Kensington, October 21....

THE humble Address of the Bayliff, Aldermen, Common-Council, and other Inhabitants, of the Town and Borough of New Radrior: Presented to Her Many by their Representative in Parliament.

Joshe QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

Way it please Your most Sacred Majesty;

Way it please the world of the World of adding one Country and Kingdom is another by Juch Merbods in the Ambition, 146 John and Power, of Princes and States Juggidion ibem; But to make two independent Kingdoms one, of the Majeston and Interest only, but to make them one Bow with Asset Majeston and Interest only, but to make them one Bow with Empire and Kingdom for ever, in Juch induner as that the Kungdom are justly pleased, and think them justes bappy; with it the unst by Comquest, mels it be that of the Hearts of the Wondom in the Proceedings, and letting both Kingdom interest when Severic of, their common Interest syand all this done as time when the common Encomy thought to make our Division of ground Service to him; and in Juch a Juntiure, that the pagist the World were turned upon the Successes of Your Marking and Asmus Adrova, and had Reason to believe the World were turned upon the Successes of Your Marking and Asmus Adrovad, and had Reason to believe the World were turned upon the Successes of Your Marking Jay, Two Kingdoms after Juch a mannes, is what no win, Jay, Two Kingdoms after Juch a mannes, is what no win, Jay, Two Kingdoms after Juch a mannes, is what no win, Jay, Two Kingdoms after Juch a mannes, is what no win, Jay, Two Kingdoms of the Majesty, and may be latest. How will be over but this one single Instance to admire. It is submin, that this glorious Unian was often attempted, but in win, but, and this world what what, upon many Tryals, was thought to be a meer Speculation benefit what, upon many Tryals, was thought to be a meer Speculation between the Helpful Andrews of Themesical the Succession of the Helpful Andrews of Themesical the Succession of the Helpful Andrews of Themesical the ten winds of the Helpful Andrews of Themesical the England May

Venice, Officer 7. N.S. Letters from Rome of the full Instant say, That Seignior Battista Nani, Ambassador from this Republick, not having been invited to the Chapel which was to have been held the next Day, left that City on the 26th of last Month. He was attended at his Departure by the Cardinals Colloredo, Ottoboni, and Priuli, and a great Number of Prelates; but an Express follow'd him to Spoletto with a Project of Accommodation: Upon which his Excellency dispatch'd Orders to Rome to forbid his House being unfurnish'd, with Directions to re-ceive again into his Service some Domesticks he had difinited. The Pope has appointed the Palaces of Callel-Candolfo and Albano for his Residence, till he thinks it convenient to return to Rome.

Francfort, October 20. The Elector of Mentz arrived here Yesterday, and the Elector of Hanover is expected this Evening; as is also his Grace the Duke of Marlborough. The Conference was at first to have been held at Mentz; but his Electoral Highness, to avoid several Ceremonies, in which he must have been engag'd at that Place, chose rather to have it in this City. Letters from the Imperial Army advise, That, by the Care of his Electoral Highness, the Troops have Plenty of all manner of Necessaries; and if there have I have a few to the content of the conte and, if there should be occasion, can be supply'd with them in the Field a Month longer. He has given Orders, That the Magazines of Philipsbourg, and other Frontier Places, be immediately fill'd with Stores. The Baron Reyschack and Monsieur Elsteren are sent to the Black Forest, in order to make a Report of what Measures are to be taken for the forming a new Line to cover that part of the Country. The Army of the Marshal de Villars is in great want of Forage, and ruine the Country wherever they come. They have forag'd in the Town of Baden, tho' the Princess was there, and had at that time Safe-guards granted her for the Protection of the Place.

Pariz, Offober 21. N.S. On Tuesday last a Courier arriv'd at Fontainbleau from Spain, who brought the King Advice, That the Trenches were open'd before Lerida the Night between the 2d and 3d instant: He reports, That the Duke of Orleans observing that the swelling of the Segra had very much incommoded their Works, and given the Enemy Opportunity to prepare for the Succour of the Place, call'd a Council of War, to consider whether it was not advisable to raise the Siege. The greater Number of the General Officers thought the Enterprize. ber of the General Officers thought the Enterprize. impracticable; but the Duke of Berwick being of impracticable; but the Duke of Berwick being of another Opinion, he at length prevailed with the rest to follow his Sentiments. Monsieur d'Aubigny is also come from Spain, with the Particulars of the taking of Ciudad-Rodrigo: He says, That the Marquis de Bay having made himself Master of the Counterscarp, our Men broke into the Town among the Enemy, kill'd 200, and made the rest of the Garison Prisoners of War. This Success has not made up our Missoriuse in the Loss of Sunot made up our Misfortune in the Loss of Su-fa, by which Dauphine lies open to the Enemy, and the Entrance of Italy is shut against us. The Campagne in Flanders being at an end, the General Officers return daily to Court, where its said the Duke of Vendosme will arrive on the 27th of this Month; and the Houshold Troops will be here next Week. Ninety five Squadrons are to be drawn out of Flanders, and to have their Windrawn out of Flanders, and to have their Winter-Quarters near Paris; which it's hoped may be of fome Advantage to the People of these Parts, who are promis'd to be paid in Money for what Forage and Provision they are oblig'd to furnish. The Proceedings at Neuschatel are highly resented by the King, who has sent Orders to the Duke of Villeroy and Monsieur de Matignon to stay at Pontarlier; and at the same time directed Monsieur Puisieux to repair to Neuschatel and reside there till he receives pair to Neufchatel, and reside there till he receives further Instructions. The Prince of Conti is much dis-
