard, Billesdon, Leicestershire) Order, 1965.
